Lasoski Prevails in Inaugural FVP National Sprint League Knoxville Event!

Knoxville, IA, May 8, 2015 – Danny Lasoski scored victory #102 at the Knoxville Raceway, but it still was a historic first. Saturday's event marked the first ever visit for the FVP National Sprint League at the "Sprint Car Capital of the World", Knoxville Raceway. Ninety-eight sprint cars were in attendance for what served as a season opener at the Knoxville Raceway after three straight weeks of rainouts. Russ Hall took a popular win in the 360 class, and Devin Kline took the opener with the 305 class in a feature that honored the late Brian Hetrick. In addition, Matt Moro captured the 12-lap Mark Fee Memorial Dirt Truck feature to score his first career win in that class at Knoxville.

The FVP National Sprint League feature got off to a chaotic start. Something broke on the machine of Terry McCarl coming down the front stretch to complete lap one. As he tried to keep his machine straight and slowed, he was clipped by Brian Brown, who suffered some damage. That turned McCarl's car sideways setting off a chain reaction that collected Brad Loyet and then RJ Johnson. McCarl was taken in for observation, and only Brown returned after several repairs under the open red period.

Bill Balog led the field back to green flag racing, ahead of Wayne Johnson, Danny Lasoski, Tim Kaeding and Josh Schneiderman. The next 20 laps of the 25-lap event went non-stop. Johnson was able to find his way around Balog on lap six to take the lead. Lasoski was on the move himself. He picked off Balog for third on lap eight.

Johnson maintained his advantage until lap 16, when Lasoski got by in traffic. Two laps later, Kaeding worked by Balog for third. On lap 21, Brown came to a stop on the backstretch, bringing out the caution flag. The four lap Dash saw Lasoski leading Johnson, Kaeding, Balog and Bryan Clauson.

Kaeding surged to second on the restart, and closed the gap a bit in the closing stages. Lasoski kept his lead, however, and powered to win over Kaeding, Johnson, Clauson and KSE Hard-charger, Dusty Zomer. Mark Dobmeier, Justin Henderson, Balog, Brooke Tatnell and Ian Madsen rounded out the top ten.

Lasoski also set quick time in Minnesota Mafia qualifying and earned $200 over a 38-car field. Henderson, RJ Johnson, Madsen and Zomer won heat races. Brown won the B main.

"(Crew Chief) Guy Forbrook is a magician around this place," said Lasoski in Victory Lane. "He makes my job a lot easier. There's nothing we'd like more than to be standing here in August."

Russ Hall led the 18-lap 360 feature at the outset ahead of Matt Moro and Jon Agan. The lead trio remained the same when Cody Ledger came to a stop in turn four on lap three. Justin Henderson was fourth, ahead of Tony Bruce Jr.

Agan and Henderson exchanged third on lap seven, before Agan took off and passed Mooro for second a lap later. Henderson followed him into third. Disaster struck for Agan on lap 14, however, when he tangled with the lapped machine of Bart Friedrichsen. He was sidelined. A fourth running Clint Garner also came to a stop at the same time.

The four-lap Dash to the checkers saw Hall trying to hold off Henderson. The latter got a run to take the lead on lap 16, but Hall shot under him going into turn one and won a classic dogfight for his third career win at Knoxville. Henderson followed ahead of Bruce, Moro and Nate Van Haaften. Joe Beaver, hard-charger Tony Shilling, Garner, Randy Martin and Josh Baughman completed the top ten.

Henderson set quick time, while Blake Hahn, Jordan Weaver, Shilling and Bruce won heat races. Tom Lenz won the B.

“I was trying to hold my line down there on the bottom,” said Hall who donated part of his winnings to “Avery’s Army.” “(Henderson) got a hold of some moisture in the middle of the track and got by me there. I knew if I beat him down here in this corner, he wasn’t going to get by me.”

J Kinder shot out to an early lead in the 15-lap 305 feature ahead of Devin Kline and Trevor Smith. Chris Walraven was into third by lap four, and McKenna Haase moved into fourth on lap six. By lap eight, Stacey Alexander had shot from 16th to fifth.

Cody Ambers came to a stop in turn two on lap nine and was struck by Christopher Scank. No one was injured. On the lap nine restart, Kinder led Kline, Walraven and Haase back to green. Both Kinder and Haase machines fell off the pace (Haase ran out of fuel) when the green fell.

That handed the lead the Kline, who managed to keep the lead through a pair of restarts. Stacey Alexander finished his hard-charger effort in second, ahead of Walraven, Kevin Hetrick and rookie Christian Bowman. Trevor Smith, Kade Higday, Chase Wanner, Jeff Wilke and Mike Mayberry rounded out the top ten. Walraven set quick time, while Alexander, Wilke and Wanner won the heats.

Join us next Saturday night, May 16 for McKay Insurance/Allied Insurance Night! All three divisions of sprint cars will be in action. For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Henderson Cruises, Haase Makes History at Knoxville! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, May 15, 2015 – Justin Henderson had no peer in driving the BDS Motorsports #1 to victory in 410 action at the Knoxville Raceway on Saturday. His seventh career win was worth $3,000. McKenna Haase made history in the 305 class as she became the first female feature winner in a sprint car at the historic Knoxville Raceway. Wayne Johnson scored his 11th career win in the 360 class.

Before a lap could be completed, RJ Johnson got upside down for the second week in a row after contact with another car to start the 20-lap 410 feature. Tasker Phillips was also caught up in the accident with nowhere to go. Dusty Zomer was also involved, but the team made repairs and had him back out to rejoin the tail of the field. Lynton Jeffrey was not as lucky and retired.

Ian Madsen led early over Henderson and Logan Forler. Brooke Tatnell moved into third a lap later, and Brian Brown followed him into fourth on lap three. Henderson shot by Madsen to lead lap four, right before Bronson Maeschen spun in turn three, collecting Dustin Selvage.

Henderson led Madsen, Tatnell, Brown and Danny Lasoski back to green flag racing. Just two more laps were in the books before Aaron Reutzler blew a left rear tire, collecting Tim Kaeding, who got upside down. No one was injured. On the restart, Lasoski and Terry McCarl moved into fourth and fifth. Both moved by Tatnell for third and fourth three laps later.

Brown would spin when trying to get by Tatnell for fifth on lap 11 bringing out the final caution. Henderson had no peer, pulling away from Madsen. Lasoski would shoot to second, but couldn't make up any ground on the Sioux Falls driver. Following Henderson and Lasoski to the checkers, were Madsen, McCarl and Davey Heskin. Don Droud Jr., who had climbed as high as fifth, earned hard-charger honors, going from 19th to sixth. Dusty Zomer recovered seventh from the tail, and Tatnell, Brown and Austin McCarl completed the top ten. Brown registered quick time and also won his heat race. Henderson and Lasoski won the other heats, as all heat winners came from sixth. Austin McCarl won the B main.

“I was really happy with this racecar all night,” said Henderson in Victory Lane. “It was fast from the word ‘go’. Bryan (Sunby) has really done his homework. We switched to EMI chassis this year...and Parker power, you can't do any better. It's really fun to drive. I didn't know if Lasoski was all over me, but I had a feeling he was right there. I made some mistakes, because I was running too hard. It's a little lesson for next week. Be confident and have patience.”

Wayne Johnson led the entirety of the 18-lap 360 main event. Clint Garner trailed him early on, followed by pole-sitter, Matt Moro. The race saw three caution flags fly. On lap three, Calvin Landis came to a stop in turn two. Keoni Texeira spun on lap eight, and Dakota Hendrickson contacted the infield wall on the front straight on that restart.

When things went green, Garner made a bid at Johnson for the lead, but Wayne drove the #77x between Garner and the turn two wall to shoot down the backstretch. Justin Henderson would come on in the late going, edging Garner in the final corner for second. Nate Van Haaften was fourth, and Tony Shilling fifth. Joe Beaver, Russ Hall, Jack Dover, Jon Agan and Ryan Roberts rounded out the top ten. Garner registered quick time, and Johnson, Roberts and Henderson won heat races.

“I ran up on a couple of those guys (lapped traffic) pretty quick,” said Johnson in Victory Lane. “I wasn’t expecting to get there that quick. John Cooley, back in Australia...he built that frame and sent a couple over for us to try. He said I’d love it, and he was right. That’s a brand new Charlie Fisher power plant. We’re able to run here for a couple of weeks so we want to get ready for the 360 Nationals. I think we’re going to put (the car) away. I wanted to block the slide job (from Garner) on the restart, but I was so good on the top. I saw him there, and I knew he was going to try it. He’s a good racer and he gave me room there on the top.”

Before a lap could get completed in the 15-lap 305 feature, Brad Bowman flipped in turn one. Fellow rookie Trevor Smith was also involved and the pair were uninjured, but done for the night. Another rookie, Chase Wanner, took the early lead, while McKenna Haase’s move into second was negated when the caution flew for debris on the track.

On the restart, Wanner led Tanner Edwards, Haase, Chris Walraven and J Kinder back to green. Just two more laps were in the books before Kevin Hetrick spun. Kinder shot from sixth to third on the restart. On lap four, Ben Woods got into the wall, as the yellow flag flew again.

While Wanner was using the cushion, Haase found the inside groove to her liking, and she shot by the leader on lap six. Two more cautions would come out, one for Rob Weuve on lap seven, and one for Tanner Edwards on lap 11. Haase shot away from the field in clean air to record the first ever sprint car win by a female in Knoxville Raceway history. Wanner, Kinder, Stacey Alexander and Kade Higday followed her to the checkers. Hard-charger, Mitchell Alexander, Chris Walraven, Hetrick, Mike Mayberry and Devin Kline rounded out the top ten. Haase set quick time, while Stacey Alexander, Higday and Mitchell Alexander took the heat races.

“I don’t think it’s sank in yet,” said Haase, who will graduate from Carlisle High School on Sunday. “This was the night I told everyone I wanted to win, because I wanted to be on a podium two days in a row. This is a dream come true!”

Join us next Saturday night, May 23 for Pizza Hut Night! All three divisions of Knoxville Championship Cup Series sprint cars will be back in action. For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Henderson Doubles Up at Knoxville!

by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, May 23, 2015 – Justin Henderson put his name into the record books, becoming the first driver since Brian Brown a year ago to win both the 360 and 410 features in one night at the Knoxville Raceway. The 410 win on Saturday night was worth $3,000 and was also the Sioux Falls, South Dakota's driver's second in that class in as many weeks. Devin Kline completed the night's winners' list with a 305 victory.

Brian Brown, who started fourth in the 410 feature, shot to the early lead in the 20-lapper. Henderson settled into second, with Danny Lasoski grabbing third from Bill Balog on lap two. Brown separated himself from the field and entered heavy lapped traffic at the halfway point. Though Henderson saw some gains through the middle stages, it looked as if Brown would not be headed.

Unfortunately for Brown, his motor expired on lap 12 and he helplessly pulled into the infield. Henderson assumed the lead, as Lasoski, Tim Kaeding and Kerry Madsen dueled wildly for second, third and fourth.

The only stoppage of the event came on lap 15, when Matt Covington, making his first career 410 start, flipped in turn two. He was uninjured. The restart with five to go, saw Henderson leading Lasoski, Kaeding, Kerry Madsen and Davey Heskin back to green. While the duel for second, third and fourth stayed heated, Henderson would pull away in the BDS Motorsports #1 for his eighth career 410 win. Kerry Madsen went from fourth to second in the last three laps, and was followed to the stripe by Lasoski, Kaeding and Terry McCarl. Davey Heskin, Dusty Zomer, Brooke Tatnell, Ian Madsen and hard-charger, Mark Dobmeier rounded out the top ten.

Brown set quick time, while Dustin Selvage, Dobmeier, Tatnell and Zomer won heat races. Terry McCarl won the B main.

“The track was really tricky,” said Henderson in Victory Lane. “Historically, I struggle at a track like this, but Bryan (Sundby) puts a really good car underneath me. Danny obviously had a really good car, and Brian had us all beat. My hat's off to ‘Brownie’ for having a good car and running up front. It was bad luck for him, but we'll take advantage, the money and the trophy. I'm really proud of this team.”

Henderson led Matt Moro and Nate Van Haaften early in the 15-lap 360 main event. Van Haaften used the low side to shoot by Moro to take over second on lap five. Clint Garner was also on the move, and shot into third on lap seven. Henderson worked through traffic easily, but when Sawyer Phillips got into the turn two wall on lap 14, it put Van Haaften back on his bumper. Henderson was never headed, however, on the way to his fourth career 360 victory here.

Garner made a last corner pass of Van Haaften for second. That pair was followed by Tony Shilling and Jon Agan. Moro, hard-charger Aaron Reutzel, Joe Beaver, Casey Friedrichsen and Russ Hall rounded out the top ten. Reutzel, who was disqualified for the wrong right rear tire in qualifying, stormed from 22nd to seventh. Garner posted quick time of the night, while Calvin Landis, Van Haaften, Jamie Ball and Randy Martin won heat races. Ricky Montgomery took the B main.

“I figured Clint and Van Haaften would be stalking me there and waiting for a mistake,” said Henderson. “I wasn't sure how much of a lead we had, but the car was excellent. The traffic was a little easier to handle than the 410 class. This was a great racetrack, and I'm sure they'll continue to be.”

The 305 feature was a race of attrition. Only twelve of the night's 25 entries finished an event that was shortened to 11 laps. Devin Kline led every lap, despite seven restarts. Mitchell Alexander flipped on lap one, collecting Christopher Scank and Kade Higday, who retired. Rob Weuve and Don Dawson III were involved in a lap four incident. Corey Kautz spun, collecting Weuve on lap eight. Trevor Smith flipped on lap nine. Brad Bowman spun and collected Cody Ambers on that restart. None of the drivers were injured.

While Kline was out front, Stacey Alexander and Mike Mayberry exchanged second place five times with Alexander finally staking claim. Mayberry followed at the checkers, ahead of Ben Woods and Kevin Hetrick. McKenna Haase, Jeff Wilke, Tanner Edwards, Brad Comegys and Bowman rounded out the top ten. Mayberry posted quick time of the night, while Smith, Kline and Bowman won heat races.

“I didn’t think that race was every going to get over,” said Kline after his fourth career 305 win aboard the L&J Automotive #5J. “I just needed to calm down and hit my lines. Slower was faster tonight, and I just needed to make sure I stuck it.”

Join us next Saturday night, May 30, for Pella Corp & JDRF Race to a Cure for Diabetes Night! It will also be National Sprint Car Hall of Fame Induction weekend! All three divisions of Knoxville Championship Cup Series sprint cars will be back in action on Saturday night. For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Knoxville Raceway Rained Out May 30! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, May 30, 2015 – The events at Knoxville Raceway were rained out after the second 360 heat Saturday night, May 30. A constant mist caused a delay of thirty minutes, and then it returned, saturating the grounds.

Shane Stewart set quick time in the 410 class (14.560), Justin Henderson did the same in the 360 class (15.563), and Trevor Smith did the same in the 305 class (16.894) on a very fast track. Mitchell Alexander, Kevin Hetrick and Tanner Edwards won the 305 heats contested. Matt Moro and Keoni Teixeira won the two 360 heats that were run.

Join us next Saturday night, June 6, for Slideway Karting Center Night! It will also be Little League Night. Little League Players and Coaches can wear their uniforms for free admission! All three divisions of Knoxville Championship Cup Series sprint cars will be back in action. For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Lasoski Wins on Epic Night of Racing at Knoxville! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, June 6, 2015 – Danny Lasoski led every lap to claim his 103rd career 410 feature victory at Knoxville Raceway on Slideways Karting Center Night. He pocketed $3,000 for his win aboard the Big Game Motorsports #2 machine. That was far from the whole story, however, as wild battles ensued behind him in the non-stop 20-lap main event. In the 360 class, Billy Alley passed Justin Henderson with two laps to go, to claim his twelfth career victory in that class. McKenna Haase, who made history earlier this season as the first female sprint car feature winner at Knoxville, repeated that feat in the 305 class.

The 410 feature saw Lasoski dart out from the pole, followed by David Gravel and Brooke Tatnell. By lap three, Ian Madsen had grabbed third in what would become musical chairs involving spots two through seven for the entire race.

By lap four, Terry McCarl had moved from row five to the sixth spot. Ian Madsen reeled in the second place car of Gravel and the two exchanged slide jobs for two laps before Madsen prevailed for the spot on lap eleven. By then, McCarl had shot under Shane Stewart for the fourth position.

Kerry Madsen was soon in the mix as well, passing Gravel for third. Unbelievable racing ensued, as both Madsen's, Gravel, McCarl, Stewart and Brian Brown sliced and diced their way through traffic and each other. On lap 18, McCarl shot by both Gravel and Ian Madsen into third. He momentarily got by Kerry Madsen for second, but settled for third at the stripe. Gravel was fourth ahead of Ian Madsen. Paul McMahan, Brown, Jason Sides, Davey Heskin and Kraig Kinser rounded out the top ten.

Lasoski set quick time over the 42-car field, while Matt Moro, Dustin Selvage, Kinser and Brown took the heat races. McCarl won the B main after suffering a broken rear-end in the heat race.

"I hope this continues," said Lasoski in Victory Lane after winning his second feature here of the season. "I have to thank (crew chief) Guy Forbrook. "This guy never quits. We've had some trouble with our racecar on a slick track with a full load of fuel. He just keeps working at it. This is the best the car has ever been."

The 360 main event was no less exciting. Justin Henderson jumped to the early lead from his pole position. Russ Hall and Tasker Phillips trailed him early, but it was evident that Billy Alley, making his first appearance of the year at Knoxville, was on the move. Starting sixth, he was fourth by lap two, and passed Phillips for third on lap four.

Keoni Teixeira did a 360 spin, bringing out the caution six laps in. Henderson pulled away as Alley rode the cushion in one and two to propel past Hall for second. A lap later, Phillips, who was running fourth, spun to avoid Nate Van Haafte on the frontstretch. The restart saw Henderson ahead of Alley, Hall, Tony Shilling and Van Haafte. Shilling surged to third when

The final slowdown of the race came nine laps in, when Hall felt Clint Garner's right rear, disabling his front end. Despite helplessly going across the track, further damage was avoided. Henderson pulled away again on the restart, as Van Haafte took third from Shilling.

The leader appeared to be on his way to a fourth win this season at Knoxville and his second in the 360 class. He lost some momentum in traffic, however, and Alley reeled him in. Alley could put the Ironwood Builders #3 high or low on the race track, and slipped under Henderson coming for the white flag. He would hold him off for a popular victory here at Knoxville. Van Haafte held on for third, ahead of Garner and Shilling. Calvin Landis, Joe Beaver, Jack Dover, hard-charger Matt Moro and Jon Agan rounded out the top ten.

Henderson set quick time over the field and won his heat race. Van Haaften and Dover were the other heat winners, while Moro took the B.

“I actually won this one,” said Alley in Victory Lane. “The last time I won (in 2014) I started on the front and had it kind of given to me. Bob Richardson has been with me since I started. He gave me an awesome racecar that was fun to drive. It’s a lot of fun. This is my home. Justin didn’t really know what the racetrack was doing in the lead. He went to the top when the lapped cars got in his way and it worked to my advantage. I was hungry. My little boy Harrison gave me a hug before I left home and said, ‘Dad, just try to win’.”

McKenna Haase led the entire way in her second win of the year in the 305 class. The event was shortened to ten laps due to time and a number of incidents. Rob Weuve got into the wall on lap two. Trevor Smith, who was fourth at the time, flipped in turn one on lap three. Devin Kline, who was running second broke a dragline on lap four. Josh Jones spun on lap six, and Kevin Hetrick flipped while running third on lap eight. Fortunately, no one was injured.

Stacey Alexander challenged the leader over the final two laps, but Haase would not be denied. Rookie Christian Bowman was third, ahead of Kade Higday and Matthew Stelzer. Ben Woods, Mike Mayberry, Brad Comegys, Jeff Wilke and Tanner Edwards rounded out the top ten. Haase set quick time, while Edwards, Higday and Mitchell Alexander won heat races.

“The last restart wasn’t my best,” said Haase in Victory Lane. “I missed the bottom a little bit. I was tired. It was a very long race. Hopefully, everyone is o.k. It’s really cool to win on Slideways Karting Center Night because I got my number from one of the Slideways karts. It’s just unbelievable and I don’t even know what to think.”

Fog and Rain Can't Stop Donny Schatz at Knoxville! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, June 13, 2015 – It was an odd night at the Mediacom Shootout featuring the World of Outlaws Saturday night/Sunday morning at the Knoxville Raceway! A three and a half hour rain delay sent events into Sunday morning, and the feature was fogged out after fifteen laps. Despite all that, Donny Schatz emerged victorious and took home the $10,000 first place money. It was the Fargo, North Dakota driver's twelfth WoO win of the year, and his 22nd career win at Knoxville. His win came aboard the Tony Stewart Racing #15. In the 360 class, sprint car rookie Ryan Giles took his first career sprint car victory.

Schatz, who won the Dash, wrestled the lead from fellow front row starter Justin Henderson, who held it briefly on lap one. Fog quickly moved in on the Marion County oval. Henderson closed on Schatz in traffic, when Davey Heskin came to a stop in turn four with eight laps in the books. Officials deemed a single-file restart was best with the foggy conditions. Schatz led Henderson, Kerry Madsen, Ian Madsen and Brian Brown back to green flag racing.

Brown would shoot by Ian Madsen for fourth on lap eleven. When Bronson Maeschen slowed on lap 15 due to vision issues, after polling the drivers, the race was called due to the foggy conditions. Henderson held on for second behind Schatz. Kerry Madsen was third, ahead of Brown and Ian Madsen. Joey Saldana, Sammy Swindell, Lynton Jeffrey, Daryn Pittman and Brad Sweet rounded out the top ten.

In the new World of Outlaws two-flight qualifying system, Kerry Madsen and Saldana set quick time in their respective groups. Schatz, Brown, Ian Madsen and Terry McCarl won the heat races. After the Dash, rain began to fall, resulting in the lengthy rain delay. A 12-lap track record was set by Logan Schuchart in the first B main, before Saldana broke his mark in the second at 2:56.9. The previous record of 3:09.2 was set by Tim Shaffer in 2008.

"I can't say enough about what the track crew did," said Schatz in Victory Lane. "The push truck guys, and all the people who stuck with it. It was a hell of a job getting it in. I don't know what happened with the fog. It wasn't bad until we got to turn three. That was a tough call to make. We had every sort of racetrack tonight at Knoxville that we're going to run. We had two completely different racetracks on the same night, and we had a good car for both of them."

"I'm proud of this team," said Henderson. "Donny did a good job of keeping his momentum up. I should have moved up when I got by him. I should have moved up when I got by him (on lap one). I lost that race, and he did a good job of taking it. I'm proud of him for racing clean. He did a good job with the lapped cars. It was hard to see at the end, and he was being very careful with them. I'm proud of the racetrack for getting it in, and thank you fans for sticking around."

"Thank you to everyone who did a bloody sterling effort of getting the track in," said Kerry Madsen. "The fans for sticking around...sprint car racing is such a great sport because of the fans. I really wanted to go the last fifteen laps, but I couldn't even see the cone on the restart."

Fast, heavy conditions greeted the 360 competitors for their 18-lap feature. Nat Van Haften held the early lead over Ryan Giles and tony Shilling. On lap three, Shilling shot by Giles for second and set his sights on Van Haften.

The pair entered traffic, and on lap ten, Van Haaften got a little high in turn four. Shilling saw an opportunity and the two cars came together and flipped violently. Fortunately, no one was injured.

Giles assumed the lead and left the field behind the last eight laps to record his first ever win in a sprint car. Dustin Clark was second, ahead of Matt Moro, Joe Beaver and Justin Henderson. Clint Garner, Jon Agan, Russ Hall, Randy Martin and Calvin Landis rounded out the top ten. Shilling set quick time, while Jamie Ball, Sawyer Phillips and Hall took the heat races.

“It’s surreal to be standing here after just five nights in a sprint car,” said Giles in Victory Lane. “We’ve made three features so far, and to win one...it’s just unbelievable! It’s a little bittersweet. My Dad and my brother are in Europe. I wish they could have seen it, but they’re out there watching. Hopefully, we’ll get another one when they’re able to watch.”

Join us next Saturday night, June 20, for Marion County Cattleman and Corn Growers Night! It’s also "Scout Night"! Scouts need to wear their Scout shirt to get in FREE! For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Danny Lasoski Capitalizes on Henderson's Misfortune at Knoxville! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, June 20, 2015 – Danny Lasoski chalked up with #104 in his career at the Knoxville Raceway on Saturday night. Justin Henderson was leading late when a nose piece from his car came up and blocked his vision, causing him to stop. Lasoski assumed the lead and roared to victory in the 410 class. Clint Garner registered his 21st career win in the 360 class, and Devin Kline won his fifth career feature in the 305 class. Heavy rainfall at 5:30 p.m. caused events to be delayed until hot laps at 9 p.m.

Ian Madsen shot out from the pole to lead early in the 20-lap 410 feature with Henderson and Lasoski in tow. Henderson gained on the leader and shot around him in lapped traffic on lap seven. A lap later, Brian Brown, who was running fourth, tangled with a lapped car and turned over. He was o.k., but done for the night.

The restart saw Henderson leading Madsen, Lasoski, Davey Heskin and Lynton Jeffrey. Jeffrey sprung into fourth on the restart. Lasoski shot under Madsen on lap 13 into second. Henderson pulled away, maneuvering through lapped traffic with ease. On lap 18, the nose piece flew up into his vision and caused him to slow to a stop in turn one.

Lasoski assumed the lead on the restart ahead of Madsen, Jeffrey, Heskin and Brooke Tatnell and pulled away to victory. Madsen finished second, ahead of Jeffrey, Tatnell and Heskin. Bronson Maeschen, Terry McCarl, Josh Schneiderman, hard-charger Dustin Selvage and Craig Dollansky completed the top ten. Henderson set quick time, while Christopher Bell, Dakota Hendrickson and Brian Brown won heat races. Glen Saville suffered a wicked crash in the third heat race, but was uninjured.

“He was going good,” said Lasoski in Victory Lane in reference to Henderson. “He drove by us. Tonight it was better to be lucky than good. The track did a phenomenal job of getting this race in. I want to thank the fans for sticking this one out.”

Clint Garner led the 18-lap feature distance from his starting spot outside of row one in the 360 feature. Nate Van Haaften and Justin Henderson completed the top three early. Russ Hall stopped while running tenth with a lap in the books. Two laps later, Jon Agan tipped over in turn four bringing the red flag out.

Garner led Van Haaften, Henderson, Calvin Landis and Joe Beaver back to green flag racing. Henderson quickly moved into second, while Beaver drove by Landis into fourth. The final caution of the race would come out with five laps complete. Jamie Ball came to a stop in turn four.

Garner would lead the final thirteen laps with Henderson and Van Haaften in tow. Beaver finished fourth ahead of Landis. Matt Moro, Dustin Clark, Ryan Giles, Tony Shilling and Sawyer Phillips rounded out the top ten. Henderson set quick time, while Russ Hall, Randy Martin and Phillips won the heats.

“My target is Justin Henderson,” said Garner in Victory Lane in reference to him being the same for his competitors. “In a way we’re teammates. We both have Parker engines, and we’re able to bounce things off each other. You know when we’re racing, it will be clean.”

Before a lap could be completed in the 305 feature, Josh Jones found himself upside down in turn one. He was uninjured. Matthew Stelzer broke out to an early lead in the 12-lapper. He led McKenna Haase, Christian Bowman, Devin Kline and new one-lap track record holder, Trevor Smith back to green after a lap two caution for Kade Higday.

Kline jumped to third, while Stacey Alexander moved up two spots into fourth. Disaster struck for Stelzer when he stopped at the halfway point. Haase assumed the lead, but Kline shot around her quickly when her machine began to falter. On lap eight, Bowman moved into second, followed by Alexander. While Kline separated himself from the field, those two exchanged the runner-up spot twice.

Kline shot out from the field after one final caution for Corey Kautz set up a green, white, checker finish. Bowman would end up second, ahead of Alexander, Smith and Jeff Wilke. Kevin Hetrick, Brad Comegys, Mitchell Alexander, Ben Woods and Joe Simbro completed the top ten. Smith set a new one-lap 305 track record in qualifying at 16.820 seconds. Wilke, Stacey Alexander and Simbro won heat races.

Danny Lasoski on Top Again in $5,000 Mid-Season Championship at Knoxville!
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, June 27, 2015 – Danny Lasoski registered win number three of the season at the Knoxville Raceway and #105 in his career on Saturday night. The victory was also his third FVP National Sprint League win of 2015. The victory allowed him to stay on top of the point standings at both Knoxville and with the NSL, and it was worth $5,000 aboard the Big Game Motorsports #2. Justin Henderson was dominant in 360 action, registering his second win of the year in that class. Devin Kline topped the 305 class for the third time this season, and sixth time in his career. (Kade Higday was awarded the 305 feature win after Kline was DQed for illegal tire prep)

Henderson shot out to an early lead in the 25-lap 410 feature ahead of Ian Madsen and Lasoski. Rubber developed early in turn two, and Lasoski shot by Madsen on lap six. A lap later, Henderson was his victim in the same spot on the track.

Madsen tried to shoot inside Henderson for second in turn three, hit the brakes, and got over the infield berm when the two cars couldn't fit in one spot. Madsen's machine veered backwards across the track and struck the turn three wall, putting an end to his night.

Lasoski led the field back to green flag racing ahead of Henderson, Brooke Tatnell, Bronson Maeschen and Brian Brown. The top five would not change the rest of the way as a heavy layer of rubber encircled the half-mile on an uncharacteristic track at Knoxville. The only remaining caution came for Tasker Phillips, who blew his right rear with seven to go.

Lasoski carried out his win ahead of Henderson, Tatnell, Maeschen and Brown. Terry McCarl, Craig Dollansky, Dusty Zomer, Lynton Jeffrey and Davey Heskin rounded out the top ten. Henderson set quick time, while Bill Balog, Ryan Bunton, Josh Baughman and Dustin Selvage were heat winners. Dollansky won the B.

“We knew he was going to be tough,” said Lasoski of the pole-sitter Henderson in Victory Lane. “My hat's off to (crew chief) Guy Forbrook. He had this thing figured out tonight. We have a good racecar, but when August (Knoxville Nationals) comes the big boys are coming to town and we want to be ready.”

Henderson was strong all night long in the 360 class. He shot out from his pole position in the 20-lap feature, while Jon Agan and Calvin Landis gave chase. While the lead trio separated themselves, there was great racing from fourth through eighth between Tony Shilling, Jamie Ball, Jonathan Cornell, Matt Moro and Clint Garner.

On lap nine, Shilling reeled in Landis in traffic and took over the third spot, while Cornell and Garner followed him into fourth and fifth a lap later. With eleven laps in the books, Sawyer Phillips spun, bringing about a caution. Henderson led Agan, Shilling, Cornell and Garner back to green flag racing.

Henderson would pull away again in the BDS Motorsports #1 with Agan, Shilling, Cornell and Garner following him to the checkers. Landis, Dakota Hendrickson, Moro, Ball and Ricky Montgomery completed the top ten. Joe Beaver was the hard-charger, driving from 19th to 11th after flipping in his heat race. Keoni Teixeira also crashed hard completing his heat race. He was uninjured, but done for the night. Henderson set quick time, while Nate Van Haaften, Montgomery and Hendrickson won heat races.

“The car felt really good and I felt good,” said Henderson in Victory Lane. “We have some friends from Pennsylvania here too, and we're glad we put on a show for them.”

Chris Walraven led early in the 15-lap 305 main event ahead of Devin Kline and Stacey Alexander. Alexander shot by Kline for second on lap four. One lap later, Walraven would lose his right rear tire, giving the lead to Alexander. That would be very brief, and Kline would ride the cushion to the lead on the restart and never look back.

A spin by Mark Johnson with six laps recorded set up a restart that saw Kade Higday got from fifth to third. He would ride around Alexander into second on lap ten. He appeared to be playing with fire, jumping the cushion on several occasions. He would never catch Kline, but he would hold onto the runner-up spot.

Following Kline and Higday across the line were Alexander, Kevin Hetrick and Mike Mayberry. Christian Bowman, Brad Comegys, Matthew Stelzer, Jeff Wilke and Trevor Smith rounded out the top ten. Kline set quick time on the night, and Higday, Joe Simbro and Stacey Alexander won the heats.

“This gets us used to other track conditions,” said Kline of the dry-slick surface. “It was fun. We were sliding all over the place. We had one shot at it on that restart, and we went for it.”

Join us next Saturday night, July 4, for Aspen Aire Night! It will again feature the FVP National Sprint League! All three divisions of Knoxville Championship Cup Series sprint cars will again be in action! For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Terry McCarl Tops FVP National Sprint League at Knoxville! Agan and Henderson Grab 360 Twins! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, July 4, 2015 – Terry McCarl and Danny Lasoski have dueled at Knoxville Raceway for four different decades. The rivalry came to life again Saturday night on Aspen Aire Night featuring the FVP

National Sprint League. This time, it was McCarl who came out on top on “Heroes Night” on the Fourth of July. The Altoona, Iowa native won his 55th career feature at Knoxville, which is fourth all-time in the track’s storied history. It was also Twin Features Night for the 360 class at Knoxville, and Jon Agan and Justin Henderson picked up wins in that class.

Austin McCarl and Danny Lasoski started in row one of the 25-lap NSL feature event, but it was Terry McCarl, who used the low side of one and two to dispose of Lasoski, and the high side of three and four to pass his son for the lead to complete lap one. Lasoski moved by Austin on lap two for second in pursuit of the leader.

Dustin Selvage stopped with mechanical issues with three laps in the books. McCarl led Lasoski, Austin, Ian Madsen and Justin Henderson back to green flag racing. Madsen moved by Austin for third on lap four, before RJ Johnson slowed to a stop at the top of turn two with six laps complete.

McCarl took off well and held Lasoski at bay. Tasker Phillips who was running twelfth, lost a left front wheel and flipped twelve laps in, bringing out the red flag. McCarl shot out again, ahead of Lasoski, Madsen, Tim Kaeding and Austin. Justin Henderson entered the top five on the restart and took fourth from Kaeding on lap 18. At the same time, Lasoski reeled in McCarl in traffic as the veterans battled for the top spot.

Kaeding and the lapped car of AJ Moeller contacted on lap 20, and Moeller spun to a stop against the frontstretch fence. McCarl was never challenged in clean air the final five laps, picking up his second NSL win of the season. Lasoski trailed him ahead of Madsen, Henderson and Mark Dobmeier. Kaeding, Bill Balog, Dusty Zomer, Austin McCarl and Bryan Clauson rounded out the top ten.

Lynton Jeffrey set quick time over the field, while Moeller, Dakota Hendrickson, Paige Polyak and Henderson picked up heat race wins. Jeffrey also won the B main. Brian Brown suffered a scary incident in his heat race when something entered the cockpit. He was taken to the hospital for inspection of an arm injury.

“You break your back the first night out, then to be able to come back...” said an emotional McCarl in Victory Lane. “Everybody thinks you’re o.k., but...we’ve been having some problems the last few weeks. Doug (Rankin) did a great job figuring out we had a fuel pump going bad. To beat Lasoski and Ian right now...they’re on fire. You get out to a lead and have a good racecar early...you’re afraid late. I didn’t know if I should move around or not.”

“He did a good job,” said Lasoski of McCarl. “He got us on the start, and that was the end of the race. We got beside him, and as any good racecar driver would do, he took our line. I’m really proud of our team. They’ve worked hard.”

Jon Agan utilized his pole position to lead every lap of the first of two 18-lap Twin Features for the 360 class. While Ian Madsen chased Agan in second position, Tony Shilling was on the move, gaining third from Clint Garner on lap three. Bryan Clauson had charged from 11th to sixth by lap four when he pulled pitside.

While Agan set a torried pace up front, Garner and Justin Henderson were battling in heavy lapped traffic. Henderson gained the fourth spot on lap eight. Madsen slowly reeled in Agan in traffic, but could not muster enough to challenge the leader.

For Agan, it was career win number ten in the 360 class. Madsen was second, ahead of Shilling, Henderson and Jamie Ball. Joe Beaver, Calvin Landis, hard-charger Dusty Zomer, Jake Bubak and Nate Van Haaften rounded out the top ten. Garner was involved in an incident in the final corner with Chris Martin. It relegated him to the final running position on the lead lap, which meant he would start on the pole of the second feature. He set quick time over the field, while Beaver, Dakota Hendrickson and Zomer won heat races. Sawyer Phillips won the B.

“We’ve had some bad luck this year,” said Agan in Victory Lane. “Mid-Season Championship was kind of like our first night of the year. It’s been tough. We were really fast in the beginning of the year. We came here the first night after all the rainouts and we got taken out by a lapped car. You’re charging through those guys tonight and what a tricky track. You’re better than them, but you can’t be too tight in areas, or too free in areas.”

Garner shot out from the pole in the second feature ahead of Hendrickson and Matt Moro. Henderson was on the move from his starting spot inside row six and was into fifth by lap four. Moro shot by Hendrickson on lap six for the runner-up spot.

While Garner had a five second lead by lap ten, Henderson moved into fourth on lap seven and then passed Hendrickson for third on lap eight. Garner was maneuvering traffic well, and had a straightaway lead when Henderson moved by Moro for second on lap 12. Agan would suffer a broken piston and retire before Tony Rost came to a stop with 12 laps down.

Garner shot away from Henderson on the restart, but Shilling was unable to exit the track in turn four, bringing a caution out on lap 14. This time, Henderson rocketed by the leader and went on to his third 360 win of the season and sixth in his career at Knoxville. Garner and Zomer rounded out a podium that had all drivers utilizing Parker Racing Engines. Moro was fourth ahead of Beaver. Hard-charger Bryan Clauson drove from 22nd to sixth, and Ball, Van Haften, Hendrickson and Landis rounded out the top ten.

“What a fantastic racecar, what a fantastic racetrack,” said Henderson. “It was a lot of fun tonight. It was ‘elbows up’ on the cushion. I had a lot of fun racing with Tim (Kaeding in the 410 feature) and I had a lot of fun racing with Clint (Garner). He did a really good job. I think he thought I was going to out-guess him, but he was fine the way he was. It’s never easy whether it’s the 360’s or 410’s. We’re doing our best to do our part.”

Join us next Saturday night, July 11, for Hy-Vee Night at the Marion County Fair! Knoxville Championship Cup Series action will feature all three classes of sprint cars! For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Brown and Zomer Take Twin Feature Thrillers at Knoxville! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, July 18, 2015 – There was plenty to talk about after a pair of thrilling feature finishes Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway! It was Twin Features Night for the 410 sprint cars, and the action kept coming! In the first non-stop 20-lap feature, California's Tim Kaeding made a last lap pass to win. Unfortunately, a failed postrace technical inspection handed the win to Brian Brown. In the second, Dusty Zomer claimed his tenth career feature win at Knoxville with a late pass of his own! Billy Alley made it two for two, winning in his second appearance this year at Knoxville in the 360 class. It was his 13th career feature win in a 360.

In the first 410 feature event, Danny Lasoski jumped to the lead, while pole-sitter, Justin Henderson got over the inside berm and threw his front wheels skyward. Brown trailed Lasoski, while Henderson brought things under control in third.

Brown pounced on Lasoski immediately as the two battled at the front. Brown took the spot on lap three. Meanwhile, a battle was being waged for third. Kaeding and Henderson exchanged the spot four times in five laps. Behind them, Ian Madsen and Terry McCarl were battling for fifth, trading that spot at least five times.

The non-stop event got interesting in lapped traffic. Kaeding shot into third in the last five laps. On lap 19, he used the low side to shoot by Lasoski for second. As Brown took the white flag and then slid across the track in turn one, Kaeding stuck his mount to the bottom of the track and shot by for the lead and crossed first at the checkers. He would later be disqualified during technical inspection for a muffler issue. Brown would inherit his 30th career win here, ahead of Lasoski, Henderson, McCarl and Madsen. Dusty Zomer, Bill Balog, Davey Heskin, Tasker Phillips and hard-charger Craig Dollansky rounded out the top ten.

Sixteen cars finished on the lead lap of the first feature, meaning the leaders started in row eight for the second. Pole-sitter Dustin Selvage led the field ahead of Logan Forler and Lynton Jeffrey. Brown stopped with steering issues with a lap in the books. The restart saw Selvage leading Forler, Jeffrey, Dakota Hendrickson and Phillips. Hendrickson and Forler battled back and forth for the second spot, while Selvage pulled away.

Zomer made his way up to fourth by the time Brown brought out his second caution of the race five laps in. Hendrickson shot up to second, while Zomer disposed of Forler for the third spot. On lap 11, Zomer used the cushion to rocket by Hendrickson into second, and a lap later, he claimed the lead on the low side. He would cruise to victory. Heskin was in the top three by lap 13, and would gain second in the late stages. His late charge came up short.

Behind Zomer and Heskin was Lasoski, who gained fourth on lap 16, and the third spot on the last lap. Dollansky made a last lap pass to gain fourth ahead of Selvage. Kaeding, who was later disqualified, finished in the sixth spot, ahead of Hendrickson, Henderson, Forler, McCarl and Phillips. Henderson earned quick time in qualifying, while McCarl, Lasoski and Hendrickson won heat races. Selvage won the B main.

“You always want to get to the front as fast as possible,” said Zomer in Victory Lane. “I made a few mistakes getting through there. I knew those guys were coming, you knew with the invert they would keep coming. It feels really good to turn right into Victory Lane. It’s been a while since we won here. I’m super happy for the team. We’ve been so close lately, and it’s great to get a win!”

Billy Alley shot out from the pole in the 18-lap 360 feature, leading every lap. The Bennet, Nebraska driver was strong on the low side. Behind him, Justin Henderson was on the move from his starting position outside row three. By lap two, he was by Ian Madsen for fourth, and disposed of Calvin Landis for the third spot on lap five. A lap later, he shot by Dakota Hendrickson to claim the second position.

Meanwhile, up front, Alley was dicing through lapped traffic and increasing his lead on the field. On the white flag lap, Tony Shilling got into the turn one wall, bringing out the caution. Alley led Henderson, Madsen, Hendrickson and Clint Garner back to green. The victory seemed to be in Alley’s grasp as he headed into turn three on the final lap. That’s when Cody Ledger came to a stop in turn four.

The last restart was just like the other, and Alley pulled away in open air to claim his 13th career 360 feature win at Knoxville. Henderson was second, ahead of Madsen, Garner and Hendrickson. Nate Van Haafden, Jamie Ball, Joe Beaver, Jon Agan and Landis rounded out the top ten. Henderson posted quick time over the field, while Sawyer Phillips, Agan and Garner won heat races.

“I was to thank the guy who owns this racecar Joe Steinbach,” said Alley in Victory Lane. “We’ve been finishing second to Jack Dover a lot over in Nebraska, and we had a race won at I-80 (Speedway) the other night. I gave it away and spun out by myself. My car owner came and didn’t say one negative thing. He just gives me a great racecar. I just want to say thank you to he and his family. I’m thankful to be here. This is a diamond on dirt...a special place.”

Join us next Saturday night, July 25, for 3M Night! Knoxville Championship Cup Series action will feature all three classes of sprint cars! For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Danny Lasoski Tops Wild Night at Knoxville! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, July 25, 2015 – Danny Lasoski scored his fifth win and the 106th in his career at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday night, in an evening that saw everything from some strange accidents to a power outage. In the 360 class, Dusty Zomer backed up his 410 win a week ago here, with his fourth career victory in that class. Devin Kline dominated the competition in the 305 class to pick up career win number six.

Before a lap could be completed in the 410 feature, Davey Heskin spun, and so did Logan Forler, who was trying to avoid contact. On the restart, something seemed to break in Dakota Hendrickson's mount and he shot sideways high into the turn one fence. He walked to the ambulance under his own power after the vicious accident.

Justin Henderson led the 20-lapper once the green flag replaced the red, ahead of Lynton Jeffrey and Lasoski. On lap two, Terry McCarl took fourth from Brian Brown and reeled in the lead trio. Lasoski used his patented low groove to shoot under Jeffrey for second on lap six, before Heskin slowed after contact from another car.

Henderson led Lasoski, Jeffrey, McCarl and Dusty Zomer back to green flag racing in the last slowdown of the event. McCarl worked his way to the podium with a pass of Jeffrey in turn two on lap twelve. As the leaders entered lapped traffic, Lasoski began to reel in Henderson aboard the Big Game Motorsports #2. He made his winning move on the low side on lap sixteen. Lasoski's win came ahead of Henderson, McCarl, Jeffrey and Zomer. Craig Dollansky, Brown, Bill Balog, Ian Madsen and Bryan Clauson rounded out the top ten.

Lasoski also registered quick time on the night, while Jeffrey, Josh Schneiderman and Tasker Phillips won heat races. Tim Kaeding, who was second quick had nowhere to go in his heat race when Scott Bogucki hit the turn three berm and got sideways. Both were done for the night. Bronson Maeschen was third quick, but a major steering issue caused him to drive into the turn four wall and wreck hard in his heat. He was also done for the night.

“When you have a car as mobile as we do, it really helps,” said Lasoski in Victory Lane. “Again, thanks to Tod Quiring for putting this team together, with Guy Forbrook, Pete, Nate, Brady and Asa. I feel like I'm eighteen old again. The guys you race here on Saturday night are the guys you're going to race with up front at the Nationals. That's how good and high class the competition is here every week.”

McCarl pulled double duty and led the first two laps of the 360 feature. Zomer took over from there, as the lead trio of Zomer, McCarl and Henderson separated themselves from the pack. The lone caution came out for a lap three spin by Sawyer Phillips.

Zomer looked impressive in traffic pulling off his second win here in as many weeks. McCarl followed, ahead of Henderson, Nate Van Haaften and Clint Garner. Matt Moro, Ryan Giles, Jamie Ball, Josh Baughman and Tony Shilling rounded out the top ten. McCarl set quick time, while Scottie McDonald, Jon Agan and Henderson won heat races. Jonathan Cornell spun in his heat race, collecting Joe Beaver and ending Cornell's night. Almost simultaneously, a bank of lights went out, causing a brief power outage delay.

“We were getting ready for the 360 Nationals as well as the 410, just getting ready for the next couple weeks,” said Zomer in Victory Lane. “The car was really good tonight. We had the thing ripping around really well. The caution helped us. I was able to make some adjustments with the wing that really helped. We were just really happy to get another win here and keep it rolling.”

Kline led from start to finish in the 12-lap 305 feature. Matthew Stelzer chased him early, before Kline's teammate, Jamie Ball moved into the runner-up spot on lap five. It seemed like the race was going to go green to checker before Kevin Hiemstra and Rob Weuve tangled in front of the third place running Stelzer with two laps to go. The result saw a red flag, but no one was injured in the melee.

Kline went on to win in front of Ball, McKenna Haase, Chris Walraven and Brad Comegys. Christian Bowman, hard-charger Mitchell Alexander, Kade Higday, Stacey Alexander and Mike Mayberry rounded out the top ten. Bowman set quick time on the field, while Stacey Alexander, Higday, and Mitchell Alexander won heat races. Rob Edwards, making his first appearance in several years at Knoxville hit a spinning Josh Jones and launched into the wall in his heat race. He was transported with a foot injury.

"It seems like forever, but I've been itching to get back," said Kline of the 305's long layoff. "The car was perfect tonight. I couldn't ask for anything else. My hat's off to my crew tonight. I can't wait to get back again."

Henderson Wins Third of Season, Landis Wins 360 Thriller at Knoxville!

by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 1, 2015 – Justin Henderson struck for his third win of the season and ninth of his career Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway. The Sioux Falls, South Dakota driver's win came aboard the BDS Motorsports #1. The 360 main event was a tune-up for next week's 25th Arnold Motor Supply 360 Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank. The feature saw five lead changes, and Calvin Landis picked up his first career 360 win, and his first at Knoxville since winning in the 410 class in 2007.

Before a lap could be completed in the 20-lap main event, Logan Forler did a series of flips in turn one. He was uninjured. The second try saw Henderson take the early lead from pole-sitter Terry McCarl and Dusty Zomer. Henderson set sail on the bottom groove.

Danny Lasoski, who started fifth, grabbed the fourth spot from Lynton Jeffrey on lap two. It took several laps to get to lapped traffic, and McCarl reeled in Henderson on one occasion. Scott Bogucki hit the turn three berm and flipped with thirteen laps recorded.

The restart opened up the track again for the leaders, and Henderson cruised ahead of McCarl, Zomer and Lasoski. Brian Brown used the restart to shoot from seventh to fifth. Henderson did escape disaster late with a slowing Austin Johnson who got over the inside berm in turn four.

Henderson maintained his advantage to the stripe, ahead of McCarl, Zomer, Lasoski and Brown. Davey Heskin, Jeffrey, hard-charger Brooke Tatnell, Jamie Veal and Bronson Maeschen rounded out the top ten. Madsen set quick time, while Tasker Phillips, Lasoski and Tim Kaeding won heat races. Madsen also won the B main.

“(Austin Johnson) did a good job of saving it there,” said Henderson of his late scare. “I’ve done the same thing. It’s definitely possible to do that when you are trying your best to go fast. This was a really good night for this BDS Motorsports team. The track was really fast. Starting position helped an awful lot. Pretty much every scenario you can imagine has played out this year. We’ve got a lot of good practice and a lot of good testing this year. We’re saving it in that bank of knowledge for the Nationals these next two weeks.”

The race of the night, and quite possibly the season to date came in the 18-lap 360 feature. Calvin Landis came from the second row to take the early lead ahead of Josh Baughman and Tony Bruce Jr. For the first seven laps, Landis rode the cushion, while Baughman stayed within two car lengths on the bottom.

On lap nine, Bruce shot by Baughman for second in a three-way battle for the lead. On the next circuit, Baughman bounced back. He stormed past Bruce and Landis to regain the lead. The leaders were in heavy lapped traffic on lap 14, when it was Bruce's turn to take the point on the low side over Baughman.

Baughman returned the favor again on the next circuit, while Wayne Johnson came out of nowhere to claim third from Landis. On lap 16, Johnson shot by both Bruce and Baughman who shot over the turn one berm to avoid contact. Johnson took off and looked to be heading to the win!

Disaster struck him, however, in turn three on the last lap, when his left rear tire exploded. Landis and Baughman drag raced for the checkers, banging wheels down the front straight. Landis won by a margin of .065 of a second. Bruce was third, ahead of Justin Henderson and hard-charger Johnny Herrera. Jon Agan, Clint Garner, Johnson (limping home), Nate Van Haaften and Ryan Giles rounded out the top ten.

Henderson set quick time on the night over the 39-car field, while Jamie Ball, Johnson, Garner and Herrera won heat races. John Hall won the B main.

“You don’t get many chances in this world at my age to win a race,” said Landis in Victory Lane beside the Vander Ecken MotorSport #10. “When you get an opportunity, you’re going to crash or win that $%&*@! It’s been a long time coming. It’s been a lot of hard roads. This is a real small operation. About six laps in, the car started puking oil or something all over me. I was watching the gauges to see what was ready to go. While I was watching the gauges, I just got a little bit behind. With about three to go, I said, ‘She’s going to hold on, let’s go, pucker down and go!’ I kept pulling tear-off after tear-off down the front straightaway.”

The 25th Annual Arnold Motor Supply 360 Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank kick off this Thursday night, August 6, and continue Friday, August 7 and Saturday, August 8! Danny Lasoski Dominates 360 Nationals Opener!
by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 6, 2015 – The 25th annual Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank opened with Missouri's Danny Lasoski leading flag-to-flag in Thursday's preliminary A-Feature aboard the Parker/Mark Burch Motorsports No. 1m.

Lasoski's third career preliminary A-Feature win in the 360 Nationals since 2012, the "Dude from Dover" was never challenged en-route to victory.

"This just goes to show you hard March Burch Works. He's a one-man-band at home. He builds his own engines, does everything, and I just couldn't be more proud of him," said Lasoski when asked about his performance. "We came here just to see if we could measure up, and weren't even close. In Qualifying, we were even close, but he [Mark] never gave up and just kept working at it and it showed when it counted."

Asked if the run was a simple one, Lasoski replied, "It's anything but simple. When you get these touring guys that come in, along with anyone else here, you've got the best guys in the country."

While Lasoski ran away on the start, the race for the runner-up spot began to take shape as Aaron Reutzel held off the charge of Casey Friedrichsen. Not able to put distance over the No. 20, the pair continued the fight as Lasoski build his advantage until the caution waved on Lap 7 for Nate Van Haften whose axle sheered, launching the Left Rear down the back straight-a-way.

Back to green, Lasoski again pulled away with the red soon flying for a violent crash by Sawyer Phillips. Slow to emerge, the driver of the No. 3p was able to walk away.

Re-firing after an open red, the green light would not turn off again as Lasoski crossed 1.454 seconds ahead of the B.C. Funds No. 87 of Aaron Reutzel.

Changing gears during the open red, Aaron said the change was good but not enough, "It had to be a whole lot better to catch Danny. He's just a rocket around here so what can you say running second to that guy. It definitely doesn't hurt my feelings one bit."

Having to scramble after his Heat Race, Aaron elaborated on what happened, "I just can't thank my guys enough. They worked their butts off. We had to change a Rear End after the Heat Race and it seemed like anything that could go wrong, did go wrong while we were changing it, plus we hurt our good motor a week ago. We had another motor to run, but it just wasn't that strong so Scottie McDonald stepped up and loaned us a motor."

Crossing third was Casey Friedrichsen for his first top-five performance in his second career 360 Nationals preliminary A-Feature.

"We're not going to complain one bit about being up here at the end of the night. I would like to be standing on either one of those other two spots, but we haven't been down here as much as we need to run to get where those two guys are tonight, but we'll take what we got with momentum and go into Saturday night and hopefully run good again."

Putting on moves in the closing laps, Calvin Landis crossed fourth from seventh with Clint Garner working to fifth from eighth.

Tenth starting Bronson Maeschen was sixth, followed by Tony Bruce, Jr. Working the low line, Billy Alley moved from 12th to eighth with Russ Hall and Ryan Roberts making up the top-ten.

Thursday night saw 48 drivers checking in. All drivers were able to take time with Clint Garner laying down the fastest lap at 16.301 seconds. Five Heat races went to Matt Moro, Joe Beaver, Ryan Roberts, Brandon Hanks, and Danny Lasoski.

The night's C-Feature was won by Jordan Weaver. Knoxville's Jamie Ball won the B-feature. The night's Hard Charger was Bryan Clauson who advanced from 23rd to 12th.

Dusty Zomer Zooms to Victory Lane on Night #2 of the Knoxville 360 Nationals! by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 7, 2015 – A stacked field of drivers made the call for night-two of the Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank with Dusty Zomer capturing his fifth career victory in 360cid competition at the famed half-mile.

The second time Zomer has stood atop the podium on a 360 Nationals preliminary night, the non-stop, 20 lap A-Feature allowed the Buffalo Wild Wings No. 82 to race to a 5.462 second advantage at the checkered flag.

“My Crew Chief gave me a great car tonight. I just has to be patient. I knew Brown was going to be fast, I knew Sammy was going to be fast; everyone was going to be fast, but I just had to be patient, run our race, and run our line,” said Zomer in Victory Lane. “You know it was 20 laps and you don’t have to lead the first five, or the first 10, you just need to lead that last one.”

Taking off from the pole, Brian Brown jumped to nearly a second advantage as Dusty Zomer worked past Sammy Swindell for the runner-up spot in the opening laps. Working low at both ends of the track, Zomer pulled even with the Casey General Store No. 21 on Lap 8. Wheel-to-wheel around the half-mile, Zomer shot to the top spot the following lap.

Green the remainder of the feature event, Zomer was uncontested; taking the win over Sammy Swindell, and in doing so, secures the second starting spot in Saturday’s $10,000 to win feature event.

Asked about the run, Sammy replied, “The first part doesn’t pay, it’s the end. We were off a little, so we need to go back and figure out where we are at. This is the first time to run this car on a half-mile with a 360, so I can’t complain.”

Pulling off a close pass on the No. 21 for the second spot on Lap 18, Sammy talked about the pass saying, “He kept changing his mind. One lap he’d be low, the next he’d be high....just make up your mind. I got a good run off of one and slid him, and I guess he didn’t like it, but that’s how it goes.”

Working on the No. 21 on the final lap, Terry McCarl put the SnowPlow.com No 24 on the final podium step.

“I thought we had a shot there at Sammy and Brian at one point. I looked up and they were just right in front of me, and I thought I had them both, but a lapped car came down and took my spot there, but that’s okay,” said McCarl. “The car was good. I think we could have been a little bit better even, but overall a great night.”

McCarl’s third place run puts the three time 360 Nationals Champion on the pole for Saturday night.

Making his No. 21 as wide as possible, Brian Brown was able to hold onto a fourth place finish with Kevin Swindell coming from 11th to complete the top-five.

As high as third in the latter part of the feature event, Wayne Johnson slipped to a sixth place finish trying to battle through the back markers. Chad Kemenah advanced eight spots to finish seventh with Jac Haudenschild eighth. Tim Shaffer finished ninth with Tony Shilling moving forward six spots to complete the top-ten.

Fifty-four drivers on Friday night brings the weekend total to 102 for the 25th Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank. Five Heat Races went to Tony Shilling, Dusty Zomer, Don Droud, Jr., Ian Madsen, and Wayne Johnson. The night’s C-Feature was won by Randy Hannagan. B-Feature action went to Josh Baughman.

The 25th Annual Arnold Motor Supply 360 Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank concludes Saturday night with the championship! Knoxville Championship Cup Series 305 sprint cars will also be in action. For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Terry McCarl Goes Flag-to-Flag for his Fourth 360 Nationals Victory! by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 8, 2015 – If a face would appear next to the definition of the domination in the Dictionary, it just might be that of Terry McCarl, as the Altoona, Iowa native added a fourth championship trophy to his shelf in the 25th annual Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank.

Jumping to the lead twice as the caution for Justin Henderson and Ryan Roberts brought back the original start back, McCarl's SnowPlow.com No. 24 buzzed the cushion with ease to lead the full 25 laps for the night's $10,000 payday.

“Man, I’m use to going left after the scales. It’s been a while since I got to turn right here,” chuckled an elated Terry McCarl following his fifth career Knoxville Raceway victory in a 360cid Sprint Car. “What an honor to win this event for the fourth time. I said earlier, we really hadn’t planned on running this weekend had it not been for Don Long and Searsboro Telephone and Jamie Moyle.”

Asked what was his key to victory, McCarl replied, “Last night because we don’t run 360’s very often so it taught us a lot. We tightened the car more for tonight and when I was out there running, I thought if someone passes us, they must be running really good. I didn't think the bottom was as good as it was last night. Dusty is so good on the bottom, and I didn't ever hear anybody so I didn't think there was enough to try down there."

As much as four seconds ahead of the No. 82 of Dusty Zomer, a few hold ups in slower traffic allowed the Buffalo Wild Wings entry to close to 2.719 seconds at the drop of the checkered flag.

"The car was close, but I knew Terry was going to be tough to beat coming off the front row like that too. It was going to be a good race, but the top was just wide open. Last night I was running on the bottom, but it was just a little narrow so I never really did give it a shot," said Zomer. "Hats off to Terry and his entire team. They were fast tonight."

Marking his best finish in the 360 Nationals, Lucas Oil ASCS National Tour point's leader, Aaron Reutzel, took the final podium step in the B.C. Fundz No. 87 after pulling off a hard slide job through turns three and four; blocking the charge on the low line entering the first turn on the second lap.

"When you run third to T-Mac and Dusty Zomer, that's nothing to hang your head over, especially looking at all the people we did beat," commented the Clute, Texas shoe. "This was a hell of a run by this team. I can't thank Scottie McDonald enough with Dissolvalloy. If it wasn't for him, we wouldn't be standing here tonight but I've got a lot of great people here tonight; especially Christy Miller and I know Bob's looking down smiling right now."

Able to run down the No. 87 on several occasions, Wayne Johnson came close a few times to retake the third spot, but slower traffic kept the Townline Variety No. 77x fourth with Sammy Swindell taking fifth in the Cooper Motorsports No. 01.

Clint Garner crossed sixth with Brian Brown working from 11th to seventh. Danny Lasoski was eighth with Kevin Swindell making it to ninth from 15th. Bronson Maeschen was the night's KSE Hard Charger with a 24th to 10th run.

With impending weather removing 305cid competition from the lineup, five features were contested with Jake Bubak winning the E-Feature. Jeff Swindell led the way in the D-Feature with Sam Hafertepe, Jr. taking the win in the C-Feature. The final chance to make the show went to Ryan Roberts.

Shane Stewart Slides to Victory in the 4th Annual Capitani Classic! by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 9, 2015 – If the Slide Job was an Olympic sport, Shane Stewart would have collected the gold medal on Sunday night at the Knoxville Raceway; pulling off a deep Slide Job on Danny Lasoski through turns three and four on Lap 20 to become the fourth winner in as many years in the fourth annual Kustom Concrete Pumping Capitani Classic.

“I knew he was coming so I actually hesitated a little bit there with the two guys in front of me. I wasn’t sure where to go and I know he’s been exceptionally good here on the bottom,” explained Stewart when asked about the setup for the pass. “Lately, our car has been really good the last part of the race, and that’s what we’ve been trying to concentrate on because the No. 15 beats us on a daily basis, his lap times always increase as the race goes on, or at least quicker at the end of the race so we’ve been trying to concentrate on that and so far we’ve been able to achieve that a little bit. It’s just a testament to everyone on this L.M.R. Team.”

With a sigh of relief, Stewart said, “I can’t thank my guys enough. They gave me a really good Hot Rod. We’ve been absolutely terrible here this year so to get a win here going into our Wednesday qualifying night definitely gives this team a boost, and hopefully good things will come for Wednesday and on into Saturday.”

Giving chase early on from sixth, the race of the lead was between Kerry Madsen and Danny Lasoski with the No. 29 on top. Keeping just over a second advantage for the first eight laps, slower traffic began to come into play with Lasoski closing the gap.

Working the center groove through the first two turns, the Big Game Motorsports No. 2 was all over Madsen’s back bumper in a matter of laps. Switching grooves to the usual Lasoski Catfish, the challenge for the lead came on Lap 14 with “The Dude” going to the point off the second turn.

Pulling away by 0.627 seconds before Madsen was able to make back to the line, Lasoski looked to be in control; but traffic was not done writing their story.

Pulling to a pair of lapped cars, Madsen with Shane Stewart in tow since Lap 4 closed fast. With a huge head of steam, Stewart pulled the slide on Madsen for second; trying the same move on Lasoski the following lap without the desired result.

Back into Lasoski’s tire tracks, the slide came again on Lap 21 with the Larson Marks Racing No. 2 clearing Danny entering turn four and quickly pulling away to 1.440 second by the next lap. Finding slower cars in the final two revolutions, it made no difference as Stewart crossed 1.594 seconds ahead of Lasoski.

Kerry Madsen ended his night third with Sammy Swindell pulling off the low line pass on Paul McMahan for fourth on the final lap, who nearly ended his night coming to the checkered with a slap to the front straight-away wall.

Joey Saldana was sixth with Daryn Pittman close behind in seventh. Jamie Veal from 14th was eighth with Lynton Jeffrey and Justin Henderson making up the top-ten.

With 80 drivers making the call for the fourth edition of the Capitani Classic, split qualifying saw Kerry Madsen fastest in Group A at 15.050 seconds. Group B was topped by Daryn Pittman with a 15.290 seconds lap.

Six Heats, divided into three for each qualifying group took place. Group A Heats were won by Danny Dietrich, Ian Madsen, and Davey Heskin. Group B Heats went to Brian Brown, Jamie Veal, and Parker Price-Miller.

With the top-three advancing from each Heat, the top four fastest drivers from both qualifying groups who advanced were locked into a seven round, 2 Lap Pole Shuffle with the winner advancing up the ladder. The first round saw Paul McMahan over Lynton Jeffrey. Facing Joey Saldana in the second round, the No. 71m went three straight over McMahan, Stewart, and Swindell before going down in the sixth round to Danny Lasoski who was not able to keep pace with Kerry Madsen taking home an extra $3,000 courtesy of Greenland Homes, and in doing so set a new 2 Lap record at 32.1 seconds.

“I couldn’t be more proud of Greenland Homes, Kustom Concrete Pumping and Nehring Construction,” said Madsen. “It’s fantastic to see new people in the sport. I got lucky and got the inside starting spot on the ‘Dude’. It could have gone either way. We’ll take it!”

A 10 Lap C-Feature was topped by Brandon Wimmer. Going back to A and B groups for the night’s B-Features, Greg Hodnett won the consolation feature for the A Group. Daryn Pittman topped the Group B consolation.

Shane Stewart Tops RacingJunk.com Qualifying Night at the FVP Knoxville Nationals! by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 12, 2015 – When Shane Stewart rolled into Knoxville on Sunday for the Capitani Classic, he walked away with a $5,000 payday and the goal of beating Donny Schatz. Fast Forward to Wednesday's RacingJunk.com Qualifying Night, and the Bixby, Okla. shoe put his Jeff Gordon throwback / Kick-It No. 16 in Victory Lane just ahead of Donny; collecting a cool $12,000 payday in his 14th career Knoxville Raceway victory.

“You don't every let your guard down with him [Schatz]. I've been beat a lot this year by him and we're going to have to be a little better to beat him on Saturday,” said Shane in Victory Lane. “Honestly, I told the guys when we drew No. 71 to just relax, it didn't make a huge effect on Sunday with twice as many racecars, and I was actually shocked the track slowed down as much as it did but it is what it is. It put us on the front row and we were able to take advantage of it.”

Earning the pole for the evening's 25 lap feature event, Shane was quick to hit the cushion through the first two turns to hold the lead.

Keeping ahead of Daryn Pittman as traffic came into play on Lap 8 by 1.908 seconds, Stewart nearly tagged the wall through the third and fourth turns trying to clear a group of slower cars.

Losing very little speed, Shane put four slower cars between himself and the race for second involving Daryn Pittman, Wayne Johnson, and Donny Schatz with the trio going three deep on Lap 11 with Johnson taking the runner-up spot.

The first caution of the night on Lap 15 for Ian Madsen, who retired to the Pits with damage to the rear suspension, Stewart lined up with Johnson, Schatz, Pittman, and Gravel in tow. Staying high on the restart, Wayne Johnson dove low, but would not have enough steam to complete the pass, allowing Donny Schatz the opportunity to take over second.

Giving chase into traffic in the closing laps, Shane banked off the cushion in turn one on the final circuit, but would not be denied, crossing the checkered flag 0.614 seconds ahead of the Bad Boy Buggies No. 15.

“This whole team's phenomenal. Bad Boy Buggies and Chevrolet Performance, without those guys, we wouldn't be doing this and Tony Stewart himself being here this year, we're glad to have him here with us. We wanted to get him a win tonight, but we'll try our damndest on Saturday night,” commented Schatz.

Taking advantage of the mid-race restart, David Gravel was able to shoot to the final podium step with a big run down the back straightaway on Lap 16, “It's been a crazy year testing how much I love this sport and I love it a lot. We've been working really hard, just struggling on the balance of the racecar and two days ago, we got a good balance, got a good Al Parker engine now, and were able to qualify well. I'm looking forward to the feature. If we keeping doing this, we'll be up here more often.”

Paul McMahan moved up one spot to finish fourth with Justin Henderson from tenth completing the top-five.

Wayne Johnson slipped back to sixth with Daryn Pittman also slipping from second to finish seventh. Advancing from the B-Feature, California's Rico Abreu charged from 23rd to eighth with Greg Hodnett and Sheldon Haudenschild completing the top-ten.

With 55 drivers timing in, drivers were divided into five Heat Races with Jamie Veal, Willie Croft, Tyler Courtney, Tony Shilling, and Dakota Hendrickson earning wins.

C-Feature action went to Jac Haudenschild with Tasker Phillips topping the B-Feature.

A look at points after the first night of action, and Donny Schatz with quick time, third in his Heat, and runner-up in the feature leads the charge with 492 points. David Gravel is second with 485, followed by Paul McMahan (471), Sheldon Haudenschild (465), and Shane Stewart (460).

Terry McCarl Storms from Ninth to Win Thursday Night at the Knoxville Nationals! by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 13, 2015 – For the 56th time in the history of the Knoxville Raceway, Iowa’s Terry McCarl parked the SnowPlow.com No. 24 in Victory Lane, topping the podium in Thursday’s Lucas Oil Qualifying Night in the 55th running of the FVP Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey’s General Store.

“Man, I’ve got to thank Doug (Rankin) and Austin (McCarl), and everyone on my crew. We were horrible in the Heat and lucky to finish where we did and we just made wholesale changes on the car and wow!” said a nearly breathless Terry McCarl. “What a racecar. This A.R.T. was rolling great out there, and Tommy Rider gives us awesome engines. We did the best we could qualifying, and missed it by one. What a racecar, I could put it anywhere I wanted.”

Gridding the field ninth, McCarl began working his way through the field as Danny Lasoski took off into the race lead, advancing into the top five on the sixth round as the race from second back was chaos with drivers three wide at both ends of the track following a caution on Lap 4. Keeping low, tight racing off turn four allowed McCarl to jump from seventh to third in a shot.

After a caution on Lap 8 for Dale Blaney, McCarl gave chase as Danny Lasoski was challenged briefly by Jason Johnson who tried to slide the No. 2 in turns three and four, but to no avail.

Building momentum, Terry began to close on the Priority Aviation No. 41. On the back bumper of Johnson on Lap 11, McCarl made a move the following lap without success. Losing little momentum, Lap 13 saw the pass for the runner-up spot.

The red was shown on Lap 14 for Brooke Tatnell, who was able walk away, and the ensuing restart was called back as Clint Garner tagged the cone.

Single file to the green, McCarl tracked high on Lasoski into the first turns, pulling to the hub in turn three. With a full head of steam, Terry let the right rear speak for itself across the racing surface, taking the lead on Lap 15.

Asked about the pass for the lead, Terry replied, “Well, I just knew what he was doing on those restarts, and what he did to Jason. He was eating that top up, and I hadn’t been to the top. We had a start, gave me a chance to practice it, and on the other restart I perfected it a little better, and I think he missed it a little bit.”

Held up briefly on Lap 21 in slower traffic, it would not be enough to deny McCarl victory, netting enough points to start eighth on Saturday night.

Danny Lasoski held on for the runner-up spot, earning the Dover, Mo. shoe the sixth spot in Saturday’s A-Feature. Amid an infamous Terry McCarl kiss, Danny said, “We got good points, just got beat by a good driver, and a good car, that’s all you can say. He had a good pace, and a lot of times, it’s better to be running second. He did what he had to do, and he just got beat.”

Earning his third podium with the World of Outlaws in 2015, Jason Johnson earned the bronze step in the Mesilla Valley Transportation No. 41.

“I tell you what, these Priority Aviation guys have been working their tails off this week. I just can’t say enough about this race team. Phillip and Cole have done a great job. We have a great group of supporters here, and to be on the podium on a prelim night; we’re pretty pleased,” said Johnson who will start ninth in Saturday’s feature event.

Kerry Madsen came up to fourth after starting seventh with Brian Brown coming out of the B-Feature to claw from 23rd to fifth in the Casey’s General Store / FVP No. 21.

Joey Saldana was sixth with James McFadden settling for seventh after starting 13th and bouncing around the top-ten most of the race. Lucas Wolfe crossed eighth, Stevie Smith ninth, and Brad Sweet tenth.

With 57 drivers drawing in, the weekend total comes to 112 drivers making the trip to the 55th annual FVP Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey’s General Stores. Five Heats went to R.J. Johnson, Kerry Madsen, Dusty Zomer, Danny Lasoski, and Sammy Swindell. Kevin Swindell was involved in a violent crash in the first heat and was taken to the hospital for observation.

C-Feature action was topped by Bill Balog with Clint Garner getting the B-Feature win over Greg Wilson by 0.024 seconds. A thrilling race to the end, the top five were separated by only 0.912 seconds.

With the points tallied from Wednesday and Thursday, Donny Schatz will lead the field to the green on Saturday night with a ninth Nationals Championship on his mind. This marks the 18th time Donny has made the cut for Saturday’s feature event. Kerry Madsen will start his ninth championship feature from the outside of the front row.

Bryan Clauson Breaks Through for First Win at Knoxville, Trip to Saturday's A!

by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 14, 2015 – For the second year in a row, Indiana’s Bryan Clauson will take the green in the FVP Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey’s General Store on Saturday night, but this time it comes with a $4,000 check and his first career victory at the Knoxville Raceway in Friday’s National Speed Sport News Qualifying Night. Danny Dietrich, Brent Marks and Billy Alley also punched their tickets into Saturday night’s championship event by finishing second through fourth!

“I told these guys after Wednesday night, I think we had the car to get it done and we honestly felt like if we were in the fourth or fifth row of the ‘B’ we would think about coming back,” commented Clauson when asked about the team’s decision to compete in Friday’s last chance event.

“I can’t say enough about my guys, they’ve been busting their butts all year. I’ve been trying to catch up and do my job, and it’s taken all summer but I can’t thank Shane Bowers enough. Him, Adam Clark, Cole Wood, just everyone on this racing team. It feels good to be locked into tomorrow night. We talked about getting a win here, and how special it would be and what better way to do it than here during the Knoxville Nationals. I don’t care what you call it, we just won at Knoxville!”

Taking off third, Clauson moved to the runner-up spot on Lap 4 with the pass on Danny Dietrich. A small bobble on the part of the Matt Wood Racing No. 17 allowed the No. 29w to retake the spot, putting the pair in a multi lap battle with Clauson finally taking the position.

Chasing Billy Alley for the race lead, the pair worked Lap 8 with traffic about to come into play. With a run off the cushion exiting the fourth turn, Clauson broke rank to the bottom, sliding to the cushion with the race lead in the second turn on the following circuit.

With Dietrich in tow to second, the Gettysburg, Pennsylvania shoe closed on Clauson, with the run short lived. Building a comfortable advantage, a few close calls in traffic brought Dietrich and Alley within striking distance, but was quick enough to keep the pair at bay.

As the leader split slower cars, the inadvertent caution waved for the No. 18 of Ian Madsen on Lap 22. The Australian spun while running fourth; doing a pair of donuts. Madsen was placed eighth in the restart order.

Fanning out into the first turn on the restart, Clauson stuck top shelf to hold the lead, pulling to a 0.973 second advantage at the drop of the checkered flag.

Danny Dietrich raced to the runner-up spot, earning 18th and his first feature start on Saturday night, “That was the goal coming into tonight. You know we wanted to win obviously, but Bryan was really fast and we were happy to run second. That caution came out, and I really wasn’t worried about contending and costing ourselves a spot in tomorrow night’s main event.”

Racing for the lead early on, Brent Marks made a late race move around Alley to cross third for the 19th starting spot on Saturday night; his first start in the $150,000 to win event, “That was a really fun race, and I’m just so excited to be in the A-Main here at Knoxville. This is awesome. It’s a dream come true and I didn’t really care about that win tonight, I just wanted to get into the A-Main.”

For the first time since 2008, a fourth place by Nebraska’s Billy Alley will see the Ironwood Builders No. 3 starting 20th on Saturday night.

“That’s something a kid dreams about. I lay in bed and I think about moments like that; racing with these guys,” said an elated Billy Alley. “Joe Steinbach, he gave me an awesome opportunity and the truth is, we didn’t have a motor a week ago, and ours wasn't going to be done so Greg Nichols and Jack Woods at Speedway Motors bought us a motor and said, go run it.”

Mark Dobmeier from 13th came up to complete the top-five. Chad Kemenah from 12th was sixth with Ian Madsen settling for seventh. Lynton Jeffrey crossed eighth with Jamie Veal and Craig Dollansky making up the top-ten.

Single lap, split qualifying for Friday's program saw Brent Marks fastest in Group A at 15.586 seconds. One of the few drivers to utilize the low line in his qualifying run, Billy Alley topped Group B with a 15.987 second lap.

Six Heats, split evenly by the group qualifying went to Lynton Jeffrey, Bryan Clauson, Christopher Bell, Jamie Veal, Jac Haudenschild, and Jacob Allen. Going 10 laps in the C-Feature, Bud Kaeding topped the event with twin, 12 lap B-Features, based on Group A and B qualifying went to Steve Kinser and Aaron Reutzel.

World Challenge Win Gives Lynton Jeffrey Final Ticket to Nationals Championship! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 14, 2015 – Lynton Jeffrey claimed the Speed Sport World Challenge Friday night, and in turn gained the 25th starting spot for Saturday's 55th Annual FVP Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores! The Sydney, New South Wales, Australia native now residing in Prairie City, Iowa assumed the lead from James McFadden, who saw his power plant go up in smoke with two laps to go.

Randy Hannagan jumped out to the early lead in the 20-lap event over Jeffrey and Kraig Kinser. Jeffrey used a slide job to gain the point from Hannagan on lap two, and took off from the field on the cushion after a lap three restart for a spun Sheldon Haudenschild.

McFadden shot to third on lap four, while Daryn Pittman moved into the top five on lap five. Haudenschild brought out another caution and retired with a blown right rear with nine laps in the books. Jeffrey led Hannagan, McFadden, Pittman and Kinser back to green.

McFadden stormed into second on lap 12 and stalked Jeffrey for five laps. On lap 17, he shot to the bottom of turn three and slid in front of Jeffrey to take the lead. The native of Brisbane, Queensland, Australia, pulled away and appeared to be heading for the big show on Saturday night. Unfortunately, his motor went south with two laps to go, handing the win to Jeffrey.

Jeffrey won by a large margin over Hannagan, Pittman, Brooke Tatnell and Brad Sweet. Kinser, Ian Madsen, hard-charger Christopher Bell, Tim Kaeding and Kerry Madsen rounded out the top ten.

“I commiserate for (McFadden), he had a great car,” said Jeffrey in Victory Lane. “He's had a little bit of bad luck in America this year. That sucked for him. He did a great job and got unlucky. I've done that myself. This team's worked hard this year. I'm really thinking about the Swindell's right now. I'd like to send some love and some prayers to the family and Kevin. I just hope he gets well, and I dedicate this win to him.”

Join us Saturday night, August 15 for the championship proceedings at the 55th FVP Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores! For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Donny Schatz Roars to His Ninth FVP Knoxville Nationals Championship! by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 15, 2015 – If anyone had any doubts as to whether or not Donny Schatz was going to earn his ninth Knoxville Nationals title, the North Dakota native made a statement by leading 50 laps flag-to-flag to win the 55th running of the FVP Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Store.

Making wholesale moves through traffic in the closing laps, Donny was asked about the very close passes, “It’s not the traffic that was bothering me. It was the restarts. It’s my job to get through traffic. If I can’t then I’m probably going to lose my job. The past couple weeks, seem like people get a run on you and can slide you, so you just had to do something different. One time I’d go to the bottom, one time I’d go to the top and keep mixing it up, but it’s hard to do that without mixing yourself up.”

“The boss was here tonight. Can’t thank him [Tony Stewart] enough for all the support to allow us to be with Bad Boy Buggies, Chevrolet Performance, and all our marketing partners to do what we love to do.”

Taking off from the pole, Donny Schatz jumped to the lead with Kerry Madsen in tow. Working low on the Knoxville Raceway, the Tony Stewart Racing No. 15 was joined by the No. 29 of Kerry Madsen who railed the cushion.

Closing on the lead on the third rotation, Madsen continued to build momentum, pulling to the back bumper Schatz off the fourth turn as the No. 15 swapped lines to the high side down the front stretch to block the run of the American Racing Custom Wheels No. 29.

Keeping Donny within sight as the leaders hit traffic on Lap 10, the Bad Boy Buggies No. 15 found roads blocked, allowing Madsen to close in once again. With a full head of steam on Lap 12, Donny put a pair of slower cars between him and Madsen; leaving the Aussie to contend with Danny Lasoski.

Coming from sixth, the GoMuddy.com No. 2 worked cushion to hub on the Knoxville Raceway, trading second with Madsen as the caution flew on Lap 16 for the No. 41 of Jason Johnson who shredded the left rear tire.

Underway, Madsen kept pace into the first two turns with Lasoski in line. Unable to do anything with the No. 15, the race for second saw Lasoski taking the spot on Lap 25, just as the field came to the mid-point break.

Changing gears on the No. 15 during the five minute break, Schatz took the high line with Danny charging low. Unable to advance to the lead, Donny began pulling away as Danny worked to hold his second position, but would slip to fourth on Lap 32 as Kerry Madsen flew by on the cushion with Brad Sweet taking the low line.

Watching as the No. 15 pulled away with a 2.104 second advantage, the red flag flew on Lap 35 for the No. 51 of Paul McMahan who tripped the cushion in turn four battling for eighth with Bryan Clauson. Quick work by the Pit Crew put the CJB Motorsports No. 51 back on track for the restart.

Splitting lines on the restart, Madsen again could not make work of the No. 15, but again had to contend with Brad Sweet. Working low on Lap 37, Brad Sweet all but had Madsen cleared, only to see the No. 29 squeeze between his Right Rear Tire and the wall.

Going back and forth for the runner-up spot, the pair kept Schatz within seven tenths of a second as the caution waved again on Lap 40.

Again keeping Schatz to under a second advantage, the pair worked to traffic on Lap 48 with Schatz boxed in by back markers. With the center line barely open, Donny threaded the needle, putting the finishing touches on his ninth FVP Knoxville Nationals victory; crossing 1.363 seconds ahead of Kerry Madsen.

“I tried as hard as possible to get it done. I got behind him in dirty air and was just was jumping around on the cushion like an idiot, but I wasn’t going to leave anything on the table,” said Madsen. “I thought it was on there. I thought I had a quicker car and I just apologize for not getting the job done but he didn’t make a mistake the last 15 laps. I was ready to pounce, but it didn’t happen.”

Holding on for third was Brad Sweet after a hard battle with the No. 29.

“I tell you what this is a huge step in the right direction for Kasey Kahne Racing and the Ollie’s Bargain Barn Outlet. The car was really good. We hit on some stuff at the Front Row Challenge and we carried some momentum into here and when the time to hit it right in the A-Main was right, we hit it. I really didn’t want to see those yellows because I really felt like we were more maneuverable than the guys in front of us, but hats off to Donny. He makes it really hard to win this race.”

Coming on strong in the second half of the feature event, Shane Stewart came from 12th to fourth with Joey Saldana completing the top-five. From 14th, Brian Brown crossed sixth with Daryn Pittman going from 15th to seventh. Having battled up front for so many laps, Danny Lasoski slipped to finish eighth with Lucas Wolfe ninth and Greg Hodnett earning hard-charger honros in tenth from the 23rd starting spot.

Wayne Johnson led the distance to win the B-Feature. Running second at the white flag, Bill Balog ended up with the win in the C-Feature as Davey Heskin ran out of fuel on the final lap. D-Feature action was topped by Josh Baughman. Jimmy Light captured the win in the E-Feature, becoming the first driver in the history of the Knoxville Nationals to win the consolation feature twice; Light also won the event in 2014.

Best appearing car for the 55th FVP Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Store, worth $500, went to Justin Henderson for the third season running. Lance Moss and Dusty Zomer completed the top three. Best appearing crew was won by Ian Madsen's team who also won $500. Wayne Johnson and Kraig Kinser's crews completed the podium.

Aaron Reutzler earned Rookie of the Year in the Roth Motorsports No. 83. The "Jesse Hockett Mr. Sprint Car" Southern Iowa Sprintweek title went to Terry McCarl.

Join us Saturday night, August 29 for Season Championship Night! All three Knoxville Championship Cup Series sprint car classes will be putting it on the line for an increased purse, including $5,000 to the 410 winner. The FVP National Sprint League will ensure a high level of competition in that class! For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Justin Henderson Doubles Up as Champions are Crowned at Knoxville!
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, August 30, 2015 – Justin Henderson put on the show Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway on Wal-Mart Season Championship Night, but there were plenty of drivers celebrating at night's end. The Sioux Falls, South Dakota driver swept both the FVP National Sprint League 410 feature and the 360 main event in impressive fashion. Devin Kline won the 305 feature. Danny Lasoski (410), Clint Garner (360), Stacey Alexander (305) and BDS Motorsports (360 owner) were the big winners, taking home Knoxville Championship Cup Series titles for 2015!

Henderson shot out from the pole in the 25-lap NSL main event ahead of Mark Dobmeier and Brian Brown. Danny Lasoski was fourth, and challenged Brown for several laps before a lap eight caution saw Tasker Phillips spin after contact with another car with eight laps in the books.

Henderson led Dobmeier, Brown, Lasoski and Austin McCarl back to green flag racing. Dobmeier briefly challenged the leader using the high side, but Henderson pulled away in the low groove and then went to work in lapped traffic. The battles got entertaining back in the pack, as Bryan Clauson duked it out with Ian Madsen and Austin McCarl.

Dusty Zomer moved into the top five in the late going, while up front, Brown shot by Dobmeier in heavy lapped traffic in the late going for second. Henderson's win was his fourth 410 victory of the season here, and was worth $5,000. Brown closed late, but checkered second, ahead of Dobmeier, Lasoski and Zomer. Ian Madsen, Clauson, Austin McCarl, Lynton Jeffrey and Bronson Maeschen rounded out the top ten.

Henderson also set quick time over the field, while Ryan Bunton, Jeffrey and Lasoski won heats. Madsen took the B main.

"I just want to talk about Knoxville Raceway and my race team," said Henderson in Victory Lane. "It's like a dream come true coming here every Saturday. I know everyone hears that from the drivers, but it's true. It's the 'Sprint Car Capital of the World' for a reason. BDS Motorsports is proud to race here every week, and I appreciate everything they do."

The 410 track championship was Lasoski's tenth, an all-time record.

Henderson also started the 360 20-lap feature on the pole. He led at the outset, but was hounded early by Dusty Zomer. Jamie Zaputil came to a stop in turn two with a lap in the books, bringing the caution flag. Henderson shot back to green, ahead of Zomer, Sawyer Phillips, Jamie Ball and Clint Garner.

Jon Agan spun while running eighth and Keoni Texeira retired shortly after the restart. Only two more laps were run before a caution for debris slowed things again. Once green again, Dobmeier set sail. Zomer was never out of it, however, but the leader shot through lappers with relative ease. On lap 16 and 17, the second and third place cars of Zomer and Ball retired, with the latter bringing out the yellow, stopping in turn four.

With just three laps remaining, Henderson shot away from Matt Moro, Clint Garner, Ryan Giles and Phillips. Giles would pass Garner for third with two to go, trailing Henderson and Moro, who had been smoking the last half of the race. Garner was fourth, and Phillips, hard-charger Nate Van Haften, Agan, Tony Shilling, Randy Martin and Bill Balog rounded out the top ten.

Henderson also set quick time in the 360's, while Agan, Zomer and Joe Beaver won heat races.

"Starting position had a lot to do with it tonight," said Henderson in Victory Lane. "The track is really fast. It's still fun. It's really tricky when you get to lapped traffic, because the track is fast. It's something I have to watch for and mind. I'm just proud of this team. I'm really happy for the owners of BDS Motorsports, Bryan and Dave (Sunby) and Zeus (for winning the owner's championship). They not only own this team, but manage this team and everything that goes along with it from the motors to the cars to the day to day activity."

Clint Garner, like Lasoski, set a record with his sixth 360 track championship.

The 305 main event was a race of attrition and hard crashes. Don Dawson III was the first to tumble before a lap could be completed. On the next try at green, Joe Simbro destroyed his machine between turns one and two. Both were uninjured.

McKenna Haase used the high side to cruise by Christian Bowman and Devin Kline to lead early. Stacey Alexander, who came into the feature needing a top ten finish to win the 305 track championship, got sideways while running sixth, but managed to save it. Three cars were not so lucky on lap four. Mike Johnston, Shawn Deman and Kevin Hiemstra were involved in a turn four tangle.

Haase led Kline, Bowman, Trevor Smith and Jeff Wilke back to green flag racing. Smith shot into third before Cody Ambers came to a stop with seven laps in the books. The race went green for six laps when Kline caught Haase in traffic. When the leader went high in three and four, Kline shot under her low to take the point on lap 13. On the next go-around, Haase was working on the high side around lapped traffic, when she too got into the wall, and flipped violently. Though she was communicating with the safety team, she was taken in for observation.

Kline held on to win ahead of Smith, who took second on the white flag lap. Bowman, Alexander and Chris Walraven finished the top five. Wilke, Matthew Stelzer, Brad Comegys, Mitchell Alexander and Chase Wanner completed the top ten. Stacey Alexander's fourth place finish secured his first ever track championship. Walraven set quick time and won the B main, while Wanner, Comegys and Simbro won the heat races.

"I hope that was as fun for the fans as it was me," said Kline. "It was an absolute blast. The track came in as we got into the race, and my car got better. On the restarts, the car takes off like a bullet."

Tyler Sutter Claims 30th Annual Fall Enduro at Knoxville! by Bob Wilson

Tyler Sutter of Pleasantville took the 30th annual Fall Enduro at Knoxville Raceway Sunday night. Sutter completed 200 laps in 1 hour and 54 minutes and was paid $1,000 for his efforts. He inherited the lead when race-long leader Ryan Humphrey stalled on the track during a red flag period just prior to the 150 lap mark. Darin Van Dee of Deep River finished second to earn $700. Troy DeJong of Bussey duplicated his third place finish of one year ago and was paid $500.

Perhaps an event record of 15 red flag periods were encountered along the way for various reasons such as debris on the track as well for removal of stalled cars which were in dangerous positions.

Jonathan Davenport Wins a Wild One to Open Late Model Nationals! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, September 24, 2015 – 2015 has been a dream season for “Superman” Jonathan Davenport. On night one of the 12th Annual Lucas Oil Late Model Nationals presented by Casey’s General Stores his dream was almost ruined by the “Newport Nightmare” Jimmy Owens! In the end, it was Davenport in victory lane for the 20th time this season. It was worth $7,000 and was his second at the historic Knoxville Raceway.

Davenport shot out to the early lead in the 25-lapper from his starting spot outside row one with Chris Brown and Ricky Weiss in tow. Owens shot from his sixth starting spot to claim third by lap two. Owens would grab second from Brown on lap five.

Jimmy Mars came to a stop six laps in to bring out the only caution of the event. Davenport led Owens, Brown, Weiss and Don O’Neal back to green flag racing. O’Neal put a wicked slider on Weiss to grab fourth on the restart, while Davenport put distance between himself and Owens.

With ten laps to go, Owens began to reel in the leader, who was in heavy traffic. O’Neal snuck by Brown for third on lap 16. Davenport hesitated in traffic on lap 20, and Owens pounced on the opportunity. The two battled for the next four laps. Coming through turns three and four coming to the white flag, Davenport found the high side back to the lead as he and Owens battled in lapped traffic.

Davenport would hold on for the win ahead of Owens, O’Neal, Earl Pearson Jr. and Brown. Dennis Erb Jr., hard-charger Scott Bloomquist, Chad Simpson, Chris Simpson and Jared Landers rounded out the top ten. Jason Papich and Jared Landers set quick time in their respective groups. Pearson, Joel Callahan, Erb, Owens,

Brown and Josh Richards won heat races. Denny Eckrich won the D main, Mike Marljar took the C main and Darrel Lanigan claimed the B main.

“I wasn’t even sure we were that close to the end,” said Davenport of the closing stages. “This place is tough passing lapped cars. It’s aero dependent and I got pushed a couple times and got in the wrong lane. I had to get the elbows up when Jimmy got by me. We just have to do our job one race at a time. We do our job and try to get it done.”

Join us Friday night, September 25, as the 12th Annual Lucas Oil Late Model Nationals presented by Casey’s General Stores continues at the Knoxville Raceway! For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Chad Simpson Brings Knoxville to its Feet Friday at Late Model Nationals! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, September 25, 2015 – Chad Simpson scored one for the “Hawkeye State” Friday night on Night #2 of the 12th Annual Lucas Oil Late Model Nationals presented by Casey’s General Stores. The Mount Vernon, Iowa native passed race-long leader, Mike Marlar with two laps to go to score a huge win and put himself on the pole for Saturday night’s $40,000 to win 100-lap finale at Knoxville Raceway!

Marlar shot out to the early lead in the 25-lap feature, ahead of Scott Bloomquist and Tim McCreadie. Kent Robinson moved into the top three by the third circuit, when Earl Pearson Jr. came to a stop to bring out the only caution of the event.

Simpson shot from fifth to fourth on the restart and passed Robinson to move into the top three on lap six. He reeled in Bloomquist, but when he made a move on the high side in turns three and four on lap eleven, but Bloomquist ran across turn four, and slowed Simpson’s momentum.

Seven laps later, Simpson made good on his run on the cushion and captured the runner-up spot. All eyes were on the lead trio in traffic. Marlar became mired in traffic. On lap 23, Simpson shot around the high side of three and four to take the lead. The pair made contact at the flag stand. Simpson stumbled and Marlar was back in the lead momentarily.

Simpson hit the top of turn two perfectly and reclaimed the lead and his first career feature win at Knoxville Raceway. Marlar, Bloomquist, Jimmy Owens and Robinson followed. Jared Landers, Don O’Neal, Tim McCreadie, Darrell Lanigan and Shannon Babb rounded out the top ten. Owens and Lanigan set quick time in their respective groups, while Bloomquist, Brandon Sheppard, Pearson, Jimmy Mars, O’Neal and Simpson claimed heat races. Jason Papich won the C main and Jason Feger claimed the B main.

“I’ll tell you what,” said Simpson in Victory Lane. “I’ve had a lot of big wins, a lot of championships, but this is something else right here! Those guys weren’t gaining any ground. I was sticking with them, sticking with them. I was driving the wheels off that thing. I was gaining ground on Scott. We got beside him and he squeezed me into the fence a little bit. Once I got my momentum up again, I was able to get by Scott and Marlar was struggling in lapped traffic. I had a run on the top and I knew I had to take it.”

“He was better than me,” said Marlar of Simpson. “The only reason I got back around him was I touched his quarter panel. He got loose, and I hate to have done that. Congratulations to Chad. I know he had a lot of fans and sponsors here. It’s cool to see a guy win like that.”

“It was a good run,” said Bloomquist. “We elected not to run the cushion too hard. We’re working on our setup for the feature (Saturday night). The race is going to be won in the middle of the track tomorrow. The car feels good. We might do a few adjustments, but I think we’ll be ready for tomorrow.”

Join us Saturday night, September 26, as the 12th Annual Lucas Oil Late Model Nationals presented by Casey’s General Stores reaches its finale at the Knoxville Raceway! For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Jared Landers Thrills in First Knoxville Late Model Nationals Win! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, September 26, 2015 – Persistence paid off for Batesville, Arkansas’s Jared Landers Saturday night at the 12th Annual Lucas Oil Late Model Nationals presented by Casey’s General Stores. Landers drove a steady race, snatched the lead with eight circuits to go and captured one of the crown jewels in late model racing. He was paid $40,000 for a win that was his first ever at the Knoxville Raceway.

Friday prelim winner, Chad Simpson, shot out from the pole to lead early over Jimmy Owens and Scott Bloomquist in the 100-lapper. By lap three, Thursday’s winner, Jonathan Davenport was into the top three, and “Superman” took the point on lap five. Don O’Neal had early speed as well and moved into second by lap seven, but suffered a blown tire on lap 31.

Davenport cruised the first 43 laps, but went up in smoke on lap 44, handing the lead to Owens. Just after the halfway point, Landers moved by Bloomquist for second, while Josh Richards cracked the top five after starting nineteenth. On lap 65, Richards used the cushion to shoot around Landers for second. Landers fell back as far as fourth, but battled by Simpson for third on lap 76.

Meanwhile, up front, Richards drove by a strong running Owens on lap 79 for the lead. Landers also found his way by Owens for second on lap 88. With ten laps to go, you could throw a blanket over Richards and Landers in a battle out front. Landers made his winning move on lap 92, and held off Richards to win by one car length.

Owens completed the podium behind Landers and Richards, followed by Mike Marlar and Darrell Lanigan. Chad Simpson, Chris Simpson, Brandon Sheppard, hard-charger Frank Heckenast Jr. and Steve Francis completed the top ten.

Chris Spieker led from green to checker to win the C main. Jimmy Mars at one time was in the sixth and final transfer in the B main and came back to take that victory.

“On lap five, my seatbelts come undone,” said Landers in Victory Lane. “I was scared to death. I’d never had that happen. I was falling out of my seat and just slowing down. Luckily, we had a caution. The cushion in one and two, when I hit it right, was awesome! We couldn’t run it much, because we had some temperature issues. I thought I’d try it with 15 laps to go. I gave it all I got, and it worked out. This facility is great. This is one of my favorite race tracks! The crowd here is great, and they put such a great race on for us.”

“I guess I was protecting a little too much there at the end,” said Richards. “I just can’t thank the fans here enough. This is one awesome racetrack! I think we’ve been second fourth now. We just couldn’t pull it off.”

“We had a decent car,” said Owens. I couldn’t run the cushion as well as those guys could. We had a good car, we just came up a little short. The track was good. We were just a little tighter than we needed to be. It’s good to bring this car home with a third place finish.”
