Rico Abreu Holds Off Larson to Win Premier Chevy Dealers Clash at Knoxville! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (April 19, 2025) – Rico Abreu cashed in $12,000 by taking the Premier Chevy Dealers Clash featuring the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws Sprint car Series at Knoxville Raceway Saturday night in the Rico Abreu Racing #24. The St. Helena, California driver's win was his eighth at the Knoxville Raceway and his eighteenth with the World of Outlaws.

Aaron Reutzel shot out to the early lead in the 25-lap main event from outside row one, ahead of Logan Schuchart, Abreu, Tyler Courtney and Giovanni Scelzi. Abreu worked the low side of turn four to pass Schuchart for second on lap two. Kyle Larson entered the top five on lap six.

Abreu reeled in Reutzel and took the point using the low side of turn two on lap nine. Abreu was into lapped traffic at that point. Larson passed Courtney for fourth on lap ten, before a lap twelve caution for Donny Schatz and Parker Price-Miller.

Abreu took the inside lane on the double-file restart, ahead of Reutzel, Schuchart, Larson, Courtney and Scelzi. Fourteenth running Carson Macedo slowed on the restart and was done with front end issues. Once back green, Larson continued forward, sliding by Schuchart for third with ten to go, and two laps later, he passed Reutzel on the low side of turn four for second. Schuchart worked by Reutzel for third with six to go.

Larson slowly reeled in Abreu, but with two laps to go, stumbled in turns one and two. A late bid at the leader came up .214 of a second short. Abreu's win came ahead of Larson, Schuchart, Courtney and Reutzel. David Gravel, Scelzi, Austin McCarl, Brad Sweet and Emerson Axsom completed the top ten.

Abreu and Reutzel set quick time in their respective groups. Daison Pursley and Daryn Pittman won the Non-Qualifier heats. Abreu, Axsom, Schuchart and Scelzi were heat race winners. Kyle Bellm took the D main and Zach Hampton claimed the C. Schuchart won the Dash and JJ Hickie conquered the B main. Local Tasker Phillips timed in well, but crashed violently down the backstretch after contact with Brad Sweet in his heat race. He was uninjured, but done for the night.

"I knew someone was coming," said Abreu to Larson's late charge. "I was trying to process dissecting with my car in lapped traffic. I had some issues with my wing ram. I had to push it forward down the straightaways and really hit my marks. I knew somebody was going to be coming, just by how much I had to move around on the racing surface. Knoxville Raceway has definitely become one of my favorite tracks in the world. The exits on the bottom were getting tricky. I wanted to set a fast pace, and the gear was giving us momentum up top. I just wanted to hit my marks. When you get (in traffic) you just have to be patient and concentrate on foot work. When you race against the best, you can't make any mistakes to beat them."

"I wish I wouldn't have had to try the 'Hail Mary'," said Larson of his drive in the Paul Silva #57. "I wish I would not have made so many mistakes once I got to second. I could put a couple good laps together, and then push too hard and mess up. The bottom, if you could hit it, was really fast. If you missed it, it was probably worth more than you could gain. I lost touch with (Abreu), but I was able to piece together a really good one and two on the last lap. Good job to Rico there. I was able to steal one from him in August, so I'm sure he was glad to get one back on me. I was happy with the car once again at Knoxville. To come from ninth, that run was great.”

“We weren’t as good as what we needed to be,” said Schuchart of his run in the Shark Racing #1s. “I wish I would have gotten to the top at the very beginning and just ripped it around there. It’s hard as the leader up there to know where to go. We were able to actually start catching them the last few laps in traffic. To get a podium finish here at Knoxville with almost 70 cars...as good as the field as you’re going to see in August. We’re happy to be here at Knoxville, the greatest place in the world for a sprint car fanatic. We’re just happy to be here!”

Rico Abreu Strikes For Second Time in a Row at Knoxville!

Aaron Reutzel Shows the Way in Randall Roofing 360's; Matthew Stelzer Outlasts Kline in Pro Sprints
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (April 26, 2025) – An action packed CraigFord.com Season Opener at Knoxville Raceway Saturday was headlined by a Rico Abreu triumph for the second week in a row after topping the World of Outlaws here on April 19. The St. Helena, California native led wire to wire to earn a $6,000 payday in the Rico Abreu Racing #24. A late charge by Aaron Reutzel fell short, but the Texas native added another Randall Roofing 360 win to his credit here in that class. After taking a year off from racing, Matthew Stelzer outdueled Devin Kline in the Pro Sprints feature. Stelzer is atop the all-time win list in the class with 17 wins.

The 20-lap 410 feature went non-stop after Scott Bogucki got sideways on the initial lap, collecting Chase Randall, who went off on the hook with front end damage. Once green, Abreu led from the pole, ahead of Kerry Madsen, Reutzel, Brian Brown and defending track champion, Austin McCarl. McCarl used the low side of the track to gain fourth from Brown on lap three.

Abreu was in lapped traffic on lap seven and his pace slowed a bit. Madsen reeled him in and briefly passed him for the lead on lap eight, but Abreu regained his footing by the flag stand. Reutzel was gaining momentum on the cushion and passed Madsen for second on lap 12, with McCarl following him into third on the following circuit.

At the time, Abreu had three lapped cars between himself and Reutzel, but Reutzel gained significant ground late, falling just a half-second behind Abreu at the checkers. Austin McCarl was third, ahead of Madsen and Brown. Brent Marks, Justin Peck, Chris Martin, Carson McCarl and Spencer Bayston rounded out the top ten. Bogucki and Brown set quick time over their respective flights in the 39-car field. Reutzel, Abreu, Cory Eliason and JJ Hickle were heat winners. Sawyer Phillips took the B main.

“I really have to dissect that one,” said Abreu in Victory Lane. “I felt like in traffic, our pace really slowed down. We’re really pumped to come back to Knoxville after a weekend like we had last weekend, and just really enjoy running laps here. This track crew, this safety crew, just the whole facility is a special place. I think these local shows and Outlaw shows are some of the most important races for race teams. For us to be able to work on things...it was a lot different pace than last week, a lot slower. We were able to do some different things to our racecar. The top was definitely more difficult to run.”

JJ Hickle led the non-stop 18-lap Randall Roofing 360 feature early over Jamie Ball, Tasker Phillips, Reutzel and Clint Garner. Phillips was fast early, picking off Ball for second on lap two. Reutzel followed him into third, and Garner used the high side of the track to take fourth on lap three.

Phillips slid by Hickle for the lead and then came down the track in turn three, stealing the leader’s momentum on lap four. The result was Phillips at the point, and Reutzel following him into second. The two battled fiercely for the lead, with Reutzel taking it for good on lap six. He was soon into lapped traffic on the eighth circuit and pulling away. Chase Randall entered the top five and then took fourth from Garner in heavy lapped traffic with six to go.

Reutzel would expand his margin to three seconds at the checkers, ahead of Phillips, Hickle, Randall and Garner. Ball, Dustin Selvage, Riley Goodno, Cam Martin and Kade Higday completed the top ten. Reutzel set quick time over the 30-car field. Reutzel, Garner and Tyler Groenendyk were heat winners and Timothy Smith claimed the B.

“This was a great start to the 360’s,” said Reutzel in Victory Lane beside the Ridge & Sons Racing #87. “We tried a different car here, and a different combination of stuff. I’m really happy with it. Happy Birthday to Don Long. We’re glad to get a win on his Birthday. We definitely wouldn’t be winning these 360 races like this without him.”

The two drivers who sit atop the career wins list in the Pro Sprints class started on the front row on Saturday. The 15-lapper saw pole-sitter Devin Kline with the early advantage over front row mate, Stelzer, Matt Allen, Jeff Wilke and Tyler Thompson. Devin Wignall came to a rest inside turn one with a lap in the books. Thompson claimed fourth from Wilke on that restart, but J Kinder was moving up from the third row and moved into the top four on lap three. He then gained third from Allen on lap four, with Thompson in tow.

Up front, Kline was into traffic on lap seven before Rob Kubli came to a stop in turn four. With eight laps to go, Kline led Stelzer, Kinder, Thompson and Allen back to green. Stelzer was able to sneak by Kline for the lead on the restart, while sixteenth starting Josh Jones was gaining attention on the high side, moving into the top three. Kinder battled back by him as Jones began to smoke and fade in the closing stages.

The leaders were entering lapped traffic again when Thompson's good run came to a stop at the white flag lap, setting up a green, white, checker finish that made the race 16 laps. Kline made a last ditch effort and coming for the white flag, was side by side with Stelzer for the lead.

Stelzer would pull away to the victory, with Kline, Kinder, young Luke Lane and Toby Mosher, who had to start at the tail in tow. Koddy Hildreth, Brody Johnson, Evan Jones, Josh Jones and Chase Young completed the top ten in a wild and wooly finish. Mosher set quick time over the field, while Kevin Hetrick and Young won heats.

"I have the most respect for Devin," said Stelzer after the race beside the Stelzer Racing #99. "He's a top talent driver in this class, and races clean. That's what I expect top talent to do. He's going to be up here this year too. He's a talented driver. This is dedicated to Wayne Timm, Stan Cisar and Ricky Edwards. Without those guys, I wouldn't be here today."

Ryan Timms Breaks Through for First Knoxville Win!

Clint Garner Ends Drought in Randall Roofing 360's and Notches 48th Win; Brett Moffitt Victorious in First Pro Sprints Start
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 3, 2025) – Oklahoma City's Ryan Timms set a blistering pace and held off Brian Brown to win his first ever feature event Saturday at the Knoxville Raceway in the 410's. Timms win was worth $6,000 and came aboard the Liebig Racing #10. Clint Garner won for the first time in almost three years in the Randall Roofing 360 class. The win was his 48th, which is second all-time at the "Sprint Car Capital of the World" to David Hesmer (60). Brett Moffitt, the 2010 NASCAR Truck Series champion made his first ever start in the Pro Sprints series aboard the Allen Racing #17 and won. It was his second career win at Knoxville, after having won in 2007 in a Sport Mod here.

When Cory Eliason started slowly from his pole position in the 20-lap feature event, Timms stormed from his starting spot in row two to lead early in the 20-lap 410 feature ahead of Brian Brown, Austin McCarl, Kerry Madsen and Scott Bogucki. Brown shot by Timms to lead lap two, but the Oklahoma youngster used the cushion to glide back around Brown and into the lead. Meanwhile, Madsen moved by Austin McCar for third.

It would be brief, as Madsen suddenly spun in turn two, backed into the wall, and tipped over. He was uninjured. Timms led Brown, McCarl, Bogucki and Eliason back to green. Timms pulled away, and encountered lapped traffic on the ninth circuit.

While he maneuvered well through traffic, Brown was slowly reeling him in. On lap 21, Brown tried a slider, that fell short. Timms margin of victory at the checkers was just two-tenths of a second over Brown. Austin McCarl was third, and Eliason grabbed fourth late from Bogucki. Kaleb Johnson, Tasker Phillips, JJ Hickie, Ayrton Gennetten and Lynton Jeffrey rounded out the top ten. Brown set quick time over the 35-car field, while Cole Mincer, Hickie, Jeffrey and Sawyer Phillips won heats. Jack Anderson claimed the B main. Kade Higday turned over in hot laps and was done for the night in that class.

“I thought I had it put away once I got around Brown on lap three,” said Timms in Victory Lane. “I thought I should be able to walk away, and I was feeling really good. I was definitely not as perfect as I like to be. I saw Brown come in there (on lap 16), and I wasn’t expecting it at all. I kind of got out of it for a second, and he gave me room, so I got back on it to get around him. I was very thankful not to see him again after that. I’m just so stoked to win here at Knoxville. This is a place that was at the top of my bucket list. To knock it out so fast...I really wasn’t expecting it.”

The 18-lap Randall Roofing 360 main event needed four tries to go green. Alex Hill got sideways in turn one on the initial start, collecting Tasker Phillips, who got upside down, and Chase Brown, who also suffered extensive damage. Several other cars continued after repairs. The second try saw Sawyer Phillips get upside down on the front straight, and Riley Goodno blow a right rear. Both were o.k. Finally, Aidan Zoutte tipped over after making contact with the turn one wall to bring the final red flag.

Once underway, Tyler Groenendyk led, ahead of Ryan Leavitt, Clint Garner, Matt Covington and Kade Higday. Covington used the low side to pass both Garner and Leavitt, moving into second. Garner then drove by Leavitt in tight racing amongst the three to take third on lap six. Higday stopped in turn two with damage, surrendering his fifth place run with 12 laps to go.

The restart saw Groenendyk leading Covington, Garner, Leavitt and Jamie Ball. Garner shot into second when the green fell, and Ball took fourth. Timothy Smith shot into the top five riding the cushion soon after.

Garner used a low line in turn four to drive past Groenendyk and take the lead on lap 12, and entered lapped traffic with five to go. Garner pulled away from there for the $2,000 win. Groenendyk was second, ahead of Covington, Ball and Smith. Leavitt. Cam Martin, Ryan Giles, hard-charger Scott Winters and Dustin Selvage completed the top ten. Groenendyk set quick time, while Terry McCarl, Dustin Selvage and Higday won heats. Ryan Bickett took the B main.

“Everybody in these things is driving as hard as they can every lap,” said Garner. “It’s just the mistakes that we’re all making that makes it easier for Reutzel to beat us. He’s busy somewhere else, so it’s our turn. The car is great. The engine is doing its job and everything. This win is for (son) Cole. We have a big crew, more than anyone in the pits. We did a lot of work this winter, and we have the nicest stuff. I’m glad to be here.”

Brett Moffitt had not entered a Pro Sprints event before Saturday, but it didn’t look like it, as the Mooresville, North Carolina driver set quick time and led all 15 laps of the feature. Veteran J Kinder stayed on his tail for much of the event, with Matthew Stelzer in tow.

The win was not without its challenges. Moffitt narrowly missed a slowing lapped car on lap seven. With four laps to go, Toby Mosher got into a lapper and shot into the turn three wall, taking a wild ride. He was uninjured. Moffitt held off Kinder, who made a bid for the lead late to take his maiden sprint car win. Stelzer, Rob Kubli and Tyler Thompson followed the lead pair. Mike Mayberry, Jeff Wilke, Chase Young, Devin Wignall and Evan Jones completed the top ten. Moffitt set quick time, and Kubli and Mayberry won the heats.

“I definitely have a lot of learning left to do,” said Moffitt after the race. “We got the pill draw on our side, and I tried not to make mistakes. The bottom here is super-technical. Luckily, we were able to hold them off. I saw (Kinder) with two to go, and I knew I had to pick up the pace a little bit. It was a super fun night, and thank you to Matt Allen for letting me drive it.”

Brian Brown Clinches Win #67 at Knoxville!

Tasker Phillips Wins Thriller in Randall Roofing 360's; J Kinder Bests Moffitt in Pro Sprints by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 10, 2025) – Brian Brown led wire to wire to pick up his 67th career 410 victory at Knoxville Raceway Saturday night. The Grain Valley, Missouri driver picked up $6,000 for his win aboard the Brian Brown Racing #21. Tasker Phillips won a duel with Clint Garner that saw four lead changes in the non-stop Randall Roofing 360 main event. J Kinder won his tenth career feature in the Pro Sprints, passing last week's winner Brett Moffitt in the late going.

The 25-lap 410 feature saw Brown jump out from his starting spot outside row one, ahead of Austin McCarl, JJ Hickle, Kerry Madsen and Emerson Axsom. Gage Pulkrabek came to a stop on lap three, bringing a caution. Madsen shot into third when the race went green again before Tasker Phillips got sideways and collected Josh Schneiderman, who tipped over. Both were unhurt.

Brown shot away again, as Austin McCarl developed a right sideboard issue on his top wing. The wing continued to disintegrate as the race wore on. On lap seven, Axsom passed Hickle for the fourth spot. On lap 11, Brown entered traffic.

With six laps to go, Axsom shot through the middle of turns one and two to go from fifth to third. A caution for debris followed as a piece of McCarl's wing was retrieved. Brown shot away to the dash to the checkers, while McCarl was a sitting duck, getting passed by Axsom, Madsen, Hickle and Scott Bogucki on the restart.

Brown's win would come ahead of Axsom, Madsen, Hickle and Bogucki. Sawyer Phillips, Kaleb Johnson, hard-charger Carson McCarl, Austin McCarl and Justin Henderson rounded out the top ten. Austin McCarl set quick time over the field, while Johnson, Cam Martin and Riley Goodno won the heats.

"You really don't know how far you are leading," said Brown of the pace he kept throughout the race. "We've struggled a little bit to start the year, and this is a different car after getting crashed last year. We worked on it all night long, and Chad (Morgan) made a great suggestion after the heat race. That just made it considerably better. This is his 50th win (at Knoxville) as well. The car was great. We kind of moved down a little bit off of two at the end. Overall, it was a good night."

The 18-lap 360 feature was action packed and went non-stop. Clint Garner grabbed the early lead over Sawyer Phillips, Ryan Giles, Jamie Ball and Tasker Phillips. Giles passed Sawyer for second on lap two, while Tasker moved by Ball into the fourth spot. On lap three, Cam Martin moved into the top five himself.

Garner was in lapped traffic by the sixth circuit. Meanwhile, Tasker had moved by his brother Sawyer into third, and then passed Giles for second on lap seven. Tasker slowly reeled in Garner and then passed him on the high side of turn two on lap 10. With five to go, Sawyer moved into the third spot, getting by Giles.

Garner made the high side work next and went by Tasker in traffic to lead lap 14. Tasker surged back on lap 15 in some great racing and took the point for good. Sawyer followed him into second with two to go, and Garner finished third. Giles was fourth and Riley Goodno came on late for fifth. Martin, Kade Higday, Ball, Tony Rost and Terry McCarl completed the top ten. Tasker Phillips set quick time, while Giles, Terry McCarl and Dustin Selva won heats.

"It's been a very trying year," said Tasker after his second 360 win here in the 3 Way Motorsports #1TAZ. "We got after it. These guys have had this car fast all year long, and I've been finding a way to screw it up. I'm just glad they've stayed behind me. I've been asking them if I need to dial it down and win races, and they say we're set on kill and need to win races. We're here to win. Luckily, I didn't get caught in something like I have the last couple weeks."

The 15-lap Pro Sprints feature got off to a rocky start, when Mike Mayberry and Tyler Thompson touched wheels on the backstretch. Only Thompson was able to restart at the rear of the field, while the defending class champion was done.

Brett Moffitt picked up where he left off a week ago, and led early, ahead of J Kinder, Devin Kline, Rob Kubli and Chase Young. The lead five stayed nose to tail until Devin Wignall came to a stop with just six laps to go.

Things got interesting from there, as Kinder chose a high line to work around Moffitt and close his path to the low side of turn three. Thompson recovered after restarting at the tail, grabbing fourth with four laps to go. A final caution came out for a fifth running Kubli, setting up a three-lap dash to the checkers.

Kinder pulled away in the Kinder Racing #88 for the $800 win, ahead of Moffitt, Thompson, who gained third on the last lap, Kline and Young. Kevin Hetrick, Brody Johnson, Koddy Hildreth, Evan Jones and Jeff Wilke rounded out the top ten. Moffitt set quick time, just a tenth of a second off the track record, while Kubli and Young won heats.

“Tonight was a good night to start up front,” said Kinder in Victory Lane. “The track slicked off quite a bit more than I thought it would. I hope it was fun to watch. That was fun. Brett is awesome to race with. I hope he comes back. That’s why we do this, this is fun.”

Brian Brown Tops Big Knoxville Field!

Jamie Ball Scores First of the Year in Randall Roofing 360's; J Kinder Cashes in Again with Pro Sprints by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 17, 2025) – Brian Brown scored win #68 in his storied career at the Knoxville Raceway on Saturday night in Knoxville Championship Series 410 action with 39 cars assembled. The Grain Valley, Missouri held off Ryan Timms to win $6,000 in the Brian Brown Racing #21. Jamie Ball led wire to wire in the Randall Roofing 360 main event for career win #11 in that class. J Kinder dominated the Pro Sprint feature, and in what was also his 11th career win.

Luck has been on Brown's side lately with the draw, and a point invert of four put him on the pole of the 20-lap 410 main event. He got off to a good start, ahead of Emerson Axsom, Ryan Timms, Scott Bogucki and Parker Price-Miller. Price-Miller and Cory Eliason shot by Bogucki for fourth and fifth on the second circuit. Austin McCarl used the high side of four to grab the fifth spot from Eliason on lap four.

Five laps in, eighth running Kerry Madsen flipped hard in turn four, collecting Sawyer Phillips, who had nowhere to go, tipping over his car. Both walked away. Brown led Axsom, Timms, Price-Miller and Austin McCarl back to green. McCarl gained the fourth spot before a caution came out for a stalled Cole Mincer on the frontstretch six laps in.

McCarl gained third from Timms on the restart, but the Oklahoma youngster shot back by him on lap nine to regain the show position. Timms surge continued the following lap, when he cruised by Axsom on the low side for the second spot. Axsom used the same move two laps later, to regain the position. Meanwhile, Price-Miller snatched fourth from McCarl.

Brown entered lapped traffic with six to go. With three laps to go, Timms used the low side of turn four to pass Axsom for second, with Price-Miller and McCarl in tow.

Timms closed late, but fell just short of his second win here. Price-Miller was third, ahead of McCarl. Axsom crossed fifth, but was disqualified for not reporting to the scales. Kaleb Johnson, Cory Eliason, Carson McCarl, Sam Hafertepe Jr., Bogucki and Ayrton Gennetten rounded out the top ten. Austin McCarl and Axsom set quick time in their respective groups. Eliason, Price-Miller, Sawyer Phillips and Johnson were heat winners. Juhl claimed the B main. Brandon Worthington flipped in his heat race. He was uninjured, but done for the night.

"I was watching the board there a little the middle way through to the end," said Brown in Victory Lane. "I could see a white car, so I didn't know if it was (Timms) or Axsom. Sometimes, being out front isn't the best place to be. It is at the end, but sometimes in traffic, you can get stagnant on the bottom and slow yourself down. Overall, it was a good night. We have to take advantage of these opportunities when we're on the front and win the race. I think Danny (Lasoski) might be proud of that effort (running the bottom). We've both run a lot of races here, but two total different styles. You wouldn't know we're related."

Jamie Ball led Ryan Giles, Tyler Groenendyk, Tasker Phillips and Cam Martin early in the 18-lap Randall Roofing 360 feature. Phillips moved by Groenendyk early for third. Ball was in lapped traffic by the sixth circuit. Phillips gained momentum in the middle stages, shooting under Giles for second on lap 10, but jumped the cushion in turn four the following lap, surrendering the spot he had just gained. Logan Alexander spun after contact with another car, bringing caution with seven laps to go.

Phillips regained the second spot on the restart, only to have Giles snatch it back in good racing with four to go. Martin was running fifth when he tagged the frontstretch wall. That affected his car, and it didn't turn in turn one, headed straight into the wall, turning him over. He was unhurt, but done.

Ball led the rest of the way to earn the $2,000 payday ahead of Giles, Tasker Phillips, a late closing Terry McCarl and hard-charger Cory Eliason. Riley Goodno, Groenendyk, Timothy Smith, Dustin Selvage and Matt Covington completed the top ten. Ball set quick time over the 29-car field, while Calvin Landis, Eliason and Selvage won heats. Russell Potter took the B main.

"This is definitely the trials and tribulations that I feel Christian people like myself talk about," said Ball, who has been dealing with injury. "I have faith in my guys and the good man upstairs. It's been trying. On April 22, I couldn't feel my right arm for 24 hours. I still can't do a push-up, sleep overly well, and holding my daughter has been sort of hard. Racing is important, but there's a lot of things more important than racing. I was telling my guys this is year 16, and I still don't like starting on the front row. I was talking to Carson Macedo a little bit, and he was giving me some tips on where to go and what to do. I'm just lucky to have guys like him and Rico (Abreu) to critique my driving a little bit."

J Kinder left no doubt with the Pro Sprints. A point invert of 0 put him on the front row and he ran away early in the 15-lapper from rookie Brody Johnson, Toby Mosher, Josh Jones and Tyler Thompson. Chase Young joined the top five on lap three.

Kinder opened a huge lead and hit lapped traffic at the halfway mark. He had over a four-second advantage when Devin Wignall came to a stop with four to go. He pulled away from there, winning ahead of Brody Johnson, with a career-best finish, Mosher, Josh Jones and Tyler Thompson, who regained fifth on the restart. Young, Jeff Wilke, hard-charger Casey Friedrichsen, Koddy Hildreth and first-timer Hunter Lane rounded out the top ten. Mosher set quick time over the field, and Hildreth and Luke Lane were heat winners

"It was pretty good starting up front tonight," said Kinder in Victory Lane for the second time this year. "It was a lot wetter than I thought it would be. I got to thank my mom, my dad and my wife for their support. We'll see how this thing goes the rest of the year. I think we can get faster."

Ryan Timms Jets to Another Knoxville Win!

Tyler Groenendyk Wins First Ever in 360's; Devin Kline Leads Wire to Wire in Pro Sprints by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 24, 2025) – Ryan Timms survived an early duel with Austin McCarl and went on to win the 410 feature Saturday at the Knoxville Raceway on Dennison Tees/Jersey Freeze Night. The victory was the second of the year at Knoxville for the Oklahoma City, Oklahoma driver and earned him $6,000. Oskaloosa, Iowa's Tyler Groenendyk earned his first ever win in the Randall Roofing 360 class, and Devin Kline topped the Pro Sprints class for the sixteenth time in his career.

Kevin Thomas Jr.'s feature ended before it began, when he had issues and went pitside before the green could fall.

Timms started on the pole of the 20-lap 410 main event and led early over Austin McCarl, Brian Brown, Kerry Madsen and Carson McCarl. While Timms ran low, the defending track champion, McCarl, rode high and took the lead on lap two. Timms responded in turns one and two, reclaiming the point for good.

The leaders were lapping cars by the sixth circuit, and on lap seven, thirteenth running Jason Martin and fourteenth runner Ben Brown were involved in a nasty accident in turn three. Both were o.k., but done. Cole Mincer was also involved and sustained enough damage to retire. RJ Johnson flipped on the restart going down the backstretch. He also walked away.

Timms led Austin McCarl, Brian Brown, Madsen and Carson McCarl back to green. Madsen pressured Brown and took over third on lap nine, while Lynton Jeffrey passed Carson McCarl to get into the top five. McCarl returned the favor three laps later in a good battle.

Up front, Timms was going through traffic with six to go. Though he narrowed the gap a bit, Austin McCarl would settle for second at the line, ahead of Madsen, Brian Brown and Carson McCarl. Rookie Jack Anderson put on a show as the hard-charger, advancing from seventeenth to sixth, and Jeffrey, Riley Goodno, Kaleb Johnson and Tasker Phillips rounded out the top ten. Brian Brown set quick time over the field, while Ben Brown, Jason Martin and Tasker Phillips won the heats.

"My car was so good," said Timms in Victory Lane. "It wasn't easy. My hat's off to my team (Liebig Racing #10). They put a ton of work in and they always give me a fast racecar. I'm really happy to be standing here right now. This one is for (the late) Sam Liebig and the whole Liebig family, and my thoughts go out to Bill Wagner and his family while he's getting healed up. We got some redraw luck. Sometimes, you may want to be more lucky than good."

Tyler Groenendyk shot out to an early advantage in the 18-lap Randall Roofing 360 feature, ahead of Ryan Giles, Tasker Phillips, Sawyer Phillips and Tony Rost.

Groenendyk built his lead on the fast half-mile, entering lapped traffic on the seventh circuit. With seven to go, Cole Garner brought out the only caution.

Groenendyk didn't flinch, and the former Pro Sprint champ beat Giles, Tasker Phillips, Sawyer Phillips and Clint Garner to the line. Kade Higday, Rost, Cam Martin, Dustin Selvage and Riley Goodno completed the top ten. Giles set quick time over the 30-car field, while Jamie Ball, Chase Porter and Selvage won the heats. Ryan Bickett claimed the B main. Tyler Graves tipped over in his heat race, but returned for the B.

"We've been trying to do this for so long," said Groenendyk of his breakthrough win worth $2,000 in his #17. "We got going good in the Pro Sprint deal, and we hadn't got it going yet in the 360's. We've ran second multiple times and just never pulled it off. I think we've worked harder this year than ever."

Evan Jones started the Pro Sprints 15-lap main event with a thud into the turn one wall. He walked away. The second try saw veteran Kevin Hetrick have issues on the backstretch.

Once green, Devin Kline took the lead from the pole ahead of Luke Lane, Chase Young, Matthew Stelzer and Tyler Thompson. Lane's nose wing would fly off a lap in, bringing a caution for debris.

The restart saw Matt Allen use the low side to pass Thompson for fifth on lap three and then use the same move on Stelzer for fourth on lap four. Thompson re-entered the top five in a good battle with Stelzer.

Meanwhile, up front, Kline was in a class of his own, entering lapped traffic on lap seven, before a spin by Toby Mosher brought the final yellow flag out with six to go. Kline led the field back to green, while Lane incredibly held second without his nose wing, ahead of Young, Allen and Thompson.

The second-winningest driver in the Pro Sprints sailed to his first win since grabbing a pair back in 2021. Young passed Lane for second coming for the white flag. Thompson finished fourth ahead of Allen. Stelzer, J Kinder, Brody Johnson, Devin Wignall and Jeff Wilke rounded out the top ten. Stelzer set fast time over the field, while Kinder and Young won the heats.

"I was thankful we got a restart after that first start," said Kline. "I got a second chance at it, and didn't look back. I still love sprint car racing and Knoxville, but sometimes life happens and I like to do other things too. It's nice to be here and itch the itch."

Join us Friday and Saturday, May 30 and 31 for the Avanti Windows and Doors Corn Belt Clash featuring the Amsoil USAC National Sprint Cars! The Randall Roofing 360 class will join them for Friday's action, while the 410's will also be on the card on Saturday. Brady Bacon Notches USAC Win #61 at Knoxville Friday!
Ryan Timms Continues Roll with Randall Roofing 360 Victory
 by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 30, 2025) – Brady Bacon notched USAC win #61 on Friday, putting him just one shy of Dave Darland, who sits atop the all-time Amsoil USAC National Sprint Car list. The victory came on night #1 of the Avanti Windows and Doors Corn Belt Clash at the Knoxville Raceway, and was worth $9,000 to the Broken Arrow, Oklahoma native. Ryan Timms notched his first career win with the Randall Roofing 360 class. It followed two previous wins in the 410 class here this season.

Chase Stockon led early in the 25-lap USAC main event, ahead of Brady Bacon, Briggs Danner, Kevin Thomas Jr. and RJ Johnson. Johnson and Thomas had the best early racing action, exchanging fourth place twice before lap seven was complete. Robert Ballou entered the top five on lap nine.

Up front, the lead trio stayed nose to tail for the majority of the race, entering lapped traffic at the halfway point. Slight miscues led to great racing. Danner shot around Bacon for second on lap 17 with a pass high in turn two, but Bacon came back on the low side of the same corner to recapture the spot two laps later.

Bacon stayed on the leader, and performed a slide job through turns three and four to pass Stockon for the point with six laps to go. The three cars stayed extremely close. Danner took advantage in lapped traffic with three to go to gain second from Stockon before a caution for debris on the frontstretch set up a green, white, checker finish.

Bacon led the rest of the way to win for the fifth time at this facility in the Dyson #20, ahead of Danner, Stockon, Ballou and Justin Grant. Hard-charger Kale Drake, Thomas, Kyle Cummins, Ryan Bernal and Jake Swanson rounded out the top ten. Leary set a new one-lap track record at 18.442 seconds in qualifying, while Grant, Ballou, Cummins and Carson Garrett won the heats. Wyatt Burks claimed the B main. Nick Marts's night came to a close in qualifying as he hit the wall in turn one. Kayla Roell flipped hard in her heat, but was o.k. and returned to the B with a back-up car. AJ Johnson flipped in qualifying, but returned for his heat race. Bacon will try to match Darland's mark in the $15,000 to win finale here Saturday night.

"We were better than (Stockon) on the top," said Bacon in Victory Lane. "But the bottom of two was really good, and he was a little bit better than us down there at the start of the race. It was about getting some momentum and getting a rhythm. We were getting a bit jammed up and getting up to lapped cars. I was just trying to go where he wasn't, but Briggs was really good. He snuck by us a couple of times, and it was close on the backstretch a couple of times. This place is a chess match, and if you mess up, you pay dearly. I made a couple of mistakes, but we were able to get in the right place when it mattered. Once I was in front, I had a car to hold everyone off. We come here with a lot of confidence and with one goal...to win the race."

"I felt more comfortable on top," said Danner. "The bottom is hard to hit here, and we felt more comfortable on the top. We tried to keep the momentum going. I think we had a winning car, but it was the Cway things played out. Brady has won a couple races here. It's our first time here, and we're very happy. We're looking forward to tomorrow."

"We just had a couple incidences of lapped cars and judging them wrong and the wrong time," said Stockon. "We missed the bottom in one and two. It was close (racing) you know. It sucks tasting victory there and not being able to pull it off for the guys, but we're forever extending our notebook and we learned a lot tonight."

Ryan Timms sat on the pole of the Randall Roofing 360 18-lap main event after a point invert of four. He paced the field early over Kerry Madsen, Carson McCarl, Austin McCarl and Tasker Phillips. The non-stop event went quickly.

Austin McCarl passed his brother Carson for third with a low side move in turn four on lap three, and on lap six, used a pass on the low side of two to take second from Madsen. Austin slowly reeled in Timms, making a bid for the lead at the halfway point. Timms was able to dive back under McCarl to maintain the lead. Carson McCarl made a low pass of Madsen for third on lap 11.

Timms continued to the checkers, banking $2,000 in the Liebig #10 and backing up his 410 win here last Saturday. Austin McCarl, Carson McCarl, Madsen and Phillips were the top five. Ryan Giles, Emerson Axsom, Parker Price-Miller, JJ Hickie and Chris Martin completed the top ten. All but Giles are expected to compete in the 410 class here on Saturday. Carson McCarl and Timms set quick time in their respective groups in the 45-car field. Alex Hill, Riley Goodno, Jack Anderson and Madsen won the heats. Clint Garner and Sawyer Phillips won twin B's. Russell Potter turned over in his heat. He was uninjured, but done for the night.

"I wasn't really sure where the preferred line was going to be," said Timms in Victory Lane. "I got a good initial start and got to the top in one. That's where I made the least amount of mistakes now is on the top, so I just felt a lot more comfortable choosing to run the top, until someone showed me a nose. I think when we got to lapped traffic, Austin showed me a nose. He slid me, and I got up over the cushion. I had to be an inch or two from the wall. I got really lucky I didn't hit it a few times. Once I got over it, it set me up perfectly to drive back by him on the bottom. I saw (lapped traffic) around the bottom and figured if I got at least a car or two in each corner, we'd be alright."

Kevin Thomas Jr. Reaps $15,000 in Avanti Windows & Doors Corn Belt Clash!
Ryan Timms is on Fire, Wins Again in 410 Class
 by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 31, 2025) – Kevin Thomas Jr. broke through for his first career feature win at Knoxville Raceway Saturday, and it was a big one! The Cullman, Alabama native drove to a $15,000 payday in the Avanti Windows & Doors Corn Belt Clash aboard the Rock Steady Racing #3R. It was his 45th career win in the Amsoil USAC National Sprint Car Series. On the winged sprint car side of things, Oklahoma City's Ryan Timms swept the weekend, following up his Friday win in the Randall Roofing 360 class with his third win of the season in the 410 class. The win was worth $6,000 and came aboard the Liebig Racing #10.

The 30-lap Corn Belt Clash got off to a tough start. AJ Johnson and Jadon Rogers were flip victims in turn two when the green fell. Both drivers were uninjured. Once green, Jake Swanson led CJ Leary, Brady Bacon, Justin Grant and Thomas to green. Grant quickly moved from fourth to second.

Two laps in, disaster struck for two drivers. When Bacon tried to surge under Leary in turn three, the two contacted wheels, and flipped wildly. Thankfully, both drivers were o.k., but done for the night. Swanson led the field back to green, ahead of Grant, Thomas, Ryan Bernal and Gunnar Setser. The lead five remained unchanged when an incident involving Kale Drake and Robert Ballou slowed things seven laps in. It would prove to be the last caution.

Thomas Jr. restarted third, but used a good run on the bottom to surge into the lead ahead of Swanson, Bernal, Grant and Setser. Bernal and Grant made quick work of Swanson to try and chase the leader on lap nine, but Thomas was too strong up front. Bernal and Grant exchanged the runner-up spot twice before Bernal cinched it for good on lap 13.

Meanwhile, Kyle Cummins, who started eighteenth, made his presence known, entering the top five at the halfway point. He gained fourth from Setser on lap 17, and used the low side to best Grant for third with ten to go.

Up front, Thomas maintained a two-second lead to the checkers ahead of Bernal, hard-charger Cummins, Grant and Setser. Chase Stockon, Logan Seavey, Robert Ballou, Briggs Danner and Mitchel Moles rounded out the top ten. Moles set quick time over the 31-car field, while Leary, Bernal, Drake and Swanson won heats. Stockon claimed the B main.

"Hat's off to my team," said Thomas in Victory Lane. "There's a lot of people that have to put up with stuff about what I like to feel in a racecar. We've tried and tried. There was something that was staring at us in the face that we changed. It was so much better. This was the first time we've been in the invert and gave us a chance to win. We've been through some stuff and God help my wife. She's put up with me a lot. It was a big day for us. To be able to win here at Knoxville is historic."

"I am extremely happy," said Bernal. "I'm thankful to be here and be put in this equipment here. I was able to get to him. If I was able to get the left sides up on the berm and the right rear in the stick. I could get closer and closer and then there was nothing I could do. I'm super happy to put this thing on the podium."

"We were more out to lunch at the start of the night and even in the heat race," said Cummins after his hard-charger run. "We kind of tore things back apart and put our standard baseline on it. It had to be better than where we were and at least made it drive-able. From 18th to third on this kind of track was pretty tough. I was running the bottom at the beginning, and I felt faster. I had to move up to the middle, and once I hit that middle groove I was making some hay."

In the 20-lap 410 feature, Emerson Axsom worked his way to lead lap one. Carson McCarl took the point on the second lap, chased by Axsom, Austin McCarl, Scott Bogucki and Ryan Timms. Bogucki and Austin McCarl exchanged third before the latter surged from fourth to second. Four laps in, Tasker Phillips got sideways in turn one, collecting Anthony Macri. Both drivers were done.

Austin McCarl used the low side to surge past his brother into the lead on the restart, while Timms rocketed from fifth to third. Bogucki went under Axsom to take fourth on lap six.

Timms was a missile on the cushion and swallowed up Carson McCarl for second on lap seven, quickly reeled in the low riding Austin McCarl on lap nine, and began pulling away. A spin by Jack Anderson with 11 laps to go proved to be the last caution.

Timms led Austin McCarl, Carson McCarl, Axsom and Bogucki back to green. Austin changed his line to the high side and tried to keep Timms within his reach, while Bogucki moved into fourth on lap 11 and third on lap 14. Timms entered traffic with three laps to go. Behind him, Kerry Madsen was a late mover, entering the top five on lap 18, and passing Carson McCarl for fourth on the white flag lap.

Timms third 410 win of the year and in his career at Knoxville came ahead of Austin McCarl, Bogucki, Madsen and Carson McCarl. Brian Brown, Kaleb Johnson, Axsom, Terry McCarl and Kelby Watt completed the top ten. Axsom and Austin McCarl set quick time over their respective flights, and Johnson, Don Droud Jr., Chris Martin and Macri won the heats. Lynton Jeffrey won the B main.

“There at the beginning, I felt really good,” said Timms. “I was just kind of staying the same pace as everyone else, and we had the (yellow) and I was wondering to myself why we were the same speed as everyone else. I came to the conclusion I just wasn’t running it hard enough. After that restart, luckily the two guys in front of me went to the bottom, and I was able to go around there and into third. I was very happy to see both the McCarl’s move down, and I was just able to get my momentum built up and get comfortable up there. We were able to get it done. It’s pretty unreal, I never thought I’d be standing here with four wins. I think it just says how fast this car is every night. It’s awesome.”

Join us Saturday, June 7 for Vermeer Night! The 410 class, the Randall Roofing 360 class and the Pro Sprints will all be in action! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Tyler Courtney Holds Off Day by .037 of a Second at Knoxville!

Tasker Phillips Goes Wire to Wire in Randall Roofing 360's; Chase Young Claims Pro Sprints Main by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 7, 2025) – Tyler Courtney passed the red hot Ryan Timms and held off a closing Corey Day to win the 410 feature on Vermeer Night at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday. The victory was Courtney's third in a 410 at Knoxville, and was worth $6,000 aboard the Clauson-Marshall #7BC. Tasker Phillips led from beginning to finish in the Randall Roofing 360 Series for his second win of the year and the third in his career. Des Moines native Chase Young won his fifth career feature here in the Pro Sprints class.

Ryan Timms was vying for his third straight 410 feature win here early in the 20-lap 410 feature, as he led Courtney, Carson McCarl, Corey Day and Brian Brown early. On lap two, Kerry Madsen entered the fray, shooting from sixth to third, ending in a flying slidejob across McCarl's bow.

On lap five, Day passed McCarl for fourth. Timms entered lapped traffic on lap six in the non-stop event. At the halfway point, Austin McCarl passed his brother Carson to enter the top five.

Up front, Courtney was sizing Timms up in traffic, and slid in front of him in turn four to lead lap 14. Day used a similar move to dispatch Madsen for third. Day did a slider in turn four three laps later to pick off second from Timms. Madsen followed into third, coming for the white flag.

When Courtney stumbled behind a lapper in turns three and four on the final lap, Day saw his chance. The two raced side-by-side down the frontstretch, with Courtney edging Day by just .037 of a second. Madsen was third, ahead of Timms and Austin McCarl. Aaron Reutzel, Brenham Crouch, Carson McCarl, Brown and Brent Marks rounded out the top ten. Timms and Reutzel topped their respective groups in qualifying over the 41-car field, and Timms, Landon Crawley, Day and Jack Anderson won the heats. Sawyer Phillips claimed the B.

"Honestly, I thought Corey got us at the line," said Courtney in Victory Lane. "I thought I was going the safe route, sliding myself across and around the guy running the bottom, but he smoked the berm and came across and I had to lift. I hung myself in the slick and I knew somebody had to be coming. I figured Corey was going to be good with a track like that. I'm happy to hang on and get our first win of the season. To get it at Knoxville is special. Sprint car racing right now is as good as it's ever been and it's hard. To race the High Limit Series night in and night out is tough. I've got the best group of guys behind me. I live in Newton (Iowa) now, so this is awesome. I love coming to Knoxville, this place means more to me than a lot of places. It's special for a lot of reasons."

Ryan Giles, who entered the night second in the Randall Roofing 360 point standings, had a rough start. A mechanical issue sidelined him before a lap could be completed in the 18-lap main event. Tasker Phillips nabbed the early lead from Clint Garner, Terry McCarl, Tyler Groenendyk and Aaron Reutzel.

Groenendyk, another top five driver in the standings had misfortune as well. A lap in, while running fourth, he got a bit sideways in turn four and was tagged from behind by Reutzel, spinning him. He rejoined the field at the tail.

Phillips led the field again ahead of Garner, McCarl, Reutzel and JJ Hickie, who was soon under siege from Kerry Madsen. Madsen used a pass low in turn four to grab the fifth position on lap four. Phillips entered traffic on lap six, and was pursued by Clint Garner before a slowdown for a stopped Cole Garner with eight to go.

Phillips was never headed the rest of the way in earning $2,000. McCarl used a slider in turn two on Garner to gain second on lap 12, and Reutzel and Madsen followed him into third and fourth with five to go. Garner would settle for fifth, and Cam Martin, Hickie, Sawyer Phillips, hard-charger Riley Goodno and Dustin Selvage completed the top ten. Sawyer Phillips set quick time over the 30-car field, and Cam Martin, Selvage and Sawyer Phillips won heats. Kaylee Bryston took the B main.

"We've been fighting for a win the last three weeks, and it's been a bottom dominant track," said Phillips beside the 3 Way Motorsports #1TAZ. "We've been beating down the walls fighting for them. I've told (the crew) once things get hot and bouncing off the walls, we're game on. This car is all clicking good. We've been struggling with the heavy tracks and we're still in the fight. I think we're showing something."

Des Moines' Chase Young led from the start in the 15-lap Pro Sprint feature ahead of Devin Wignall, Matt Allen, Brody Johnson and Tyler Thompson. Point leader J Kinder entered the top five on lap four, as Young started lapping slower cars. Five laps in, Young's lead was three seconds when Ryan Navritil stopped inside turn four.

Young led Wignall, Allen, Johnson and Kinder back to green. Thompson re-entered the top five at that point, dueling with Kinder, until lap seven, when Kinder and Allen moved into fourth and fifth.

Slower traffic became a factor again, and Allen would break his front end, getting into a slower car. Young led Wignall, Kinder, Johnson and Thompson back to racing. Kinder snagged second and Thompson grabbed fourth on the restart. On lap 12, Luke Lane began a charge taking five and then passing Thompson for fourth with two to go.

Up front, no one had anything for Young, who topped Kinder, Wignall, Luke Lane and Matthew Stelzer. Thompson, Johnson, Josh Jones, Brett Moffitt and Koddy Hildreth rounded out the top ten. Kinder set quick time, and Moffitt and Stelzer won the heats.

"It's hard to be up here, and you never know when you'll be back," said a happy Young, holding his two and a half week old daughter. "I'm going to soak it in. I'm super happy and super proud of my family and team. I want to thank my brother. We've worked super hard. I knew there were a couple of guys way off the pace, so I knew (there were going to be yellows). This year's been a lot of yellows and reds. I was prepared for it. I just kept her down and was ready to win."

David Gravel Charges from Eighth to Win World of Outlaws Battle at Knoxville!
J Kinder Wins Again with Pro Sprints
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 13, 2025) – David Gravel made a run from row four to win his thirteenth career feature at Knoxville Raceway on Friday the 13th. The Watertown, Connecticut driver made a late pass in the Big Game Motorsports #2 to claim the $12,000 prize on Night #1 of the Premier Chevy Dealers Clash featuring the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws. J Kinder won his third feature of the season and the twelfth of his career here in the Pro Sprints class.

The 25-lap main event saw pole-sitter Gio Scelzi out to an early lead over Kerry Madsen, Rico Abreu, Carson Macedo and Austin McCarl. Gravel moved up quickly from outside row four into the top five by lap four.

Scelzi entered lapped traffic on the sixth circuit, and two laps later, Madsen reeled him in and slid in front of him in turn three to take the point. Abreu followed his lead a lap later to move into second. Macedo and Gravel quickly reeled in Scelzi in a battle for third, and Gravel slid both to take over the third spot on lap 11 in three-wide action. Macedo ended the battle fourth on lap 12. Gravel caught Abreu on lap 18, passed him for second low in turn four, and set his sights on Madsen.

With five laps to go, Madsen attempted to slide in front of a lapped car and lost momentum. Gravel pounced on the opportunity, and snatched the lead. From there, Gravel pulled away and his margin of victory was close to three seconds over Madsen. Abreu, Macedo and Corey Day followed. Scelzi, Anthony Macri, Austin McCarl, Tyler Courtney and Brad Sweet rounded out the top ten.

Tyler Courtney and Ryan Timms set quick time over their two flights in the 64-car field. Landon Crawley and Riley Goodno won the Non-Qualifier races, and Courtney, Macedo, Timms and Abreu won the heats. Jake Bubak won the D main, Cole Macedo took the C main, Sheldon Haudenschield claimed the B main and Scelzi won the Dash. Brian Brown got upside down in a scary heat race crash, but walked away from the incident.

“Kerry was just hammering the top, and I felt like I found the bottom of one and two halfway through that race,” said Gravel in Victory Lane. “It felt really good. The exit, there was a lot of grip down there. I lost the Knoxville Nationals that way, pounding the top too long. I felt really good from lap 5 to lap 20. At the end, I was feeling a little weird, but for those 15 laps, we were the best car by far. It shows we can move around. Everyone says we always win from the front row, and we did it from eighth tonight.”

“I think I screwed up,” said Madsen. “I thought I had a run in traffic, and when I peeled off I didn’t have the run I thought I did. That’s when David got me. After watching him after he got us, he was probably a little better anyway. It was a great run for us. There’s not a lot of us, but I think we proved if we can keep this thing going, it’s going to be good.”

“I was just trying to keep up pace-wise,” said Abreu. “I was working on my feet-work. As the race slowed down and we caught traffic, Kerry was getting through it and I was getting number and number as the pace slowed down. I got to searching, and got in a little trouble. My normal aggressiveness to run the bottom just wasn’t there. I was just a little impatient to wait down there, when the guys were blasting across it. It was a beautiful racetrack. Knoxville always hits it, and we have the toughest drivers in the world here.”

Hunter Lane bounded off the infield guardrail on the frontstretch to start things in the 15-lap Pro Sprint feature. He was o.k., and it would prove to be the only caution the series had all night.

J Kinder started from the pole and led throughout, in a race that saw Matthew Stelzer and Devin Kline chase him the distance. Devin Wignall moved by Brett Moffitt early to take fourth, and Luke Lane moved into the top five on lap three.

Kinder was already lapping cars on the sixth circuit and really saw no threats the entire way. Stelzer and Kline were followed by Luke Lane and Wignall. Hard-charger Jackson Gray, Tyler Thompson, Brody Johnson, Koddy Hildreth and Moffitt completed the top ten. Kline set quick time, and Stelzer and Kinder won the heats.

“It was the car tonight,” said Kinder of his winning run. “We were going to change some stuff, and then they called us for the lineup. So I’m kind of glad they rushed us and we didn’t change anything. The car was perfect. I could run top, middle and bottom, and starting on the front doesn’t hurt.”

Join us Saturday, June 14 for the finale of the Premier Chevy Dealers Clash featuring the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws Series! The Randall Roofing 360’s will also be in action! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Corey Day Tops World of Outlaws for Second Year in a Row at Knoxville! Cam Martin Wins His First at Knoxville in the Randall Roofing 360's by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 14, 2025) – Corey Day loves racing at Knoxville with the NOS Energy Drink Sprint Cars in June. For the second year in a row, he won the finale of the Premier Chevy Dealers Clash at the Knoxville Raceway on Saturday. The Clovis, California native banked $12,000 for his win.

Brad Sweet led early in a 25-lap main event that went non-stop for the second night in a row. Day, Ryan Timms, Bill Balog and Aaron Reutzel made up the top five early. Timms put a slider on Day in turn four on lap two to take second, but Day got back by the Oklahoma youngster on lap four to retake the spot. Friday winner David Gravel entered the top five at the same time.

Gravel's charge continued with a pass of Balog for fourth on lap eight. Day reeled in the leader and pounded the cushion around Sweet to lead lap nine. Timms slid by Sweet for second on lap 11, as Day entered traffic. Kofoid moved into the top five on lap 12.

Gravel worked by Sweet for third on lap 16, and rolled by Timms on lap 17 for second as his momentum gained down the final stretch. Sweet and Timms battled for third, but Kofoid got a run in turn three and passed both for the spot with six laps to go. Macri gained fifth with four to go, and took fourth from Sweet with two to go.

Gravel reeled in Day and was within striking distance entering turn three on the last lap, but a lapped car blocked any attempts at a slider and he settled for second. Kofoid was third, ahead of Macri and Sweet. Timms, Kerry Madsen, Gio Scelzi, Reutzel and Rico Abreu rounded out the top ten. Austin McCarl and Sweet set quick time over their respective qualifying groups, and Balog, Timms, Sweet and Gravel won the heats. Kelby Watt and Skylar Gee won Non-Qualifiers, Jack Anderson took the D main, Watt won the C, and Cole Macedo claimed the B main. Sweet won the Dash. Cole Mincer crashed hard in the D main, and Chase Randall flipped in the B. Neither was injured.

"I was trying not to be too tight on the top," said Day of his winning drive. "I was getting really tight. I didn't want to be the guy to drop to the bottom and then get circled. I'm glad it worked out. I hate that (Gravel) got close. I don't like when they're close. I like to win by a lot. We'll work on that one for the Nationals. I destroyed our good car at Eagle, and this one has been a work in progress. To win an Outlaw show here at Knoxville in such a short time is something to be proud of. The track had a huge ledge on top all night and I knew it would be fast. When they knocked it down, I could run it wide open. I was hoping those guys would leave me a lane, and they did. We were able to get a run on Brad and slide him. I'm really proud of this team."

"I felt really good," said Gravel. "I tried running the bottom a few times, and one time it really cost me a lot of time. Those last ten laps I could really carry some speed through the corner. I wish I could take a couple of laps back and gain some time. These guys continue to give me a fast race car every night. I had to back off in the last corner, but it was a strong weekend for us. To be good every time we hit the track feels good. We'll put this car in the shop and bring it back for Nationals."

"Starting on the outside was crucial," said Kofoid. "They cut the cushion down and it took awhile to get built back up. It took the challenge away honestly. You could just run in there with your whole car and turn left. The bottom was so narrow, it was preferred to be on the outside the way they worked the track this week. We made a lot of speed up there, and we could go on the bottom as well as I ever have here. I felt like the car got better as the race went on."

Clint Garner led early in the 18-lap Randall Roofing 360 class main event ahead of Cam Martin, Sawyer Phillips, Tasker Phillips and Tyler Groenendyk. Groenendyk moved up to fourth on the second lap in a battle that would continue between he and Tasker. Martin was fast on the low side of the track and drove under Garner to lead lap three. Shortly after, Russell Potter spun in turn three to bring caution.

Martin led Garner, Sawyer, Groenendyk and Tasker back to green. Tasker worked back into fourth on lap four, only to have Groenendyk drive back by him on the low side on lap five. Martin was in lapped traffic eight laps in when Alan Zoutte got sideways in turn four, and collected Potter, who tipped over. No one was injured.

Martin maintained his advantage the last ten laps to claim his first ever feature here and $2,000. Garner held onto second, while Tasker Phillips climbed to third in a late run. Sawyer Phillips was fourth, and Riley Goodno was fifth. Groenendyk, hard-charger Dustin Selvage, Terry McCarl, Ryan Giles and Ryan Leavitt completed the top ten. Sawyer Phillips set quick time over the field, while Selvage, Tasker Phillips and Kade Higday won the heats.

“It’s only my first win here, but it’s one more than a lot (of drivers),” said a happy Martin in Victory Lane. “Knoxville is the greatest place to race in the world, and the 360 class here on a weekly basis is arguably one of the hardest to master. This feels so cool!”

Knoxville Raceway will be taking Saturday, June 21 off, and will return on Saturday, June 28 for Farm Bureau Financial Services Night featuring the Knoxville Championship Series. The 410’s, Randall Roofing 360;s and Pro Sprints will all be in action! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Ryan Timms out-duels Brian Brown in thriller!

Tyler Groenendyk leads wire-to-wire for 2nd career 360 Knoxville win

J Kinder uses late restart to score 4th Pro Sprint win of the season

By Blake Walker

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 28, 2025) - Ryan Timms stalked Brian Brown for 18 out of the 20 laps in Saturday night's feature at the Knoxville Raceway, but pounced on a late green white checkered to steal one away from the 68 time 410 winner for his 4th win of the season on Farm Bureau Financial Services Night. Tyler Groenendyk started on the pole and never left the bottom in a dominant 360 Randall Roofing feature performance. J Kinder started slow but used a restart with 7 laps to go to pass Brody Johnson and grab his 4th win of the season.

Parker Price Miller started on the pole of the 410 feature with Brian Brown on his outside. The fans at Knoxville were treated to the first ever showing of the "Think-n-Ink A Main Invert Draw" that was shown on DirtVision and the video boards around the track at the conclusion of the final heat races for each class. Ian Madsen drew a 6 for the invert which gave PPM and Brown the front row.

Brian Brown got around PPM on the first lap and led for a majority of the race with Kerry Madsen, Austin McCarl and Ryan Timms, who rolled off 8th, all within striking distance. Within just 8 laps, Ryan Timms got up to 2nd place running Kerry Madsen and made a daring move between the 55 and the 95 lapped car of Tyler Drueke in turn one to set his sights on Brian Brown.

Tasker Phillips had a mechanical issue and came to a stop in turn 2 which brought out the caution with 9 laps to run.

On the restart, Brian Brown took off and Kerry Madsen slid up in front of Timms to take the 2nd spot away but was only able to hold on for a short while, as Timms got back by the very next lap. Austin McCarl was also able to work his way around Madsen with 7 laps to go.

A great story of the night throughout the feature was 18 year old Jack Anderson. Anderson, who is currently in his first season driving a 410, started in the 14th position and had made his way all the way up to the 5th position before something in the left front broke which sent the 17A tumbling into the turn one fence. Jack was able to walk away under his own power.

Just as that wreck was happening, Ryan Timms had just completed a slider for the lead on Brown but because a lap was not complete, Timms was moved back to second on the ensuing restart.

On the final restart of the night Brian Brown got a good launch and chose to run the top in turns one and two which forced Timms to run the bottom. Timms was able to find solid grip and used a big run down the backstretch to get even with Brown as they took the white flag. In turn one on the final lap, Brown slid up to try to defend, but Timms was able to cut down and grab a run and rocket past the 21 and hold on for the victory.

"It's definitely been a year...I never thought I'd win four 410 races at Knoxville so quick," said Timms in Casey's Victory Lane. "It's just so surreal to pass a guy like Brian Brown, you know pass him once and then get a little unlucky there, but to get to capitalize on it and be able to get him again was just phenomenal. The car was great all night but I just sucked the whole time minus the feature and it was a big improvement from heat race to feature. We're just gonna keep working on it and keep trying to perfect my craft and we'll keep winning more races."

Tyler Groenendyk and Ian Madsen started on the front row of the Randall Roofing 360 A Feature and once Groenendyk got to turn one, he never looked back.

Sawyer Phillips suffered a hard crash in turn one on the fourth lap and was slow to get out of the racecar after safety crews had to extinguish fire coming from the engine area. Phillips limped back to his hauler but was later taken to Knoxville Hospital & Clinics for further evaluation.

Groenendyk led the field back to green with 14 laps to go with Madsen, Riley Goodno and Cam Martin in toe for most of the feature. Groenendyk was able to navigate through lap traffic with ease and took home the victory for his 2nd 360 win of the season.

“That was a Cadillac man...we’ve been fighting this thing when the track slows down, and this is usually when we get good and this year it hasn’t been that way,” Groenendyk said in Victory Lane. “We threw the kitchen sink at this thing after the heat race...after we spun out down there in the heat race.” Groenendyk spun early in his heat race earlier in the night on his own accord and was able to recover for a 6th place finish. “We continued to throw stuff at it and that goes back to these guys (his crew) and all they do. Everyone is covered in sweat tonight.”

Luke Lane and Chase Young (back from his week-off due to recovering from a chemical burn) brought the field to green for the 15 lap Pro Sprint feature but the start was called back due to Lane firing too early. Luke was penalized a row which gave the pole position to Brody Johnson.

Brody was able to get away and lead over Young, Lane, and J Kinder until Mike Mayberry’s engine expired in a big way on lap three.

On the restart, Johnson was able to once again pull away from the field up until 7 laps to go when Marty Stephenson (subbing for Kody Hildreth) spun on his own and brought out the yellow. The next restart was where J Kinder made his move.

With 7 laps to go on the restart J Kinder, who restarted third, drove right around Young in turns one and two, and then a lap later rocketed around Johnson for the lead. Kinder would not look back and scored his fourth victory of the season.

“That was for Dad,” Kinder said in Victory Lane. “He gives me a good car every weekend and the first half of that race, the driver was in some other state. On that last caution I told myself to breathe, get it together, move the wing a little bit and grit my teeth and see what happens. It was fun. The car was great and the track was way heavier than I anticipated.”

Brian Brown Puts on Epic Charge from Row Seven to Win at Knoxville!

Riley Goodno Breaks Through with First Randall Roofing 360 Win; Tyler Thompson Conquers Pro Sprints for First Career Triumph

By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 12, 2025) – Brian Brown could have started deeper in the field on Saturday's Van Wall/Marion County Fair and Border Battle Night at the Knoxville Raceway and still won. As it was, he charged from outside row seven, took the lead with seven to go, and cruised to victory against a stout 40-car field to garner $7,000 and a half a beef. Riley Goodno continued a hot streak away from Knoxville to capitalize on his first ever win in his hometown track and earned $2,000 and a quarter beef for his Randall Roofing 360 win. Tyler Thompson, a veteran of many years, also earned his first ever well-earned win in a strong run with the Pro Sprints.

Kaleb Johnson led early in the 20-lap feature, ahead of Carson McCarl, Austin McCarl, JJ Hickle and Chris Martin. Brown, who was scheduled to start 16th, but gained a row after a scratch by Jamie Ball, was already sixth by the third lap, and then moved by Martin into the top five on lap five. At that point, Jy Corbet slowed to bring a caution.

Johnson led Carson McCarl, Austin McCarl, Hickle and Brown back to green. Carson worked a slide job in turn one to take the lead, while Brown moved into fourth. On lap seven, Johnson put a slider in turn one to use and retook the point, while Brown took third from Austin McCarl. Ryan Timms entered the top five at the halfway point before heavy contact between Riley Goodno and Jack Anderson resulted in a broken front end for Goodno, and a punctured tail tank and fire for Anderson. No one was hurt, but an open red was called to clear the fire suppression liquids from the track.

Carson McCarl used a similar move to retake the lead from Johnson on the restart, but on lap twelve, Johnson worked back by and into the lead. It would be short-lived, however. Brown put a slider on both Carson McCarl and Johnson into the lead on lap 13 in turn two and never looked back.

There was plenty of action behind him, however, with Austin taking third from brother Carson on lap 14. Timms moved into fourth on lap 16 Austin and Johnson exchanged second twice, before McCarl took it for good on the white flag lap.

Brown's 69th career 410 win here came ahead of Austin McCarl, Johnson, Timms, and Hickle. Kerry Madsen, Carson McCarl, Terry McCarl, Danny Dietrich and Sawyer Phillips rounded out the top ten. Madsen and Carson McCarl set quick time in their respective groups, while Dietrich, Anderson, Terry McCarl and Mark Dobmeier won heats. Jack Dover claimed the B main.

"All these guys complain I win from the front row every night, so maybe I can win from the (7th) row tonight," said Brown in Victory Lane. "We really weren't that great after the heat, and Chad Morgan made a great suggestion on what to do with our car. I've won 69 of these races, but never the beef. We've never won this one. It's good that the Marion County Fair does that. It was cool to get to third so quick, but that open red opened it up for everyone where they can work on their cars also. Those two guys (Johnson and Carson McCarl) got to racing, and I made a move in the middle and was able to pass them. To start 14th and beat these guys...it's a tough field of cars, and we need to be proud of what we're bringing to the Nationals as a Knoxville group."

The 18-lap Randall Roofing 360 main event got off to a rough start when Kade Higday got upside down, with Jamie Ball joining him and Hank Davis being collected as well. Everyone was o.k.

Riley Goodno shot out to the lead, ahead of Dustin Selvage, JJ Hickle, Tasker Phillips and Kerry Madsen. Cam Martin slowed and exited four laps in, bringing caution. It negated a Hickle pass of Selvage for second at the time.

Goodno led Selvage, Hickle, Phillips and Madsen back to green. On lap seven, Madsen got into Phillips in an attempted pass, upsetting his car enough to surrender fifth to Clint Garner.

Goodno maintained his advantage in traffic for his first career win in the Goodno Promotions #22x. Hickle was second, while Phillips grabbed third from Selvage late. Garner completed the top five. Hard-charger Ryan Giles, Tyler Groenendyk, Madsen, Matt Juhl and Tony Rost followed. Phillips set quick time over the 32-car field, while Juhl, Calvin Landis Selvage and Alex Hill won heats. Landis's heat was particularly special as he announced his retirement after tonight, and held off Goodno for the heat win. Alex Vande Voort won the B.

"It feels great," said Goodno of his win. "My Dad's probably been doing this about ten years and hasn't got a win here. I'm glad to do it after a couple struggling years here. I can't thank Jon Agan and Luke enough...they've turned us around here. This motor really rips here, and I can't wait to see what we can do next week with the big money on the line."

Tyler Thompson led from the pole ahead of Matt Stelzer, Luke Lane, J Kinder and Devin Wignall early in the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature. Lane cruised into second on lap two, while Devin Kline worked by Wignall into the top five.

Thompson stayed out front, with Lane a close second on the fast track. They entered lapped traffic on the seventh circuit, and with just three laps to go, Tim Young spun to bring a caution.

Thompson led Lane, Stelzer, Kinder and Kline back to green. Lane shot by Thompson briefly to lead on the restart, but coming to the white flag, Thompson retook the position and carried it to the checkers.

Lane finished second, ahead of Stelzer, Kline and Kinder. Wignall, Josh Jones, Brody Johnson, Jackson Gray and Chase Young rounded out the top ten. Lane set quick time, and Stelzer and Kinder won the heats. Dave Seddon got upside down in his heat, collecting Derrike Clark. Both were uninjured, but done for the night.

"Man, this is awesome!" said Thompson afterwards. "I've sat in section M since I was in a stroller. I watched my Dad (Bob) race here and watched a lot of people I admire and consider heroes. I'm just glad to be on the list with them."

Selvage stayed on Goodno and passed him on the cushion to lead at the halfway point. Goodno came right back, however passing Selvage to lead lap 10 with Hickle in tow.

Join us next week on Saturday, July 19th for 3M Night and the 360 Shootout paying $15,000 to win! All three sprint car divisions will again be in action. For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Carson McCarl Headlines Crazy Night at Knoxville for $15,000 360 Shootout Win!
Ayrton Gennetten Tames the 410's for Second Career Win
By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 19, 2025) – Carson McCarl earned $15,000 by winning Saturday's Randall Roofing 360 Shootout on 3M Night at Knoxville. The event featured eight different lead changes among four different leaders. Thanks to the Knoxville 360 Boosters many contingencies were handed out during the night. Ayrton Gennetten won his second career feature here, in an equally entertaining 410 event. The Gravois Mills, Missouri driver captured the top prize of $6,000.

The 25-lap 360 Shootout paying $15,000 to win and $1,100 to start, saw Clint Garner ahead of point leader Tasker Phillips, Carson McCarl, Sawyer Phillips and Austin McCarl early. By lap two, Austin had passed Sawyer for fourth, while Riley Goodno joined him in the top five two laps later.

Up front, Tasker Phillips entered turn one high and exited turn two low on lap seven to take the point from Garner. That lasted two laps, when Tasker bobbled on the backstretch, allowing Garner to cruise back by into the lead. As Garner entered traffic on lap ten, Carson McCarl joined the lead pair in a three-way battle for the lead.

Carson moved by Tasker in heavy lapped traffic to take second on lap 11, and then used the high side of turn four to drive around Garner and take the point. A lap later, Garner slid back by Carson to retake the lead.

Austin McCarl worked by Tasker Phillips to take third with ten to go. Carson reeled Garner back in and retook the lead in turn two on lap 18, before JJ Hickle brought a caution when he spun in turn four.

Carson McCarl led Garner, brother Austin, and Tasker and Sawyer Phillips back to green. With Garner trying the outside of Carson McCarl in turn three after the restart, the two cars made contact, sending Garner into a spin and out of contention.

On the restart, Austin asserted himself, shooting by Carson to take the lead, but Carson put a slider on his brother with four to go to take the point for good. The other sibling rival saw Sawyer Phillips pass Tasker for third with four to go. On the next go-around the two brothers made contact, losing two spots and surrendering third to Ian Madsen and fourth to Ryan Giles.

Carson cruised to the checkers and the big cash, ahead of brother Austin ($7,000) and Madsen ($5,000). Giles, Tasker Phillips, Sawyer Phillips, Sam Hafertepe Jr., Riley Goodno, Charlie Leavitt $2,000 Hard-charger Kaleb Johnson and Dustin Selvage rounded out the top ten. Tyler Groenendyk picked up a $1,000 11th place bonus from KnoxVegas. Garner and Groenendyk brought home $1,000 each from KnoxVegas for setting quick time in their respective groups. Tony Rost, Terry McCarl, Madsen and Matt Juhl won heat races. Timothy Smith and Juhl claimed the B mains. Chris Morgan and Hank Davis also picked up $1,000 bonuses from Slideways Karting Center for mystery spots in the B mains.

"A big thanks to the Booster Club," said McCarl in Victory Lane. "That was a fun race. I knew right from the start we had a car to win. I was a little nervous with (Austin) behind me. I knew he would actually race me smart. The two guys in front of me...I just had to be patient. I needed to hit my marks and not let Austin get by me. With my partners behind this race, it makes it extra special."

The 20-lap 410 feature started inauspiciously when Landon Crawley tipped over in turn three. He was uninjured. Ayrton Gennetten led the field early, ahead of Scott Bogucki, Austin McCarl, Jamie Ball and Kaleb Johnson. A lap in, the night's quick-timer, Jack Anderson, spun with mechanical issues, bringing caution.

On the restart, Austin McCarl quickly took second, Johnson moved into fourth, and JJ Hickle took fifth. Hickle would pass Johnson for fourth on lap three before point leader, McCarl, packed his right rear tire full of mud and stopped with a vibration. Gennetten led Bogucki, Hickle, Johnson and Ball back to green.

At the halfway point, Bogucki rode the cushion around Gennetten to lead. On lap 11, Gennetten battled back by to regain the lead. Bogucki surged back to lead lap 12, but spun in front of Gennetten in turn one, with the Missouri driver narrowly avoiding him. Meanwhile, Hickle surrendered his newly gained second spot and went pit-side.

That left Gennetten to lead Ian Madsen, Ball, Carson McCarl and Riley Goodno back to green. With five to go, Carson McCarl rode around Ball to gain third. With three to go, Goodno gained fourth from Ball.

Gennetten's second career win here came ahead of Madsen, Carson McCarl, Goodno and Ball. Hard-charger Lynton Jeffrey, Kaleb Johnson, Clint Garner, Josh Schneiderman and Chris Martin completed the top ten. Goodno, Madsen and Sawyer Phillips won heats, while Xavier Doney won the B main.

"It was my first time here ever with (crew chief) Scott Bonar," said Gennetten in Victory Lane. "He's never won here in a 410, just a 360. The redraw (feature point invert of eight) went our way. The race with (Bogucki) was great. He spun out there and I puckered up. I don't know how we missed it. I knew Ian was there. It's just so hard to run the top like that. I think we showcased a lot of speed and hopefully we can show it again next time out. It's rewarding to show this with my team on our own."

Join us next week on Saturday, July 26th for Weiler Night featuring the Candy Dash and Border Battle #2 for the 410's. The Randall Roofing 360's will also be in action! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Rico Abreu Tunes Up for Big Fortnight with Third Knoxville Win This Year! Tasker Phillips Wins Feature and Clinches Championship in Randall Roofing 360's By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 26, 2025) – The next two weeks at Knoxville Raceway are critical for any sprint car driver, and St. Helena, California's Rico Abreu is as ready as anyone to tackle both the 360 and 410 Knoxville Nationals. Abreu was victorious in a 410 main event here for the third time this year, and tenth overall on Weiler Border Battle #2 Night Saturday. The driver of the Rico Abreu Racing #24R earned $7,000 for his win. Pleasantville, Iowa's Tasker Phillips clinched his first Randall Roofing 360 track championship by leading from start to finish in the main event in that class. He pocketed $2,000 and confidence heading into a busy week for the 360's.

A 410 point invert of six put Abreu outside row one for the 20-lap feature, and he led early over Brian Brown, Spencer Bayston, James McFadden and Ryan Timms. McFadden moved by Bayston for third, and Austin McCarl entered the top five on lap two.

Up front, Brown gained on Abreu and took the lead on the fourth circuit. A bobble on the following lap was all Abreu needed to recapture the point before Parker Price-Miller slowed on the backstretch, bringing the only caution of the event.

Abreu led Brown, McFadden, Bayston and McCarl back to green. McCar quickly gained fourth, but Ryan Timms showed speed in the second half of the race, taking fifth from Bayston on lap seven and then using the low side of the track to pass McCarl for the fourth spot.

Abreu entered traffic on lap 12, and began extending his lead over Brown. Timms was good in traffic and passed McFadden with a slider in turn three coming for the white flag to secure the show position behind Abreu and Brown at the line. McFadden, Austin McCarl, Bayston, Kerry Madsen, Carson McCarl, Jack Anderson and Justin Peck rounded out the top ten. Abreu and Austin McCarl set quick time over their respective qualifying groups, while Anderson, Terry McCarl, Bayston and Clint Garner won the heats. Chris Martin claimed the B main, which was marred by an accident that saw JJ Hickle, Sawyer Phillips, Koby Werkmeister, and Ian Madsen in a tangle in turn one. Madsen got the worst of the crash and was evaluated by safety personnel.

“First I want to thank Weiler for putting this one every year and Knoxville Raceway,” said Abreu in Victory Lane. “This track was beautiful. They make the right decisions here and do the right things at the right time to it. Ricky Warner does an amazing job just guiding my team. Track position was pretty crucial tonight. I just wanted to keep it up top and get flying, but the bottom came in. I was a little bit too free to be down there, and let Brian Brown get to my outside. Brownie is one of the best here. You have to think about what he’s thinking when you’re here. It’s like a game of cat and mouse. You have to run where he’s not and make sure your car is good.”

Tasker Phillips also started outside row one in the Randall Roofing 360 feature, and wasted no time jetting to the lead ahead of JJ Hickle, Clint Garner, Chase Randall and Ryan Giles. Garner got by Hickle for second on lap two, while Justin Peck entered the top five.

Hickle got back by Garner in a good battle for the runner-up position on lap three, while Peck continued his charge, passing Randall for fourth. McFadden found the low groove to his liking, entering the top five on lap five, and then shooting under Peck for fourth on lap seven. At the same time, Phillips was entering traffic.

With eight to go, the first caution of the race came out for a stopped Colby Copeland. Phillips led Hickle, Garner, McFadden and Peck back to green. Garner snatched the second spot from Hickle before Jamie Ball backed into the turn one wall with five to go. On that restart, Kaylee Bryson, Justin Zimmerman, Russell Potter and Kurt Mueller, who got upside down, tangled down the front straight. No one was seriously injured.

The slowdown didn’t phase Phillips who jetted to the win and sealed the Randall Roofing 360 track championship. Garner was second, while Peck took third from Hickle with two to go. McFadden, Giles, Randall, Dusitn Selvage, hard-charger Riley Goodno and Cam Martin completed the top ten. Brian Brown set quick time over the 37-car field, but scratched afterwards. Ball, Tyler Groenendyk, Selvage and Kade Higday won heats, and Mueller took the B main.

“This team is so selfless,” said Phillips of his 3-Way Motorsports crew in Victory Lane. “We’re not points racin’, we’re here to win races (but acknowledged doing both was o.k.) I hate that it was ‘plug up the bottom,’ (on the track) but luckily, I was a little less stubborn than Garner for once and got down there.”

Austin McCarl Wins Three-Way Battle for the Win on Opening Night of 360 Knoxville Nationals! By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 31, 2025) – Austin McCarl sits atop the 410 point standings at Knoxville Raceway, but Thursday night, he won a three-way battle to take the win on Night #1 of the Xstream Powered by Mediacom 360 Knoxville Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank. The win earned the Altoona, Iowa driver $3,000 and gave him enough points to rank sixth overall on the night in the Country Builders Construction #88. Kyle Larson, who finished second in the feature, was the top point man, followed by Justin Peck, Chris Martin, Justin Sanders and third place James McFadden (full points below). The other half of the event field will qualify Friday night.

Chase Randall led the 20-lap non-stop main event early, followed by McCarl, McFadden, JJ Hickle and Peck. Larson entered the top five by lap two, took fourth from Hickle on lap four, and claimed third from McFadden by lap seven.

Randall entered traffic at the halfway mark, as McCarl and Larson drew closer. On lap 14, McCarl slipped by Randall in heavy lapped traffic, with Larson a close third. Randall worked back by McCarl on the following circuit to retake the lead. On lap 16, surrounded by heavy lapped traffic, both McCarl and Larson moved by Randall into first and second.

With two to go, Randall worked back by Larson for the runner-up spot, but McFadden was charging as well. Coming to the white flag, Larson and McFadden moved by Randall into second and third.

McCarl held them off for his third career 360 win here, ahead of Larson, McFadden, Peck and Randall. Hickie, Martin, Kerry Madsen, Sanders and Ryan Leavitt rounded out the top ten. Sam Hafertepe Jr. set quick time over the 42-car field, but ran out of fuel on the white flag lap, while leading the B main. Tanner Holmes, who was the hard-charger in the feature, grabbed the B main win. Dustin Selvage, Jamie Ball, Matt Juhl, Tony Rost and Matt Covington won the heats.

“I think I saw Kyle at least two or three times underneath me,” said a happy McCarl in Victory Lane. “Traffic got amazing! I had to make the right decisions in traffic there. Things went my way, and didn’t go my way at times. I just had to be smart and kind of really watch ahead. I thought of my Dad (Terry). You’ve got to be good in traffic, especially on a racetrack like that. I haven’t felt real comfortable tonight, but these guys kept working on it. That was a fun race, a fun non-stop deal.”

“It was a lot of fun,” said Larson. “I got to third maybe a little bit quicker than I thought I could. I felt like I could bide my time a little bit, and traffic just got busier than I thought. I made some bad decisions and had some holes plug up at the wrong time, but Austin did a great job through traffic. That was a lot of fun with him and Chase and James at the end. My car felt really good. I feel like we gained a fair amount of points. Hopefully, we’ll line up well for Saturday.”

“I was just trying to search and find something different,” said McFadden. “It was a really busy race, and the track kind of moved around a lot. I kind of tried to be where everyone else wasn’t and keep the momentum up. It’s a lot different driving a 360. You can bog them down easily. That’s what I was doing at the start of the race. It was a solid night for us. We should be pretty good. My lack of seat time on the half-miles probably hurt me, but all in all it was a good night.”

Rico Abreu Wins Feature, Earns Pole For Saturday's 360 Knoxville Nationals Championship!

By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 1, 2025) –Rico Abreu of St. Helena, California, made a late pass of Ryan Timms to claim the feature on Friday's Night #2 of the 35th Annual Xstream Powered by Mediacom 360 Knoxville Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank. The $3,000 win garnered the driver of the Rico Abreu Racing #24R enough points to start on the pole of Saturday's $20,000 to win finale beside Parker Price-Miller, who finished third in Friday's feature. Carson McCarl and Kyle Larson, Thursday's high point getter will make up row two, and Timms and Justin Peck will comprise row three (full lineups below).

Cam Martin led the 20-lap main event early over Terry McCarl, Ryan Timms, Clint Garner and Abreu. Timms used the low side of turn three to pass McCarl for second, and Abreu followed him into third a lap later.

Timms used the high side of turn four to pass Martin for the point on lap five. Abreu shot by Martin on the backstretch on lap 8 to take second, before Blake Hahn slowed to bring out a caution. Timms led Abreu, Martin, McCarl and Garner back to green.

Abreu used the middle of turns one and two to make a pass for the lead on the restart. Parker Price-Miller moved into the top five on lap 10. Up front, Timms reeled Abreu back in and passed him to retake the point on lap 11. Price-Miller also passed McCarl for fourth.

Timms was in lapped traffic on lap 16. Abreu slid across Timm's nose on lap 17, with Timms reeling after contact with Abreu's right rear. He kept the car righted and maintained second before Tim Kaeding spun in turn four to bring the final caution with three to go.

Abreu went on to his first career 360 feature here, ahead of Timms, Price-Miller, Cam Martin and Carson McCarl, who gained fifth from Terry on the white flag lap. Brian Brown, Garner, Gio Scelzi and Jake Bubak rounded out the top ten. Carson McCarl set quick time over the 44-car field, while Jack Dover, Bubak, Cam Sorrels, Tyler Lee and Chase Dietz won the heats. Scelzi claimed the B main.

“The hat tip to my team,” said Abreu in Victory Lane. “They just worked really hard on this thing. They do an amazing job. These cars (360’s) are momentum based, and you really have to keep these engines up on the pipe. I kept telling (crew chief) Ricky, I need a little bit more ‘stick.’ They got the car unbelievable for me.”

“I kind of figured it was going to be me and Rico up there at the front,” said Timms beside the Leibig Racing #10. “The first few laps I got my speed built around the top. I was able to get underneath Terry and by Martin there. The caution came out, and I saw Rico behind me. The car didn’t take off great, and I had a bad restart. Rico got underneath me, and I was able to get back by him. I don’t know what he was doing to catch me, but he showed me a nose in three and four. I tried to get down under him as soon as possible, but just did it too soon. I got into his right rear and got myself all jacked up after that. It was a great night overall, and I’m super-happy with the speed.”

“The heat race (in which he was penalized on the start) definitely lit a fire,” said Price-Miller. “I was really happy with our car. I think we tied Rico in points, so we’ll be starting beside him tomorrow. I can’t thank the (Indy Race Parts #71P) team enough. I was super-happy with our car. Hopefully, we can build it up for tomorrow.”

Rico Abreu Reaps $34,000, Winning His First Ever 360 Knoxville Nationals!

By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 2, 2025) – Rico Abreu stayed hot at Knoxville Raceway by winning the 35th Annual Xstream Powered by Mediacom 360 Knoxville Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank on Saturday night. After lap money, the St. Helena, California native banked $34,000 for his triumph. Kyle Larson was Rico's closest competition (earning $11,000 for second), and Parker Price-Miller finished third ($5,000). The win was Abreu's second of the weekend and his career in the 360, and his fifth overall at Knoxville Raceway this season.

Before a lap could be completed in the 30-lapper, Sawyer Phillips flipped in turn three. He walked away from the crash. Abreu led on the complete restart, ahead of Price-Miller, Carson McCarl, Larson and Justin Peck. Ryan Timms quickly moved into the top five, and then took fourth from McCarl on lap three.

Abreu was lapping traffic on the tenth circuit. McCarl got Timms back for fourth on lap 11. Larson tracked down Price-Miller on lap 14 and took over the runner-up spot. With 11 laps to go, Tanner Holmes turned over in turn two (he walked away), setting up a restart that saw Abreu leading Larson, Price-Miller, McCarl and Peck. Peck garnered fourth when that green flag fell, but only three more laps were in the books, before Kerry Madsen stopped in turn two.

Abreu again had Larson on his tail, followed by Price-Miller, Peck and McCarl. Abreu bobbled at the bottom of turn two, and Larson pounced on the high side taking the point. Then, on lap 24, Chris Martin suffered a flat tire and stopped on the backstretch.

It was Abreu's turn to make a move and he slid by Larson in turns one and two to retake the lead and pull away the last six laps. Larson was second, followed by Price-Miller, Timms, who made a move above the cushion to jet from sixth to fourth with three to go and Peck. Carson McCarl, Austin McCarl, Hard-charger Gio Scelzi, James McFadden and Brian Brown rounded out the top ten.

Daison Pursley was the Jetco Rookie of the Year ($500). Ryan Leavitt won the DGRD Best Appearing Car ($360) for his livery paying tribute to his grandfather Eddie Leavitt's 1975 Knoxville Nationals win. Scelzi earned a steering wheel from MPI for being the feature hard-charger.

Ryan Bickett won the 10-lap D main, Blake Hahn claimed the 12-lap C main and Pursley took the 18-lap B main. Tasker Phillips was a flip victim while battling inside the top four in the B main event. He was uninjured.

"It's such a surreal feeling," said Abreu in Victory Lane. "Those restarts, you have to hit your marks, and I kept getting a little tighter and tighter on the bottom of turn two. I missed it that one time and allowed the 57 car to get by me on the outside. These cars are so momentum based, so it's so crucial to make sure you're up to speed on those first few laps. I'm just thankful for my guys. I'm just thankful, man. I dream of these opportunities and I try to work really hard to put myself in these positions. You line up there with eight laps to go with the best sprint car driver in the world, and you know you have to hit your marks. I was thinking of ways to beat him into turn one, and he kind of opened the door up. I just ran it wide open there."

"I was able to finally time the start as good as I could when I got the lead," said Larson. "I was hopeful to stay green, because I knew if we had a caution, I would be in trouble. We wouldn't take off. Maybe if I slid myself into turn one, maybe I give myself a little bit better of a shot. I was hoping to get wound up, but it is what it is. We had fun this weekend. I wish we could have been one spot better. I'm proud of the team, and proud of how we did. I was happy with my car, but Rico was a good car out there in clean air. He's led a ton of laps here this year. He knows how to lead and pick his way through traffic. He's going to be hard to beat."

"Rico's car must take off good at high RPM," said Price-Miller afterwards. "We set a pretty fast pace coming to green, and I spun my tires the first time. I knew he was probably going to get the jump. The middle was slick and the bottom had good grip. I was worried about getting through one and two. He had a better pace. We were pretty good on the bottom, on the top we were a little free. It was still a really good car. Running third to those guys is a win, but obviously, we'd like a little more."

James McFadden Dominates Capitani Classic at Knoxville Raceway!

By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 3, 2025) – It was all James McFadden at the 13th running of the Avanti Windows & Doors Capitani Classic Presented by Great Southern Bank Sunday night at the Knoxville Raceway. The Alice Springs, Northern Territory, Australia pilot earned $13,000 aboard the Tarlton Racing #21T for his first career 410 victory here.

Daison Pursley, who won the $2,500 K-1 Racegear Pole Shuffle over McFadden earned the pole for the 25-lap main event, but his front row starting mate was too much, leading early over Pursley, Brian Brown, Gio Scelzi and Rico Abreu.

Abreu slid by Scelzi for fourth on lap two. On lap four, Austin McCarl entered the top five on lap four. Contact with another car brought Sheldon Haudenschild to a stop five laps in. Tarlton led Pursley, Brown, Abreu and McCarl back to green flag racing.

Scelzi moved back into the top five on the restart, but by lap ten, McFadden had built his lead to 4.2 seconds. Carson Macedo entered the top five before McFadden was into traffic on lap 13. Macedo and Abreu traded fourth before the latter took the spot for good with eight to go.

At the checkers, McFadden won by a healthy margin over Pursley, Brown, Abreu and Macedo. Scelzi, McCarl, Donny Schatz, Logan Schuchart and Ryan Timms rounded out the top ten. Anthony Macri earned a $2,500 bonus from Avanti Windows & Doors as the hard-charger.

Seventy-five cars signed in for the event. Pursley and McFadden set quick time in their respective groups. Schuchart, Brad Sweet, Buddy Kofoid, Abreu, Timms and Kerry Madsen won heats. Justin Peck won the C main, and Sye Lynch and Justin Sanders won the B's.

"You strive to win races at places like Knoxville, Williams Grove and Eldora," said McFadden in Victory Lane. "To win here in the 360 was cool (he was the 2019 360 Knoxville Nationals champion), but man this is bad-ass. I felt really good. We worked at it all night. Not doing a lot of half-mile laps, you second guess what you're feeling. The guys just made the right decisions. For the team and myself, it's a pretty special win."

It's All Ryan Timms On Opening Night of the Knoxville Nationals! By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 6, 2025) – Ryan Timms was in a class by himself on Brandt Professional Agriculture Qualifying Night #1 at the 64th NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey's Wednesday night at the Knoxville Raceway. The Oklahoma City driver registered the third quick time of the night, made it through his heat race, driving from eighth to fourth and then won the 25-lap main event, garnering 487 points for Saturday's finale. The driver of the Liebig Racing #10 also cashed in $12,000 for his fifth win of the season here at the "Sprint Car Capital of the World." Sheldon Haudenschield banked the second most points with his third place finish, and Corey Day was the hard-charger in the feature, and had the third highest point total (full point standings below).

The feature began with Justin Peck leading from outside row one, ahead of Garet Williamson, Timms, who charged from eighth, Lucas Wolfe and Chris Windom. Timms stormed by Williamson for second on lap two. Haudenschild made a move from sixth to fourth on lap three, and then passed Williamson for third on lap six. Timms slowly reeled in Peck and stayed within striking distance before sliding in front of him entering turn one on the tenth lap. The leaders entered lapped traffic before Kaleb Johnson flipped hard in turn one, bringing out the red flag. He walked away from the crash.

Timms led Peck, Haudenschild, Haudenschild, Williamson and Windom back to green. Emerson Axsom entered the top five on the restart. Though there wasn't much changeup front the last 14 laps, Corey Day and Rico Abreu were charging after coming from the back of the pack and the B main, finishing seventh and eighth, respectively.

Timms won by over a second over Peck, Haudenschild, Williamson and Axsom. Sam Hafertepe Jr., Day, Abreu, Windom and Austin McCarl completed the top ten. Abreu set quick time over the 51-car field, while Tanner Holmes, Johnson, Landon Crawley, Chris Martin and Blake Hahn won the heats.

2019 Knoxville Nationals champion, David Gravel, came out very late in qualifying, but laid down the fourth quick time of the night. Unfortunately, he crashed on the first lap of his heat after contact with another car. He came back to win the C, and drove from 21st to eighth in a B main won by Abreu. Kasey Jdrzejek was also a flip victim in the heats. He also walked away.

"That's awesome," said Timms in Victory Lane. "I don't even know what to say! This thing is so fast. I just got a really good start there and kind of was able to hunt them down. What a night. That one was for Sam Liebig, who passed away not too long ago (January). Man, this is just great. I can easily say this is the biggest crowd I've ever won in front of. You don't get any better feeling than right now."

"We showed up Sunday and we were terrible," said the second place Peck. "We were way too tight today, but I was confident in what we had going on. We understood the changes we were making, and figured it out from there. All in all, we hit it on the setup come feature time. Unfortunately, part way through that race, the engine kind of started to lay down. Once Ryan got in front of me, it was pretty much smooth sailing for him. I feel we have a good package for a dry track or a track like that."

"The first few laps there were major," said Haudenschild. "I got to the outside of the 7s and had Lucas there. I had to throw a pretty good slider on Lucas and just get going. I had to get by the 23, and I knew he was good. It's probably the best I've ever felt at Knoxville. Without that yellow, I think I was the only one running the bottom. I was kind of waiting for traffic, and after that caution, it got strung out around there."

Kyle Larson Conquers Night #2 of the Knoxville Nationals; Ryan Timms and Carson Macedo on Saturday Front Row!

By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 7, 2025) – Kyle Larson grabbed his thirteenth career win Thursday on Toyota Qualifying Night #2 of the 64th NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey's. The Elk Grove, California driver earned $12,000 for the win, and locked himself into the fifth row of Saturday's championship finale, where he will seek his third straight championship. Carson Macedo was the high point driver for the night and will join Wednesday's winner, Ryan Timms, who becomes the second youngest ever pole-sitter (Kenny Weld) in the "Granddaddy of them all!" (full points are below)

Derek Hagar led the non-stop 25-lap main event early over Spencer Bayston, Giovanni Scelzi, Larson and Bill Balog. Logan Schuchart entered the top five on lap two. Bayston wrestled the lead from Hagar on lap three, while Larson found his way by Scelzi for the third spot.

Larson continued his charge by passing Hagar for second on lap five, and Scelzi followed him into third a circuit later. Schuchart was up to fourth by lap seven. Bayston entered lapped traffic on lap eight.

Larson reeled in Bayston, and shot a slide job on him on lap 13 to take the lead for good. Schuchart came on late, grabbing third from Scelzi on lap 16 and second from Bayston with a slider in three with six to go. Finishing second earned him a second row starting spot for Saturday. Bayston finished third, ahead of Scelzi and Macedo. Balog, Brock Zearfoss, hard-charger Brad Sweet, Hagar and Tasker Phillips rounded out the top ten.

In preliminary action, Brad Sweet set quick time over the 49-car field, while Gage Pulkcrabek, Phillips, Josh Schneiderman, Christopher Thram and Brady Bacon were heat winners. Brian Brown was third quick, but flipped hard in turn two in his heat after trying for several laps to pass JJ Hickie for the final transfer. He walked away. Matt Vandervere turned over in practice, but returned for his heat race. Jacob Hughes won the C main and Sweet claimed the B.

Friday's "Hard Knox Night" will see all drivers not locking into Saturday's A (16) and the B (10) start fresh. The top four finishers will qualify for Saturday's main event, while the fifth place finisher on back will fill the eleventh starting spot in the B on back through the alphabet.

"Honestly, I'm out of breath," said Larson in Victory Lane beside Paul Silva's #57. "That was a fast pace for 25 laps there. The track was really slick, but against (the cushion) it was really gripped up. It just made it like really technical, and the car was dancing around a lot. I was using both feet and steering a lot. I got stuck behind (Cam Martin) for awhile, and I figured they were closing on me. I got by him with a few to go, and I felt I could rest a little easier after that. I wish we would have done better a little earlier in the night. It will be good enough to lock into the feature for sure."

"This will be our best starting position yet," said Schuchart of his prospects on Saturday. "I didn't think I felt real good. I know we were catching Kyle at the end, but I don't know if we're as good as we need to be. We didn't qualify that well, but we did what we needed to do in the heat race and this A main. We're on the podium, and we're very happy and proud of this Shark Racing Team."

"We lacked speed early and ran into some issues," said Bayston, who locked himself into the last available spot in Saturday's championship (16th). "We didn't give up. We had a bit of an issue with fueling in hot laps. We ended up with a time...I didn't think I did a good job of qualifying. We rebounded a little bit in the heat race and started up front. We set a good pace, but started to waver a little bit. I knew I was probably going to get somebody visiting me at some point. It turned out the 57 got by me quick. I just got back to what I was doing and ran the top and the car felt really, really good."

David Gravel Wins “Hard Knox” Night at Knoxville; Buddy Kofoid, Cole Macedo and Daryn Pittman Head for Saturday’s Championship!

By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 8, 2025) – FVP “Hard Knox” Night turned into a long one Friday at the 64th NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey’s. In the end, David Gravel emerged with his 14th career win at Knoxville Raceway and a ticket to Saturday’s championship finale. The driver of the Big Game Motorsports #2 will be joined in Saturday’s big show by the second place car of Buddy Kofoid, Cole Macedo and Daryn Pittman, who will start 21st through 24th respectively in the $195,000 to win finale. (Saturday lineups are below)

Anthony Macri slowed before a lap could be completed in the scheduled 25-lap main event, having gotten over the rear tire of Daison Pursley, and he restarted at the tail. Madsen led early over Ashton Torgerson, Pittman, Chase Dietz and Gravel. Gravel shot from fifth to third on lap two.

Dietz passed Pittman for fourth on lap three before the seventh place running Kelby Watt blew a right rear tire three laps in, bringing a caution. Madsen led Torgerson, Gravel, Dietz and Pittman back to green. Macedo quickly moved into 5th and then used a slider in turn three to pass Dietz for the fourth and final transfer to the Saturday A main on lap seven.

Nine laps in, Justin Whittall took a scary crash in turn one and was transported for observation. Gravel and Macedo shot by Torgerson for second and third on the restart, while Pittman returned to the top five.

Gravel reeled in Madsen and passed him for the lead on lap 13, while Kofoid had moved from 19th to take sixth from Donny Schatz. With ten to go, Carson McCarl tipped over in turn three. He was uninjured. Gravel now led Madsen, Macedo, Torgerson and Pittman. Pittman snatched fourth from Torgerson, but a three-way battle for the spot ensued when Kofoid entered the mix, and grabbed the spot on lap 17.

With six to go, Watt jumped the berm, with Brandon Wimmer and JJ Hickie trying to avoid. Jamie Ball took evasive action over the cushion and flipped in turn three. He was uninjured. Gravel led Madsen, Macedo, Kofoid and Pittman back to green. Kofoid quickly took third and then grabbed second from Madsen with three to go. On the last lap, Madsen slowed from his third running position, bringing caution. He slowed again on the ensuing restart, and eventually exited.

A green, white, checker finish added a lap to the feature, but it was Gravel maintaining his win ahead of Kofoid and Macedo. Pittman held off a late charge from Schatz to garner the final transfer position for Saturday’s championship. Torgerson finished sixth, and Pursley, Macri, Watt and Dietz rounded out the top ten. Torgerson and Madsen set quick time in their respective groups, and Schatz, Macri, Wimmer, Macedo, Gravel and Chase Randall won the six heats. Jack Dover won the C, and Kofoid and Whittall claimed the B mains. Kaleb Johnson was a flip victim in his heat, but walked away from the accident.

“Obviously, you don’t want to run on Friday night,” said Gravel in Victory Lane. “We felt good all night long. I messed up in qualifying, but the pill draw helped us out there to be in a good spot. Obviously, it must have been a great racetrack if Buddy Kofoid was coming from the back and Donny Schatz was coming from the back. I’m sure you guys got a good show. It was treacherous fast for awhile, and the top curbed up. It didn’t feel that good for me on lap five, and I saw the bottom was wet. I’m glad I tried on that restart, because I probably would have been chopped liver and they were probably going to pass me. Thank you to my guys. This is the same car we flipped on Wednesday. It’s not perfect, but it’s good enough.”

“We felt lights out in the B main, and honestly, I think it was a blessing to run it,” said Kofoid beside the Roth Motorsports #83. “We were able to get our car better, and we needed laps for the car and laps for myself here. In the feature, I just kept getting really good starts. I got to the top and it got treacherous after a few laps. If you told me I would be in the Knoxville Nationals after our qualifying night, I would have told you you were crazy and put money on it. We were happy to make a charge like that against a good group of cars.”

“After our prelim last night, I thought there was no way,” said Macedo of his drive to third in the Todd Carlile #2c. “Luckily, I have a great group of guys behind me. They went to work and made the car night and day better. Luckily, the track played into what I do best and that’s go up and pound the curb as hard as I can. I was getting nervous with all those cautions. The bottom was getting better and the top was getting a curb. I’m just so happy. This show is so hard to make. I’m pumped.”

“The way we’ve been running this car, making the A main was going to be a big task,” said Pittman of his ride in the Lunstra #3L. “I just have to thank Dave and Jamie Lunstra for giving me a chance to race. Race car drivers without great owners are spectators. I’m proud to be locked in. We’ve got a lot of work to do. We’re not really good, but we have the opportunity to improve that tomorrow night.”

Ryan Timms Dominates 64th NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey's! By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 9, 2025) – Ryan Timms put a stamp on a dominating week at the 64th running of the NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's by winning $195,000 in the finale Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway. Timms became the second youngest to win the Nationals, and the second to win in the first Knoxville Nationals finale he qualified for. The first on both occasions was Kenny Weld in 1964, who was just two months younger than Timms' 18 years and 11 months. The Nationals win was the first for Rapid City, South Dakota owner Shane Liebig. Timms led all 50 laps, and was the sixth of the season for him in the 410 here at Knoxville. The Oklahoma City, Oklahoma native was also the first Knoxville regular (in the point standings) to win the Knoxville Nationals since 1978 (Doug Wolfgang finished fourth in points that year), and the first Oklahoman to win the “Granddaddy of them All.”

Thanks to his win on Wednesday, and his highest point total, Timms earned the pole for Saturday’s championship event. He led from the outset ahead of Carson Macedo, Corey Day, Brad Sweet and Logan Schuchart. He was in lapped traffic by the eighth circuit. Schuchart showed early speed nabbing fourth from Sweet on lap 10.

Sheldon Haudenschield entered the top five on lap 15, but it was a brief stay as a five-way battle for positions two through six ensued. Gio Scelzi spent time in the top five, as did Sweet, but Rico Abreu had solidified himself in the position on lap 20.

Schuchart and Abreu found speed and passed Day, but those moves were negated as the mandatory midway break was called after lap 26. At that point, Timms had built a 4.3 second lead. He was in a class by himself after the break as well, over Macedo, Day, Schuchart and Abreu.

Schuchart got over the turn four cushion, losing ground and surrendering fourth and fifth to Abreu and Sweet. Rico shot by Day into third on lap 30, before Buddy Kofoid and Spencer Bayston came together to bring the caution with 18 laps to go. That erased a 3.8 second lead for Timms.

The youngster was back in traffic with eight laps to go and had built his lead to more than three seconds at that point. David Gravel was on the move as well, and up to sixth with six laps to go. Sweet bowed out of the race while running fifth before an eighth place Kyle Larson blew his right rear tire, bringing out the caution with four to go. Again a lead of over two seconds was erased, but it was no sweat for Timms, who cruised to the checkers, pulling away to a win almost three seconds ahead of Abreu, who grabbed second from Macedo. Gravel passed Macedo late for hard-charger honors and Schuchart was fifth. Day, Scelzi, Garet Williamson, Austin McCarl and Haudenschield rounded out the top ten.

Tanner Holmes was the D main winner, and Kerry Madsen took the C main. Brent Marks claimed the B main. The D main saw a bit of carnage as Zach Hampton and Jordan Goldesberry crashed before it even got started, and Matt Juhl and Matt Vandervere got upside down during the race. Kelby Watt flipped during the B main, as did Brock Zearfoss, who crashed while running in the fourth and final transfer spot. No one was seriously injured.

Special Awards handed out included the $2,000 SprintCarUnlimited.com Pole Award to Timms, the DGRD Best Appearing Car: 1. Jimmy Light ($2,500) 2. Tanner Holmes ($1,500) 3. Brandon Wimmer ($1,000); the Avanti Windows & Doors Best Appearing Crew: 1. Schuchart ($500) 2. Marks ($250) 3. Carson Macedo ($150); the Think-n-Ink Best Appearing Helmet: 1. Carson Macedo ($500) 2. Brenham Crouch ($300) 3. Jamie Ball ($200); and Trunk Bar 7th in the D: Josh Schneiderman ($1,911).

Ankeny, Iowa’s Cam Martin, who finished 13th was the Jetco Rookie of the Nationals ($1,000). Gravel’s hard-charger effort earned him $270 from the “Beer Can Crusaders” and a steering wheel from MPI.

Timms was also the Beaver Drill & Tool/MPV Express Jesse Hockett “Mr. Sprint Car” for Southern Iowa Sprintweek, netting a bonus of $10,000. Austin McCarl was second ($6,000) and James McFadden third ($4,000).

“This is awesome!” said Timms in Victory Lane. “I never thought I’d be standing here for the Knoxville Nationals! I don’t even know what to say. To be given this opportunity is amazing. Shane Liebig is my crew chief and car owner and has coached me through this whole thing. I have so many people to thank. It’s been a journey, and to click at the biggest sprint car race in the world so soon...I really can't believe I'm standing here. I had no idea how big of a lead I had. I kept looking at the big screen. I kept imagining cars to my inside. This car is so fast. Knoxville is its track. I knew the bottom was going to be good in three and four, but I didn't feel very comfortable down there, so I moved to the top. We were able to run the bottom of one and two and drift to the middle. The last caution was good; I think I had two tear-offs left. This is the best race in the world across all forms of motorsports. To stand here in front of you fans is just a pleasure."

"Hat's off to the Liebig guys, Ryan Timms and Randy Timms," said Abreu. "I know how focused Ryan has been this year, and to make his first Knoxville Nationals and start on the front row of the race, and lead all fifty laps is pretty damn impressive. My team made incredible changes at the break. It allows us to smell a little blood in the water when we have a strong car at the end of the race like that. It was a roaring pace with the 41, the 49, the 14BC and the 57 was there too. I was trying to focus on hitting my marks in one and two. My car was really fast there. This place has an incredible atmosphere when it comes to racing, and I tell all my friends they have to come at least one time, and if they do, they'll want to come back consistently. I love being able to come back here and race."

"We had a really good car," said Gravel of his hard charge from 21st to third. "The second half of those runs, the car was unbelievable. I just have to say this race is not easy to win, and to put together a prelim night and lead all 50 laps with the best in the business behind you is impressive. I'm super proud of our team not giving up. I wish we could have started a couple rows further up, I felt like we were so good at the end. I felt like we had one of the fastest cars. The last restart with four to go, I think we all swapped second through fifth a few times. I'm just proud of our effort."

Join us for McKay Group Season Championship Night Saturday night, August 23! We will crown champions in the 410, Randall Roofing 360 and Pro Sprints classes! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Austin McCarl Caps Season Title With Victory at Knoxville!

Kade Higday is a First Time Winner in Randall Roofing 360's; Rookie Luke Lane Goes Wire to Wire in Pro Sprints

By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 23, 2025) – Austin McCarl celebrated his fourth career 410 Knoxville Raceway track title at Saturday's McKay Group Season Championship. The Altoona, Iowa native led all 25 laps to garner the $7,000 top prize aboard the Country Builders Construction #88. It was his ninth career 410 win at Knoxville, but his first of the season. Kade Higday earned $3,000 for his first career win in the Randall Roofing 360 class. Luke Lane, the top rookie in the Pro Sprints class, won his first career main event as well, leading from green to checker, and sweeping the night.

Season Champions who joined McCarl in clinching titles coming into the night were first-timer Tasker Phillips in the Randall Roofing 360's, and J Kinder in the Pro Sprints. Kinder won the 305 title here in 2014.

A point invert of 0 saw McCarl start on the pole of the 25-lap 410 feature ahead of Riley Goodno, Landon Crawley, Tasker Phillips and Brandon Wimmer. Phillips moved by Crawley for third on lap two. Wimmer slid by Crawley on lap six to take over fourth. Crawley could not avoid Wimmer's rear bumper, and shot to the wall, ending his good run. He was uninjured.

McCarl led Goodno, Phillips, Wimmer and Justin Henderson back to green. Sawyer Phillips entered the top five after the green fell. Tasker and Goodno battled hard for the second spot, with Tasker taking the spot for good on lap eight.

When Cam Martin and Carson McCarl came together and ended their night 12 laps in, Austin led Tasker, Goodno, Wimmer and Sawyer back to green. Austin pulled away from there to win by 4.5 seconds. Tasker was second, ahead of Goodno, Wimmer, and a late charging Kelby Watt. Hard-charger JJ Hickie, Henderson, Jack Anderson, Sawyer and Lynton Jeffrey rounded out the top ten. Austin McCarl set quick time over the 27-car field. Josh Schneiderman, Anderson and Cam Martin won the heats. Alex Vande Voort claimed the B main.

"We'll take that," said Austin in Victory Lane. "I thought we had a few more of these this year. Unfortunately, it just didn't work out. I didn't want to get up at the banquet and have to go up there with a goose egg in the win column in November at Prairie Meadows. That thing was on rails and starting up front was huge. Being in clean air was fun. I got to do my best Brian Brown and Ryan Timms there for awhile. We'll take it. It was a great way to finish the year at Knoxville."

Kade Higday shot out from the pole of the 20-lap Randall Roofing 360 main event ahead of Tony Rost, Tasker Phillips, Riley Goodno and JJ Hickie. Rost was strong on the cushion and led lap two, but Higday slid back by to recapture the point on the following circuit.

Carson McCarl and Hickle traded the fifth spot three times in great action before Joe Beaver slowed on lap seven, bringing a caution. Higday led Rost, Phillips, Goodno and McCarl back to green. Hickle and McCarl continued to trade fifth.

Up front, Higday was pulling away and into traffic on lap 13. With 11 laps to go, Logan Alexander got sideways. When Kurt Mueller clipped him, it sent Alexander upside down inside turn four. He walked away.

On the restart, Phillips pressured Rost and made contact while passing him in turn four. Rost lost several spots, with Hickle moving into third, and Goodno into fourth. Hickle would work under Phillips for second with two to go.

Higday was able to hold off all challengers for his first career 360 win here. Hickle was second, ahead of Phillips, Goodno and McCarl. Rost, Giles, hard-charger Dustin Selvae, Clint Garner and Cam Martin completed the top ten. Tyler Groenendyk set quick time on the 33-car field, and Cam Sorrels, Carson McCarl, Terry McCarl and Ryan Bickett won heats. Selvae was the B main winner.

“We’ve busted our butts this year, and honestly, it’s been a subpar year for us,” said Higday in Victory Lane. “We kind of just went back to the basics tonight. We really didn’t touch the thing since we showed up. We qualified decent. That’s a huge win off my shoulders, and obviously a big confidence boost going into next year.”

The Pro Sprints feature was a bit rough and tumble with the original 18-lap event being shortened to 17. Before a lap could be completed, Tyler Thompson spun after contact with another car. Though he kept it going, Jeff Wilke checked up and tipped over. No one was injured. Carter Hansen spun on the next try at green.

Once underway, Luke Lane shot from outside row two to lead, ahead of fellow rookie Brody Johnson, J Kinder, Devin Kline and Matt Allen. On lap three, Josh Higday entered the top five, but he exited two laps later. Lane entered lapped traffic on lap seven before Hansen spun again on lap eight. Allen exited out of fourth with a flat left rear tire.

Lane led Johnson, Kinder, Chase Young and Matthew Stelzer back to green. Lane shot out to a lead over Johnson again. Evan Jones and Stelzer exchanged fifth three times before Jones came to a stop on lap 15.

A green, white, checker finish saw Lane get his first win, ahead of Johnson, Kinder, Chase Young and Stelzer. Jackson Gray, Mike Mayberry, Tim Young, Koddy Hildreth and Bob Hildreth rounded out the top ten. Lane set quick time and won his heat. Chase Young took the second heat.

“That was amazing,” said a happy Lane. “It’s been such a struggle all year. We’ve got some speed, and if anyone else was driving this car, they would have won five times this year. It just means everything to me. I’ve been coming here since I could walk. I just live 20 minutes away. This is where my heart’s at...right here, Knoxville, Iowa!”

Garrett Alberson Blasts to First Career Knoxville Win on Opening Night of Late Model Knoxville Nationals!

By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 18, 2025) – Garrett Alberson survived a tough night at the Knoxville Raceway and recorded his first win there on Night #1 of the 21st Lucas Oil Late Model Knoxville Nationals. Mother Nature played a big part in a night that saw four new track records set on the lightning fast half-mile. Alberson earned $10,000 for his win, and the Las Cruces, New Mexico native also came out on top of the points battle with 488. Drivers will use the best of their two nights of point accumulation to line up for Saturday's $75,000 to win finale (point totals below).

Alberson shot out from outside row one early in the scheduled 25-lap main event early to lead Brandon Sheppard, Tyler Bruening, Daulton Wilson and Ryan Gustin. Eight laps in, a sixth running Brian Shirley got into the turn three wall, bringing the first caution of the event.

Gustin shot under Wilson on the restart to reclaim fourth, on a track that was narrow and hard to pass on, thanks to persistent rains during the day. Bruening suffered the same fate as Shirley on lap 13. While running third, he slammed the turn three wall hard. He was able to walk away.

Now Alberson's lead came ahead of Sheppard, Gustin, Wilson and Joseph Joiner. Tyler Erb, who started tenth, restarted sixth and shot to fourth with a great restart. Chad Simpso would slow on lap 15, bringing another caution.

On that restart, contact from another car sent seventh running Hudson O'Neal flipping hard into the turn two wall. He exited the car on his own. The restart saw Alberson lead the group back to green, ahead of Sheppard, Gustin, Erb and Wilson. Erb's restart was a good one again, as he shot by both Gustin and Sheppard into second.

Sheppard suffered a flat tire at that point with nine laps to go. On lap 19, Gustin, who was running third would slow, bringing another caution. Now Alberson led Erb, Wilson, Ricky Thornton Jr. and Jonathan Davenport, who started 18th.

Carson Ferguson flipped on that restart. He too, emerged from his crash. Persistent rains then returned to the racetrack, and the race was declared complete.

In the end, Alberson's win came over Erb, Wilson, Thornton Jr. and hard-charger Davenport. Aaron Marrant, Joiner, Devin Moran, Donald McIntosh and Dan Ebert completed the top ten. Thornton Jr. set a new one-lap record in time trials at 16.566 seconds, breaking a 19-year-old mark set by Earl Pearson Jr. The tacky conditions also allowed the 12-lap record to be broken by first heat winner Daniel Hilsabeck at 3:30.7 (breaking Max Blair's mark from 2024), the 8-lap record by B man one winner Chad Simpson at 2:19.3 (breaking Eddie Carrier Jr.'s mark from 2004) and the 6-lap record by Dan Ebert at 1:47.2 (breaking Jimmy Mars's mark from 2008). Shirley also set quick time in his group, and other heat winners included Donald McIntosh, Davenport and Jake Neal.

"This is huge," said a happy Alberson in Victory Lane. "The restarts were really hard to judge. I didn't feel like I could accelerate really good. My gearing was a little bit weird there. It's so hard to judge if you're doing the right thing with your speed here. You can be in the right lane, but if you don't do it just right, you lose a lot of speed. It was tough to keep my speed up. This is always a tricky place, and it's special because of it. I'm super proud of this."

"(We were able to move up) by having a lot of laps here," said Erb. "You're not going to pass on the outside unless you're a 'bad mamma jamma' and I wasn't going to try. I had a couple restarts that kind of worked out, once I got by Joiner there. I was biding my time, not trying to hurt myself. The one where I got by (Gustin) and (Sheppard) in the same lap...that was pretty good. We made 19 of 25 and Garrett did a good job. It was a really good night for us."

“To run third, it was good,” said Wilson. “We definitely got to work on the racecar tonight, but with the racetrack we had, we’ll definitely take it. The biggest thing was staying out of the ‘air’. My car wouldn’t take off on the restarts, so I felt like I was holding the whole field up. We made the most of it, and we were lucky to end up here.”

Devin Moran Strikes for First Knoxville Win in Night #2 of the Late Model Nationals!
Moran Also Cinches Pole for Saturday's $75,000 to Win Finale
By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 19, 2025) – Devin Moran broke through for his first career win at the Knoxville Raceway Friday on Night #2 of the Lucas Oil Late Model Knoxville Nationals, and in so doing locked himself on the pole for Saturday night's $75,000 to win 75-lap finale. The Dresden, Ohio native earned $10,000 for his victory on Friday. Moran will be joined on the front row by 2022 Late Model Knoxville Nationals champion Jonathan Davenport. The top 24 in points locked themselves into Saturday's finale, and the remaining drivers will line up in the B main (lineups below).

Brandon Overton shot out to the early lead in the 25-lapper ahead of Moran, Davenport, Bobby Pierce and Ricky Thornton Jr. On lap six, Thornton used the low side to pass Pierce for fourth. Two laps later, Hudson O'Neal came to a stop on the frontstretch to bring the only caution of the event.

Overton led the Delaware double-file restart, ahead of Moran, who chose the outside line, Davenport, Thornton, Pierce and Thursday winner Garrett Alberson. Pierce and Alberson worked by Thornton on the restart, but up front, Overton maintained his pace.

When approaching traffic on lap 17, Moran pulled up on Overton, hit the low side of turn one and slid in front of the leader to take the point. From there he pulled away to the win, maneuvering through lapped traffic.

Overton would settle for second, ahead of Davenport, Pierce and Alberson. Thornton, Brian Shirley, Brandon Sheppard, Carson Ferguson and hard-charger Ryan Gustin rounded out the top ten. Ferguson and Alberson set quick time in their respective groups, while Sheppard, Tyler Erb, Moran and Cory Lawler were heat winners. Gustin and Chad Simpson won the two B mains.

“To win at one of the greatest dirt tracks in the world is nothing to hang your head about,” said a happy Moran in Victory Lane. “I haven’t been here a whole lot, but every time we come here, I feel like we have speed. We just found a couple things, and we were really, really good all night. Air is so big for us here, because the track is so flat and we can’t carve like a sprint car, so we can’t enter on top like a sprint car. I hit the moisture patch (on the bottom of one and two) and kept working on (Overton). It finally worked out...he got a little tight on the top of two and I made my move. I kind of slowed in front of him, but that was kind of my only chance.”

“Sometimes it’s better to be running second than leading,” said Overton. “When I got behind him, I just started following. He was carrying so much more speed. I was hanging wide and not trying to slide over the cushion. After the heat race, I felt really bad, and the boys really got me at least competitive. We’ll have a shot at it tomorrow. I feel like our car is about as good as anyone here. Hat’s off to the track crew. They busted their butt and that’s the Knoxville I want to race on.”

“My car felt pretty good there, but the closer I got to them, the worse I felt,” said Davenport. “Once we caught lapped traffic, I fell back a little bit. I felt like we were catching them the last couple laps, so that’s something to hang your hat on for sure. We were definitely better than we were last night. Hat’s off to the track crew. They did an awesome job. They had a lot of wet clay to maneuver around today, but they did an excellent job with it.”

Wreckers to $75,000 Checkers for Hudson O'Neal at Lucas Oil Late Model Knoxville Nationals! Chad Simpson Takes $4,900 for Malvern Bank Super Late Model Racing Win By Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 20, 2025) – Hudson O'Neal made history in more than one way Saturday night by winning the finale of the 21st Lucas Oil Late Model Knoxville Nationals. He won the richest paying race in Knoxville Late Model history, pocketing $75,000. He was the youngest winner of the race at age 25, and he and father Don (2011) become the first father/son duo to win the event. The win was all the sweeter, as Hudson destroyed his primary car on Thursday here, writing a true “wreckers to checkers story.” The event featured nine lead changes, but once O'Neal took control, his winning advantage at the checkers was 8.3 seconds. In the companion Malvern Bank Late Model Racing Series event, Chad Simpson took the $4,900 victory, his second in his career at Knoxville.

Jonathan Davenport led early in the 75-lap headliner, ahead of Friday winner Devin Moran, Thursday winner Garrett Alberson, Ricky Thornton Jr. and Tyler Erb. While Davenport led a middle to high groove, Moran took the low side and made his first pass for the lead on lap three, before Chase Junghans brought the first caution. Brandon Overton made heavy contact with the backstretch wall a lap later to bring another caution.

On the restart, Alberson and Erb shot by Davenport, but the veteran came back to claim third by a lap six caution for a slowing Jake Neal. Davenport returned to the second position on that restart, and on lap nine had his momentum back on the cushion, taking the lead again on lap nine. He was into lapped traffic by the sixteenth circuit.

On lap 21, Moran reeled the leader back in and took the point on the low side, but Davenport wasn't going away either and shot back around for another lead on lap 24. When the fifth place car of Bobby Pierce brought a caution 28 laps in, Davenport led in front of Thornton, Moran, Brandon Sheppard and Alberson. Moran regained second on that restart, and slowly reeled in Davenport.

The leader was in lapped traffic on lap 39, and five laps later, Moran shot back under him before a caution flew for Carson Ferguson. By that time, O'Neal had entered the top five after starting in the 15th spot. On the restart, Thornton and O'Neal shot into second and third.

On lap 47, O'Neal cruised under Thornton for the second spot. Things bunched up again on lap 53, when Davenport slowed and retired from the event. Moran led O'Neal, Thornton, Sheppard and Daulton Wilson back to green. On lap 55, O'Neal had the bottom working and slipped by Moran to lead. Moran came back to lead lap 56, but it was short-lived.

O'Neal made his final pass on lap 57 and pulled away from there to win by an incredible 8.3 second margin. Thornton gained second with four to go, and Moran edged Sheppard to complete the podium. Wilson was fifth. Brian Shirley, Alberson, Dan Ebert (the last car on the lead lap), Erb and Donald McIntosh rounded out the top ten. O'Neal also earned a steering wheel from MPi for his Hard-charger honors. Neal and Chad Simpson were the B main winners.

"I'm tired," said a jubilant O'Neal in Victory Lane. "Running around that berm was so demanding! It got so rough down there. I just kept telling myself, 'Breathe, breathe, breathe.' My hat's off to my guys. Whenever you destroy a racecar like that, it hurts. You put a lot of effort into it. That was a morale killer, but the guys worked hard the next day to get this car ready. To be able to come from 15th tonight is so, so awesome! This is so special. These are the races you dream of having your name on. To be able to add this one is so cool. To be able to add my name below my Dad's...no words can describe it."

"I went a lot tighter than I did last night, and the track really never slowed down like it normally does here," said Thornton. "Overall, we're happy with second. Hud was a lot better than all of us. I think he started (15th) and drove by us and won by 8.5 seconds or whatever it was. Congrats to him. I feel like anytime it gets around the berm on the bottom, Hud wears us all out. After flipping night one, obviously, it didn't scare him."

"The bottom started chunking out a little bit, and my nose was too low," said Moran of his run late in the race. "It kept on bouncing and bouncing. I just could not circle that bottom. I felt like we had a really good car most of that race. Me and JD had an awesome race going on. It was so fun going with him. Obviously, Hudson had the best car tonight there at the end. All in all, we'll take it. My guys did a great job."

Chad Simpson led early in the 22-lap Malvern Bank Late Model main event, ahead of Jason Hahne, Dylan Thornton, Tad Pospisil and Dallan Murty. Corey Zeitner got by Murty into the top five on lap two and then took fourth from Pospisil on lap four.

Hahne worked the low side of the track, and shot by Simpson to lead lap five. Meanwhile, Andrew Kosiski and Pospisil exchanged fifth three times over as many laps.

Simpson was regaining his momentum on the cushion and shot back by Hahne to lead lap nine. Pospisil and Kosiski worked by Zeitner into fourth and fifth. Simpson entered lapped traffic on lap 11, while Murty worked back into the top five.

In heavy lapped traffic, Thornton shot by Hahne for second on lap 13, and three laps later, Zeithner slowed to bring the only caution of the event. Simpson led Thornton, Hahne, Pospisil and Murty back to green. Murty hit the high side to jump up to third on the restart, with Hahne and Jacob Hobscheidt completing the top five.

Simpson maintained his lead for his second career win here. His last came in a Late Model Knoxville Nationals prelim in 2015. Thornton crossed second, ahead of Murty, the hard-charger Hobscheidt and Hahne. Andrew Kosiski, Brian Kosiski, Jesse Sobbing, Pospisil and Andy Eckrich rounded out the top ten. Thornton, Andy Eckrich and Hahne were the heat winners.

“I knew when (Hahne) passed me I kept missing the top the way I needed to,” said Simpson in Victory Lane. “I kept hitting the slick spots and sliding across the middle. I just had to get up in that moisture and keep the right front pinned. That way I could drive right around there. I knew I wouldn’t be as good on the bottom. I just kept charging there up top. We escaped through (lapped traffic) and pulled her off. In my opinion, for a late model driver, this is the biggest stage in Iowa. To race and win here in front of all our Iowa fans...it’s pretty bad-ass!”
