Aaron Reutzel Fifth Driver to Sweep 410's and 360's at Knoxville!

Matthew Stelzer Back Atop Pro Sprints Career Win List

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 6, 2023) – Aaron Reutzel became the fifth different driver in Knoxville Raceway history to sweep both a 410 and 360 feature event in one evening, joining Terry McCarl (4 times), Brian Brown (3), Justin Henderson (3) and Dennis Moore Jr. in the feat. The Clute, Texas native now living in Knoxville dominated the night's action on both ends, earning $5,000 for his 410 victory and $2,000 for his 360 win aboard the Ridge & Sons Racing #8 in the Kraig Ford/Pella Motors Season Opener. Matthew Stelzer moved atop the all-time win list in the Pro Sprints series, earning the sixteenth victory of his career here.

Reutzel started the 20-lap feature from the pole and shot out to an immediate lead ahead of Kerry Madsen, Lynton Jeffrey, Chase Randall and Austin McCarl. He was quickly into lapped traffic, but a spin by Matt Juhl negated his early lead on lap seven.

Two laps later, Jeffrey slid in front of Madsen to take over the second spot, while Reutzel pulled away and was back amongst lappers on the twelfth circuit. Garet Williamson flexed his muscle a bit as action heated in the top five, by getting by McCarl and pressuring Randall.

With five to go, Scott Bogucki slid sideways, but kept rolling, blending into the field on the restart. The five lap Dash saw Jeffrey, Madsen, Randall, Williamson and McCarl chasing Reutzel. The action was intense behind the leader, with Madsen taking second late, and drivers swapping spots fourth through eighth.

In the end, Reutzel was victorious for the seventh time in a 410 here, ahead of Madsen, Jeffrey, Randall and Williamson. Hard-charger, Tasker Phillips, Davey Heskin, Austin McCarl, Justin Henderson and Kaleb Johnson rounded out the top ten. Dusty Zomer, Heskin and Williamson were heat race winners. Madsen set quick time. Gage Pulkrabek tipped over in qualifying but returned for his heat.

“It’s badass,” said Reutzel of his sweep. “Anyone that’s been watching knows we’ve had a rough start to our year. Trying to figure out the new tires has been a struggle, and (Tyler) Swank never gave up. We’re finally on to something that worked with the 360, and worked with this car. We lost a cylinder there about five laps in. I just wanted to win both to say I did it. Not too many people have done that.”

John Carney II got into the wall to start the 18-lap 360 feature. Tyler Groenendyk surged to an early lead over Terry McCarl and Reutzel. Reutzel slid in front of McCarl on the dry-slick surface in turn four to take second on lap two. Chase Randall was also on the move, claiming fourth from Garet Williamson on lap three.

On lap four, Reutzel entered low in turn one and passed Groenendyk for the lead as the pair entered lapped traffic. The same lap, Randall got by McCarl for third, and then slid by Groenendyk in turn three to take second on lap five. Williamson moved up to third by lap seven.

Josh Higday stopped in turn four on lap nine, bringing the final caution. No one had anything for Reutzel down the stretch, but some excitement came when he banged the turn four wall and flattened a tire coming to the checkers for his fifth win here in a 360. He held on over Randall, Williamson, McCarl and Garner. Jamie Ball, Kaleb Johnson, Groenendyk, Cam Martin and Ryan Giles completed the top ten. Randall set quick time over the 29-car field, while McCarl, Joe Beaver and Johnson claimed heats. Grae Anderson got upside down in his heat race, but was uninjured.

“It blew a power steering line on the white flag lap on the backstretch,” Reutzel said about his final lap. “Immediately, my shield got covered with the power steering fluid, and I couldn’t see anything. I was trying to get a tear-off entering the corner, and the steering locked up. I couldn’t see anything and drove straight in the fence. If that happened any sooner, we would have been done. The car was really good all night.”

Ryan Navratil paced the Pro Sprints field early in the 15-lap main ahead of Mike Mayberry and Joel Thorpe. Stelzer worked on Mayberry, passing him on the low side to take second five laps in. JJ Beaver had worked himself into the top five before going up in smoke on lap eight.

Navratil led Stelzer, Mayberry, Kade Higday and Chase Young back to green. Using the high side of turn two, Stelzer shot into the lead. Navratil threatened to get back up front, but Josh Jones spun over the bottom of the turn one berm to ring the final caution. The third running Mayberry also came to a stop and exited at the time.

Stelzer drove away from there, while Young moved from fourth to finish second, followed by Navratil, Matt Allen and Young. Mike Johnston, AJ Johnson, Jeff Wilke, Jones and Thorpe rounded out the top ten. Higday set quick time over the field and won a heat, along with Mayberry.

“It’s the third time I’ve heard it,” Stelzer said of moving on top of the all-time win list with 16. “I assume Devin’s (Kline) going to be in the car next week to tie me back. The gang’s back together...the gang that was here in 2019, when we went on a hot streak.

Join us next Saturday, May 13 for more action featuring all three sprint car classes in the Knoxville Championship Series! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Brian Brown Passes Wolfgang on All-time Knoxville Win List!
Aaron Reutzel Repeats with 360s; Kade Higday Dominates Pro Sprints
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 20, 2023) – Brian Brown notched another achievement Saturday on Jersey Freeze/Dennison Racing Tees Night at the Knoxville Raceway. The Grain Valley, Missouri driver drove to his 61st career win passing Doug Wolfgang on the all-time win list at the “Sprint Car Capital of the World.” The driver of the Brian Brown Racing #21 was paid $5,000 for his efforts. Aaron Reutzel repeated his 360 win here of two weeks ago, and Kade Higday dominated the Pro Sprints feature in a pair of non-stop events.

Kerry Madsen shot out to an early lead in the 20-lap 410 feature ahead of Lynton Jeffrey, Austin McCarl, Aaron Reutzel and Brown, who started in row four. Reutzel passed McCarl for the second spot on lap two, but Austin regained his momentum on the low side of three and four and passed both Reutzel and Jeffrey to move into second on lap three.

Another car on the move was Tasker Phillips, who used the low side of one and two to pass both Brown and Reutzel to go from sixth to fourth. It came up a bit short when there was contact between Phillips and Reutzel, ending the latter’s night early.

Madsen led McCarl, Jeffrey, Brown and Phillips back to green. Brown quickly took third from Jeffrey. McCarl challenged Madsen for the lead, briefly passing him on lap seven. A stumble allowed Madsen to get back by and showed him the fast low side of the track. Brown used the high side to get by McCarl, but that pass was negated when Ian Madsen stopped with a flat right rear seven laps in.

The restart was the opportunity Brown needed. He hit the high side to pass McCarl for second and then the low side of three and four to outrun Madsen to the line and the lead. A final caution flew for a stopped Gennetten at the halfway point.

While Brown increased his lead, Madsen and McCarl battled tooth and nail for the second spot. McCarl grabbed it low on lap 12, but Madsen returned to the spot with a slider the next time around. McCarl settled onto the cushion and found speed, grabbing the spot for good with two to go.

McCarl gained on Brown the last couple of laps, but fell short. Kerry Madsen held on to third, followed by Davey Heskin and Jeffrey. Sam Hafertepe Jr., Tasker Phillips, Sawyer Phillips, Buddy Kofoid and Garet Williamson rounded out the top ten. Chase Randall was the hard-charger and won the Perseverance Award in honor of the late Dakota Whitlatch. The late Arleta Voyce was also honored in opening ceremonies.

Brown set quick time after drawing the last pill in the 34-car field. Kaleb Johnson, Austin McCarl, Kofoid and Justin Henderson won heat races. Dusty Zomer claimed the B main.

“We’re just trying to get these things one by one,” said Brown of passing Wolfgang. “Those things are probably going to be very cool for me as I get older and sit on the porch. Doug Wolfgang is a hero to me. He’s one of the top two or three sprint car drivers of all time. So be able to beat him is cool. I didn’t know. Starting seventh, that lineup had every player in the first couple rows. We got a good start and Aaron (Reutzel) and I raced really hard. He got into it with Tasker and I was lucky to sneak through there. At the end, I wasn’t sure what to do. I knew Austin had been really good. Emerson (Axsom) was kind of in my line in three and four and I couldn’t get off the corner. All in all, we got the win.”

Chase Randall took the lead immediately from the second row in the 18-lap 360 main event, chased by Jamie Ball, Josh Higday, Garet Williamson and Reutzel. Reutzel gained fourth on lap two, and took third from Higday on lap three. He gained second from Ball on lap four and set his sights on Randall.

On lap seven, Reutzel used the low side of turn two to get by Randall and take the lead. The next circuit, he was in lapped traffic and on the move, cruising to his sixth career 360 win here. Randall held onto second, while Ball held off Ryan Grimes for third. Tyler Groenendyk, Williamson, Tasker Phillips, John Carney II, Clint Garner and Higday completed the top ten in the non-stop event. Williamson set quick time over the 35-car field, while Garner, Sammy Swindell, Reutzel and Sawyer Phillips won heats. Jace Park took the B.

“We’re just finally getting going,” said Reutzel of his recent success. “We have a good baseline now and it’s finally all coming together. It’s always fun to come from a little further back than the front row. Chase (Randall) was setting a good pace. I knew the bottom was going to be good, I just wasn’t able to get there on the start with (Ball) down there. Luckily, I was able to get by him and get to the bottom, and get by Chase before he saw the bottom was better. It was smooth sailing after that.”

The 15-lap Pro Sprints feature also went non-stop. Ryan Navratil took the early lead, followed by Jeff Wilke, J Kinder, Kade Higday and Chase Young.

Higday quickly asserted himself, passing Kinder for third on lap two, and sailing around Wilke for second on lap three. With Brandon Worthington also off to a good early start, the pair made a sandwich out of Navratil when both passed him on lap four to move into first and second.

Higday had a three second advantage by the halfway point, and continued to build it as he hit lappers with five to go. By the time he hit the checkers his advantage was eight seconds over the hard-charging Worthington, Matt Allen, Kinder and Young. Wilke, Casey Friedrichsen, AJ Johnson, Matthew Stelzer and Josh Jones rounded out the top ten. Young set quick time, and Higday and Worthington won the heats.

“It’s actually been since 2017,” said Higday of his sixth win here. “That’s a pretty big win for me and my little team here. We don’t have the nicest stuff. This car was actually built in 2000. That’s proof that you don’t need all new stuff to win though. We tried some different stuff from a couple weeks ago.”

Kerry Madsen Breaks Tie with Skip Jackson to Become Winningest Aussie at Knoxville!
Aaron Reutzler Caps $9,000 360 Weekend; Mike Mayberry Executes Last Lap Pass to Win Pro Sprints
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 27, 2023) – Kerry Madsen made a veteran move to capture his 26th career feature at Knoxville Raceway Saturday on Vermeer Night. The St. Mary's, New South Wales native became the winningest Aussie at Knoxville, passing two-time track champion Skip Jackson for that honor. The win was worth $5,000 and came aboard the Guy Forbrook #5. Aaron Reutzler followed up his 360 win at Jackson Motorplex on Friday night to capture the $3,000 bonus by winning Saturday's main event at Knoxville. The win paid him $3,000 and with his Jackson earnings totaled $9,000 for his 360 efforts. Mike Mayberry spoiled J Kinder's bid for a win by making a last lap pass and capturing the Pro Sprints main event.

Lynton Jeffrey led the first of 20 laps in the 410 feature, before Chase Randall, in his second week in the Beaver Drill & Tool #12x cruised by him on the high side of turn four to lead lap two. Jeffrey slid across the track in turn two, jumped the cushion and took a wild ride to halt things. He was uninjured.

Randall led Austin McCarl, Kerry Madsen, Davey Heskin and Aaron Reutzler back to green. Madsen jetted to second on the restart, while Reutzler took fourth and Brown moved into the top five. Furious action saw Reutzler get by McCarl for third and set his sights on Madsen. He passed Kerry for second on lap five.

Rubber was developing through the middle of the track and Madsen seemed to have the best grasp on it, shooting back by Reutzel for second on lap nine. Randall was cruising on the cushion, unknowing of the development of rubber through the middle of the track.

Madsen used the middle of turns three and four at the halfway point to move by Randall and take the lead from the teenager. Randall would follow him home for second, trailed by Reutzel, Brown and Tasker Phillips. Austin McCarl, Heskin, hard-charger Ian Madsen, Carson McCarl and AJ Moeller rounded out the top ten. Reutzel set quick time over the 30-car field, while Jeffrey, Sawyer Phillips and Lachlan McHugh were heat winners. Dusty Zomer claimed the B.

“I had a really good racecar to get to the front,” said Madsen in Victory Lane. “I wanted to get in there and really attach the lapped cars. I tried it once and we got up the track. We just tried to drive a smart race from there. The car was really good before the rubber came down, and we could go anywhere. Aaron drove around me in the rubber there, but my car was really good on the exits. The car’s been quick, but I hadn’t been able to put it all together for the guys. I didn’t make a mistake tonight, so that’s a bonus!”

Tyler Groenendyk had a strong lead early in the 20-lap 360 feature over Garet Williamson, Jamie Ball, Dustin Selvage and Kaleb Johnson. Johnson moved up to fourth on lap two, but Aaron Reutzel was on the move from his starting spot outside row three. He took fourth from Johnson by lap five.

Up front, Groenendyk was entering lapped traffic by the seventh circuit. A lap later, Reutzel diamonded turns three and four to dive under Ball for the third spot. He quickly took Williamson’s spot and set his sights on Groenendyk as the trio were in close quarters in traffic.

On lap eleven, Reutzel made his winning move in traffic. The next time around, he shot around the lapped car of Alex Hill. Groenendyk tried the inside and made contact with his right front, sending him careening into the infield fence in turn three. Despite the scary crash, he walked away.

Reutzel shot back out to a lead over Williamson, Ball and Johnson. Chase Randall was soon fourth, however, and picked off Ball for third with seven to go. Reutzel appeared to be cruising on the white flag lap, when Ryan Giles slowed to set up a green, white, checker finish.

Reutzel cruised to victory in the Ridge & Sons Racing #8 ahead of Williamson, Randall, Johnson and Ball. Selvage, John Carney II, Brooke Tatnell, Clint Garner and hard-charger Kelby Watt completed the top ten. Ryan Leavitt was involved in a red flag on the backstretch that saw a safety worker taken in for observation after the red flag. He had been running tenth. Ball and Johnson both set quick times in their respective groups in the 42-car field. Sammy Swindell, Garner, Tatnell and Randall won the heats. Watt and Hill won the B mains.

“I knew the bottom was going to be the place to be,” said Reutzel in Victory Lane, celebrating his seventh career 360 win here. “I ran the top to where I thought I could clean it off. We started making a little speed up there and they got to traffic and started getting their momentum broke by the lapped cars. It was just enough to get the lead. It definitely wasn’t the fastest line, but it all played out good. We have been getting good starts and passing three cars or so there, but that definitely wasn’t the case tonight. It was cool to get the (Jackson/Knoxville) bonus this year. Last year, we won the first night, we just didn’t get it done on the second night. Thanks to (Greg Parent) for putting that money up.”

J Kinder led the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature in dominating fashion for much of the way. Mike Mayberry was in pursuit. Kade Higday gained third from Matthew Stelzer early on before Josh Jones tipped over in turn four with seven laps in the books. He was o.k.

After a Matt Allen spin in turn four, Stelzer shot from fifth to third on that restart. The caution had been a penalty for Kinder, who had built a margin of several seconds.

Mayberry stayed close after the restart and went through the middle of turns one and two, gaining on the leader. He made the same move in turns three and four and shot by to win in exciting fashion. Kinder, Stelzer, Chase Young and Higday followed him to the line. Hard-charger Casey Friedrichsen, Jeff Wilke, Ryan Navratil, Mike Johnston and Allen rounded out the top ten. Young set quick time, and Wilke and AJ Johnson won the heats.

“Higday probably won that race for me,” said Mayberry afterwards. “I was running the bottom there, and he kind of went around me on the top. I got lucky that there was a caution, and he had shown me that line up there.”

Jake Swanson Makes a Last Corner Pass to Harvest $12,000 Avanti Windows and Doors Corn Belt Clash!

Brian Brown Wins #62 in 410's
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 3, 2023) – Brady Bacon had his third USAC Corn Belt Clash victory in his sights, but it was Jake Swanson who stole the show Saturday night at the Avanti Windows and Doors Corn Belt Clash featuring the AMSOIL USAC National Sprint Cars and USAC Midwest Wingless Racing Series. The win was worth $12,000 aboard the Team AZ #21AZ for the Anaheim, California driver. Brian Brown took the Knoxville Championship 410 main event and the $5,000 that came with it. It was his 62nd win at Knoxville.

CJ Leary led early in the 30-lap USAC main event, ahead of Kyle Cummins, Justin Grant, Emerson Axsom and Brady Bacon. Bacon made quick work of Axsom to move into fourth on lap two.

Up front, Cummins slid by Leary on lap three, only to have Leary get back by on the straightaway. Another dive by Cummins secured the lead at the start/finish line. Meanwhile, Bacon moved into third. Bacon used a slider in turn one to pass Leary for second on lap six, and then utilized a slider in turn three to take the lead from Cummins on lap nine.

Bacon entered lapped traffic on the sixteenth lap while pulling away. Five laps later, Logan Calderwood brought out the only caution of the event, when he stopped in turn four with nine laps to go. Bacon led Cummins, Leary, Justin Grant and Jake Swanson back to green.

Grant and Leary battled for third, with Grant ending up over the turn two cushion and buffeted backwards. With six to go, it was evident rubber was developing on the track and Swanson took to it, passing Leary for third. Two laps later, he slid by Cummins for second.

Swanson slowly reeled in Bacon, and pulled to his bumper at the white flag lap. He pulled off a slide job in turn four on the final lap and made it stick to gain the big payday. Bacon finished second, and Mitchel Moles charged late into third. Leary, Axsom, Matt Westfall, hard-charger Chase Johnson, Justin Zimmerman, Daison Pursley and Riley Kreisel rounded out the top ten. Swanson set quick time over the 32-car field, while Moles, Carson Garrett, Leary and Wesley Smith won heats. JJ Yeley claimed his first USAC B main since 2003. Pursley took a wild ride in his heat race, but brought out a back-up car for the B. Isaac Chapple took a hard hit in turn four and was done for the night. Neither was injured.

In addition to the increased purse, Avanti Windows and Doors added $2,000 for hard-charger Chase Johnson, $500 for everyone finishing fourth in a heat, and $416 to each transfer from the B main.

“To be honest with you, I knew the rubber was coming, but I didn’t think I was going to have a shot at winning the thing,” said Swanson in Victory Lane. “The rubber came really hard and really fast. I was just so tight, and into it. I had to be ginger with it. I smashed it a couple times down there and the thing biked up. The turn of events took place, and it was amazing. I couldn’t believe we were so good in the rubber. I’m so pumped to get Team Arizona in Victory circle at Knoxville.”

“We had a good car for the dirt part of the race, but we definitely weren’t ready for the pavement portion,” said a disappointed Bacon, who now leads the points with the series. “We knew we were going to be on the cushion and were the best at that. Unfortunately, my tire didn’t hang on, and actually fell apart with a couple to go.”

“I knew it was going to rubber early,” said Moles. “You could smell it on the front straightaway. I could feel it on the left rear. I just stuck the right rear up in the clay and we did what we could. I knew it was going to a rubber race at the end, so I wanted to have as much tire and do what Jake and I were doing there at the end, just kind of bombing through it and using every last bit of tire.”

Justin Henderson shot out to a lead from his pole position in the 20-lap 410 feature ahead of Brian Brown, Kerry Madsen, Austin McCarl and Matt Juhl. Madsen used the low side of turn four to take second from Brown on lap two, but Brown found the high side of turn two to his liking and gained the spot back.

Brady Bacon lost a driveline to bring the only caution of the race four laps in. Henderson led Brown, Madsen, McCarl and Juhl back to green. Aaron Reutzler entered the top five on lap six.

Brown was in hot pursuit of Henderson in the middle stages, and when Henderson tried the high side of three and four when approaching traffic on lap 12, Brown pounced to take the lead. He entered traffic on lap thirteen.

Madsen used the low side of turn four to gain second on lap 14, and McCarl followed him by Henderson into third by using the high side of the track. The cushion was the preferred line for McCarl to pass Madsen for second with three to go.

Brown's victory came ahead of Austin McCarl, Kerry Madsen, Henderson and Juhl. Reutzel, Davey Heskin, Kaleb Johnson, Ayrton Gennetten and Ian Madsen completed the top ten. McCarl set quick time over the 30-car field, while Johnson, Reutzel and Brandon Wimmer won heats. Dustin Selvae won the B.

"My hat's off to the Dunkin's for going out a reworking that track for you fans," said Brown in Victory Lane. "The key moment in that race I feel was when I got back by Kerry. He got by me and I snuck back by. I ran that top until I thought I might start losing. I moved down, and he missed it, and I didn't get him. Two laps later, he moved up and I got him."

Brian Brown Thumps World of Outlaws at Knoxville!
Chase Young Wins Pro Sprints Feature
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 9, 2023) – Brian Brown won one for the Knoxville regulars Friday night on Premier Chevy Dealers Night featuring the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws. The win was Brown’s 63rd career victory at Knoxville, was worth $10,000 and came aboard the Brian Brown Racing #21. Chase Young won his second career feature here in the Pro Sprints Class.

Austin McCarl earned the pole and led the 25-lap WoO main event early ahead of Brown, James McFadden, Rico Abreu and Brad Sweet. While McCarl found the low groove to his liking, Brown hit the high side and rocketed into the lead on the high side of turn two on the second circuit.

Brown pulled away from McCarl before entering lapped traffic on lap ten. Sweet used the low groove to pass Abreu for fourth at the halfway point. With ten to go, Brown had built nearly a three second lead on McCarl, while the race for second, third and fourth heated up.

Sweet cruised by McFadden on lap 16, and then drove under McCarl into second with six to go. Abreu’s car was also working well late, and he took fourth from McFadden with five to go, and shot around McCarl for third with two laps remaining.

Up front, Brown had no peer to the checkers. Abreu shot by Sweet for second in the last corner, and McCarl and Carson Macedo completed the top five. McFadden, Gio Scelzi, Logan Schuchart, hard-charger Donny Schatz and David Gravel rounded out the top ten. Macedo and Abreu set quick time over their respective groups and won their heat races. Gravel and Brown were also heat winners. Chase Randall took the C main, McCarl won the Dash and Aaron Reutzel claimed the B main.

“I ran as hard the last lap as I did the first lap,” said Brown of his victory. “I kept watching the board seeing the 49 was in second. We’re clicking on all cylinders right now. I was so proud to see Austin on the pole and us starting third. To have a rivalry (with the WoO) you need to beat these guys. I feel like we don’t do it enough. I’ve been known to run the top probably more than I should. I think I’ve run the bottom just as well as I ever have in the past. I felt like when I went down there it was pretty good. I knew Brad runs the bottom as well as anybody in the world, so if anything else I could mess up his timing. And Rico...you never know. He’s having a phenomenal year. I’m proud of this team. Come back tomorrow and see if we can do it again.”

“The last ten laps I could hit my marks a whole lot better,” said Abreu. “Outlaw races are tough to come by to get wins. We’re right there in the hunt, so if we can consistently do this...this is the greatest time I’ve had driving sprint cars. Once I got some clean air on my nose, I could get through the corners a lot faster. I got by McCarl and it opened the top up to me to run down Sweet. I just rifled through there and turned down the hill in four to barely sneak by (Sweet at the finish).

“I felt really good in the middle part of the race,” said Sweet. “I kept looking up because I thought I was making good time and good laps. I could see Brian was pretty far ahead. I just kind of got caught up in lapped cars at the end. I had a really good rhythm and had the lines working. I felt when I had to move off that, I wasn’t as good as I needed to be in the lapped cars. I think we made progress all night long, and there were parts in the A main where I felt I was as good as anyone.”

Chase Young led from the pole from the outset in the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature ahead of Matt Allen and J Kinder. Matthew Stelzer, who was slated for the front row outside, had trouble making the call, and slowed one lap in, and retired.

On the restart, Kade Higday shot from fourth to second in an attempt to run down Young. Young approached the lapper of William Kline on lap nine and slowed. Higday gained on him and the pair split Kline with Young keeping his lead on the low side, and Higday challenging up top. Kline would slow with two laps to go, setting up a green, white, checker finish.

Young pulled away for his second career win here, ahead of Higday, Mike Mayberry, hard-charger Ryan Navritil and Allen. Kinder, AJ Johnson, Brandon Worthington, Toby Mosher and Mike Johnston completed the top ten. Allen set quick time and won his heat. Josh Jones won the other heat.

“We were able to stick the bottom,” said Young of his winning run. “That’s pretty much it with our class unless you have to pass. Hit your marks. It was pretty slick in one and two, but I could just hammer three and four. It was a rough night for us a little bit, but we were out in clean air. We’ve been knocking at the door. We’ve been really fast all year. I’m just happy to finally get ‘er done!”

Join us Saturday night for the Premier Chevy Dealers World of Outlaws finale! The Knoxville 360 class will also be in action! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

David Gravel Tops World of Outlaws Finale at Knoxville!
Garet Williamson Adds His First 360 Win to WoO Podium Finish
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 10, 2023) – David Gravel capped off the Premier Chevy Dealers NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws weekend with his eleventh career Knoxville feature win Saturday at Knoxville. The Watertown, Connecticut native earned $10,000 for his victory. Knoxville regular Garet Williamson had a great night as well, earning a podium finish with the World of Outlaws and winning his first career main event at Knoxville in the 360 class.

Gravel led from the start in the 25-lap WoO feature ahead of Friday night winner, Brian Brown, Williamson, Carson Macedo and Spencer Bayston. Macedo had the low side working, passing Williamson for third on lap two, and flying by Brown on lap eight for second. Gravel entered lapped traffic by lap nine.

Macedo looked to be tracking down Gravel when something broke in the Jason Johnson Racing #41, sending him careening into the fence. The scary incident saw a large fire extinguished by the Knoxville safety crew. Macedo was helped to the ambulance and at last report was at the Knoxville Hospital for observation.

Gravel chose the inside line on the restart and dominated the final 12 laps. Brown finished second, ahead of Williamson, Cory Eliason, who drove from sixth to fourth on the restart, and James McFadden. Brad Sweet, Gio Scelzi, Anthony Macri, Bayston and hard-charger, Logan Schuchart, who used a WoO provisional to start the event, rounded out the top ten.

McFadden and Gravel set quick time in their respective groups and won heats. Macedo and Brown also won heats. Dusty Zomer won the C main, Gravel took the Dash and Kerry Madsen claimed the B main.

“It’s pretty funny when we run tenth (on Friday) how everybody thinks that we suck,” said Gravel in Victory Lane. “I knew as a driver we made a couple mistakes last night and the car wasn’t the best either. I figured if we both cleaned it up, we’d be just fine. Hopefully, Carson Macedo is o.k. He’s a friend of mine. Even though we get into some tussles on the racetrack, he’s still my friend.”

“We’re just worried about Carson,” said Brown, who won Friday and came home second Saturday. “It doesn’t really matter where we finished. We’re so very lucky to be at Knoxville with the best fire safety crew in the entire world. It could have been much worse. Carson is a fellow competitor and you want to beat him every chance you get, but that’s just a helpless situation.”

“Honestly, on Friday, we sucked,” said Williamson, who finished a career best third with the WoO. “We went back to the drawing board and where we were at the beginning of the year. I love Knoxville, I love the atmosphere. We have great fans here, and to run third to the best right now is pretty surreal.”

Williamson’s work wasn’t done, and he carried his momentum into the 18-lap 360 feature, leading from start to finish after starting outside row one. Josh Higday ran second in the early stages, followed by Aaron Reutzler, Ryan Giles and Chase Randall. Randall moved by Giles for fourth three laps in, before Kelby Watt took a wild ride in turn four. He was uninjured.

Williamson led the field back to green. Reutzler picked off Higday for second on lap six, but could never reel in Williamson who hit lapped traffic on lap ten. Randall would challenge for second, but settle for third, ahead of hard-charger Clint Garner and Jamie Ball. Higday, Terry McCarl, Jake Bubak, Alex Hill and Cam Martin completed the top ten. Sawyer Phillips and Giles crashed hard on the frontstretch after the checkers were thrown. Both were o.k.

Phillips set quick time over the 34-car field, while Randall, Williamson, Cam Martin and Alex Vande Voort won heats. Tyler Groenendyk won the B main. Joe Beaver also crashed hard in his heat race. He also walked away.

“This is everything,” said Williamson of his first Knoxville win. “I came here when I was 16 for my first Nationals, and watched Jason Johnson win this thing. I saw how much it meant to him, and I told myself I’d come stand in this Victory Lane, no matter what it took. This place is so special. This moment will always stick with me. We’ve been wanting to get this so bad. It means a lot for us.”

Join us next Saturday, June 17 for Slideways Night! The 410 class will be competing for a $10,000 top prize as part of the “Border Battle” Series with Jackson Motorplex in Minnesota (Friday) and Huset’s Speedway in South Dakota (Sunday). The Pro Sprints and 360’s will also be in action! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Davey Heskin Tops Exciting $10,000 Border Battle!

Chase Randall and AJ Johnson Win Their First Knoxville Main Events in 360's, Pros

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 10, 2023) – Davey Heskin won his first feature event at Knoxville Raceway in ten years. The St. Michael, Minnesota driver made his victory count, as he was awarded the $10,000 first prize on Slideways Border Battle Night at Knoxville. Heskin's last win here came in May of 2013. Chase Randall won a hair-raising 360 main event. It was the Waco, Texas driver's first at the "Sprint Car Capital of the World" and was worth $2,000. AJ Johnson also won his first career feature. The Oskaloosa, Iowa pilot was victorious in the Pro Sprints feature.

Aaron Reutzler shot out to the early lead in the 25-lap main event for the 410's. Heskin and Chase Randall tussled for the second spot, before Heskin secured it. Reutzler was into lapped traffic on lap eight, as the top five spread out a bit. Brian Brown was fourth early, followed by Lachlan McHugh. McHugh challenged briefly for the spot before succumbing to Kerry Madsen, who took a top five spot.

Up front, Heskin was slowly reeling in Reutzler, using the bottom groove of the track and getting traction exiting both turns two and four. On the fourteenth lap, Heskin caught the low side of two just right and jetted into the lead.

The non-stop affair saw Heskin gain the popular victory ahead of Reutzler, Randall, Brown and Madsen. Austin McCarl, McHugh, Lynton Jeffrey, Sawyer Phillips and Justin Henderson rounded out the top ten. Brown set quick time over the 32-car field, while Sawyer Phillips, Tasker Phillips, Madsen and Heskin were heat winners. Kaleb Johnson won the B main.

"That's just pretty cool," said Heskin in Victory Lane. "You know we won the championship here a couple years ago without winning one, and it kind of hit home. I wanted to win one. That was fun! I knew it was 25 laps and I kept waiting and hitting my marks. I'm just so happy! I was a little jacked up, I was screaming in the car."

Ryan Giles used his row one starting spot to lead the 18-lap 360 feature early, ahead of Gareth Williamson, Terry McCarl, Jamie Ball and Chase Randall. McCarl and Williamson had a good battle for second, before Williamson took the spot prior to John Carney II bringing out a caution after spinning six laps in.

Williamson used the restart to shoot by Giles, but Giles would nail the bottom of turn four to lead lap eight. Williamson hit the cushion again and passed a low riding Giles again on lap nine in a wild tussle for the lead. Meanwhile, Randall had improved to third and was reeling in the leaders.

Randall rode around Giles for second with seven to go, and two laps later took a shot at Williamson that didn't take. Williamson headed into traffic on lap 14, with Randall close behind. On lap 17, Randall performed a tight slider to barely clear Williamson, and went on to gain his first every win at Knoxville. Williamson, Giles, Davey Heskin and Ball followed. McCarl, hard-charger Clint Garner, Sammy Swindell, Kelby Watt and Jack Anderson completed the top ten. Ball set quick time over the 37-car field, and Heskin, Dustin Selvage, Swindell and Randall won heats. Josh Higday claimed the B.

"I wanted that one so much," said Randall of his exciting win. "I've finished second here so many times. Second this year in the 410 and in the 360 several times. I just wanted it all year just trying to get better, watch videos and see what I can do. I think we've struck on something. Knoxville Raceway put on a great race. I just love racing sprint cars anywhere I can get. I'm really thankful for all the rides I've been given this year, and all the laps kind of lead up to this. It's been a heck of a year and I can't wait to see how it ends."

AJ Johnson left little doubt that he was the one to beat from the outset of the Pro Sprints feature. He got out and left the field behind from the outset. His celebration would have to wait as the race that was scheduled for 15 laps became a 16-lap event when William Kline stopped after the leader took the white flag.

Johnson pulled away on the green, white, checker finish to win over Brandon Worthington. The restart was advantageous for Kade Higday, who rocketed from seventh to third the last two laps. Ryan Navratil would cross fourth, but be disqualified for a tire violation afterwards. Josh Jones inherited fourth over Matt Allen. Chase Young, Matthew Stelzer, Jeff Wilke, Mike Johnston and Mike Mayberry rounded out the top ten. Young set quick time, and Jones and Worthington won the heats.

“Last week you heard Chase say it, but just don’t miss your marks down on the bottom,” said Johnson in Victory Lane. “What an awesome little team here. I don’t know the last time a rookie won, but we had high hopes coming in here. We did it!”

Join us Saturday, July 1 for Mid-Season Championship Night and the Nolan Wren Memorial Presented by Higher View Enterprises! All three sprint car classes will be in action and Veterans and active Military will receive FREE admission! Fireworks will also be a part of the evening’s festivities. ## Brian Brown Takes $6,000 with Knoxville Mid-Season Championship! Chase Randall Takes Second 360 Win in a Row for $3,750; Mike Mayberry Claims $1200 with Pro Sprints Win by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 9, 2023) – Brian Brown roared from his starting spot in row four to win his 64th career feature Saturday night on Farm Bureau Financial Services Night at the Knoxville Raceway. The Grain Valley, Missouri driver hauled home $6,000 which included a $1,000 bonus as the highest finishing driver qualifying for the points race at Knoxville. Waco, Texas's Chase Randall earned $3,000 plus a $750 bonus for his second consecutive win in the 360 class. Mike Mayberry took home a total of $1200 for his win in the Pro Sprints class.

Lynton Jeffrey took the early lead in the 25-lap 410 feature, ahead of Sawyer Phillips and Cory Eliason. Brown entered the top three by the third lap, and claimed second from Phillips on lap four. Davey Heskin took fourth on lap six.

Brown used the low side of turn four to take the lead from Jeffrey on lap eight. Heskin worked by Phillips for third on lap nine. Austin McCarl surged late, taking fourth from Eliason on lap 15, and claiming third from Heskin with nine to go. Blake Hahn suffered a flat tire with five to go, bringing the first caution of the race.

Brown led Jeffrey, McCarl, Heskin and Eliason back to green. Heskin and McCarl battled back and forth for third. McCarl took the spot with three to go, and passed Jeffrey for second on lap 23, but that pass was negated when Dustin Selvage came to a stop in turn four.

The green, white, checker finish saw Brown shoot out to the win, and Heskin roar from fourth to second, followed by Jeffrey, McCarl and Aaron Reutzel. Eliason, Sam Hafertepe Jr., Justin Henderson, Buddy Kofoid and Ian Madsen rounded out the top ten. Brown set quick time, while Lachlan McHugh, Hahn, Sawyer Phillips and Tasker Phillips won heats. Feature hard-charger Chase Randall claimed the B main. Cody Maroske looked to have something break on his car when he went into a series of wild flips down the frontstretch. He was uninjured.

“Chad (Morgan) made some good decisions before the main,” said Brown in Victory Lane. “It was just a phenomenal car. It was maybe better than the car we had at the Outlaw show. The team is working well together.”

Sammy Swindell led from the pole early in the 20-lap 360 main event ahead of Davey Heskin and Jamie Ball. Chase Randall passed Clint Garner on the low side of the track to gain fourth on lap three.

An outstanding battle for the lead took shape, with Heskin passing Swindell on lap four, Sammy returning the favor on lap five, and Heskin reclaiming the point on lap six. Ball followed him into second before the pair hit lapped traffic on the eight circuit. At that point, the fifth running Garner and sixth running Garet Williamson contacted and flipped in turn three. Both walked away.

Heskin led Ball, Swindell, Randall and Sawyer Phillips back to green, Randall was stuck to the bottom and got by Swindell for the third spot. Two laps later, he used the high side of turn two to take second from Ball. He used the next seven laps to close the gap on Heskin, making his winning move on the low side of turn four with two laps to go.

Chasing Randall to the line were Heskin, who finished second in both his features, Ball, Swindell and Riley Goodno. Ryan Leavitt, Scott Bogucki, Sawyer Phillips, Kelby Watt and Tasker Phillips completed the top ten. 46 cars were split into two groups of qualifying, with Sawyer Phillips and Tyler Groenendyk setting quick time in their respective groups. Josh Higday, Chris Martin, Tasker Phillips and Leavitt won the heats. Ben Brown and Jack Anderson won the B mains.

“I was doing a lot of searching there towards the middle of the race,” said Randall in Victory Lane. “(Heskin) got really far out, and I had to do whatever I could to make that ground up. I took the wing back a little more and tried to run the bottom as hard as I could. My Dad did a great job setting up the car. To come from seventh with as many good cars as we had was unbelievable.”

Josh Jones took the lead from the second row and pulled away early in the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature. Matthew Stelzer and Mike Mayberry followed until Mayberry took the runner-up spot on lap six. Matt Allen and Stelzer battled for third.

Jones car began to slow around the halfway point, and Mayberry rapidly gained on him, passing him on lap ten. Allen followed into second before Jones came to a stop with four to go. The restart saw Mayberry leading Allen, Chase Young, a surging Kade Higday and Stelzer.

While Mayberry stayed up front to the checkers for his seventh win with the Pros, Young took second, and Higday claimed third with two to go. Allen and Brandon Worthington followed. Toby Mosher, hard-charger Casey Friedrichsen, Stelzer, AJ Johnson and Ryan Navritil completed the top ten. Allen set quick time before getting upside down in his heat. He would return for the feature.. Jones and Worthington won the heats.

“We tried to give it away on the start I guess,” said Mayberry. “We’ve struggled off and on, and it’s nice to get back here in Victory Lane.”

Austin McCarl Nabs $5,000 in Late Race Pass on Exciting Night at Knoxville!
Chase Randall Takes $5,000 360 Shootout On Last Lap
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 15, 2023) – Austin McCarl was patient in taking a late race lead to win the $5,000 and a half beef Van Wall Night feature during the Marion County Fair Saturday at Knoxville. The Altoona, Iowa native's win was his seventh 410 victory here, and his first of the year aboard the Offil family Country Builders Construction #88. Chase Randall threw a slider at Garett Williamson on the last lap to take the 360 Shootout worth $5,000 and a half hog. The Waco, Texas driver's win was his third in a row here, on a night that saw plenty of bonuses from the Knoxville 360 Boosters.

Tasker Phillips led the 20-lap 410 main event early over Terry McCarl, Lynton Jeffrey, Jake Bubak and Austin McCarl. Terry McCarl and Phillips tussled for the lead, exchanging the spot three times before Terry took it for good on lap six. He entered lapped traffic on lap seven as Bubak found his way around Phillips and into second. Meanwhile, Davey Heskin moved into the top four.

Bubak tracked down the leader and passed McCarl in turn three in traffic on lap eleven. Heskin followed him into second. Bubak looked strong up front before losing a driveline with six to go and pulling off. Heskin assumed the lead at that point ahead of Terry and Austin McCarl, who grabbed third on lap 15.

Chase Randall passed Phillips for fourth on lap 17, before the latter stopped with a flat left rear on lap 19, setting up a green, white, checker finish. Heskin led Terry McCarl, Austin McCarl, Randall and Lynton Jeffrey. Ayrton Gennetten also suffered a flat under the caution. He would have restarted seventh.

Austin McCarl shot around his father for second on the restart, while Randall moved into third. Heskin took off from the field and took the white flag, but before a lap could be completed, Gennetten came to a stop again.

It was the chance that Austin needed, as he moved around Heskin to gain the victory. Randall finished third, ahead of Terry McCarl and Justin Henderson. Jeffrey, Riley Goodno, Roger Crockett, Tasker Phillips and Sawyer Phillips rounded out the top ten. Jeffrey set quick time, and Gennetten, Tasker Phillips and Henderson won the heats.

“Normally, I hate yellows and they come out for me when I pass somebody,” said Austin in Victory Lane. “About halfway through the race I was trying to pass a guy who was running the middle and Davey smoked me, and some other guys. I had no idea where I was running. I was running down my Dad and I knew he started on the front row. I thought I had to be close. When the yellow came out, I was running third and I was thankful for the yellow. I needed that one. This feels really good. We’ve been working and working on this thing, just trying to look like that 21 (Brian Brown) car. Tonight the car was really nice.”

Garet Williamson shot by the front row to lead early in the 25-lap 360 Shootout ahead of Tony Rost by .018 second, Davey Heskin, Dusitn Selvage and Chase Randall. Kaleb Johnson spun but kept it going. After a caution he blended back into the field. Selvage took third from Heskin on the restart, and Randall moved into fourth.

On lap three, Randall gained second from Rost with a slider, and Selvage followed him into third on lap four. Heskin moved up to fourth on lap five before the leaders hit lapped traffic on the eighth circuit. Heskin moved by Selvage for third on lap nine. Williamson set a torrid pace in traffic, but with four laps to go, Randall, started reeling him in.

In the final corners on the last lap, Randall slid at Williamson, causing the leader to get above the cushion. Randall would cross first, while Williamson held on for second. Heskin was third, ahead of Selvage and Scott Bogucki. Austin McCarl, Rost, Jamie Ball, Ryan Giles and Clint Garner completed the top ten. The 54-car field saw Bogucki and Groenendyk set quick time in their respective groups. Selvage, Dusty Zomer, Gunner Ramey, Kade Higday, Jacob Hughes and Chris Martin won heats. Collin Moyle claimed the C main and Tasker Phillips took the B. The 360 Booster Club paid out several bonuses in addition to the feature paying $5,000 to the winner and $1,000 to start.

“I wanted to get to the lead early, but Garet did a phenomenal job kind of controlling the race,” said Randall in Victory Lane. “Being up front was the key with how the track was. I was making so many bad decisions in lapped traffic. I couldn’t find a good place for me. I found the bottom in one and two on one lap, and it worked for me. Garet kind of got crossed up behind guys like I did, and I kind of ran him down. I got just close enough to make a move. This is 90% mental. Once you get your first one, you know hard work can pay off.”

Brian Brown Wires the Field at Knoxville for Win #65!
Aaron Reutzler Scores 360 Win; Kade Higday Tops Pro Sprints
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 22, 2023) – Brian Brown emerged victorious on 3M Night at Knoxville Raceway Saturday. The Grain Valley, Missouri driver's win was his fifth of the year at Knoxville, as his momentum is carrying towards some important August events at the "Sprint Car Capital of the World." The win was the 65th in his career at Knoxville (second all-time) and was worth $5,000. Aaron Reutzel was equally as impressive in the 360 feature, winning his fourth of the season here in that class and for the eighth time in his career. Kade Higday picked up his seventh career victory in the Pro Sprints class.

The 20-lap 410 feature started awkwardly when both front row starter, Dusty Zomer (throttle linkage) and Ayrton Gennetten could not start the event. Then Justin Henderson spun before a lap could be completed, while Chris Martin hit the wall hard and had to replace a tire. Brandon Wimmer also had to make a tire change. All those cars restarted.

Brown inherited a front row starting spot, and wasted no time getting out front ahead of Gareth Williamson, Scott Bogucki, Aaron Reutzel and Austin McCarl. On lap two, Reutzel snared third from Bogucki. McCarl followed him into fourth a lap later.

Brown entered lapped traffic on the seventh circuit and began building his advantage. Battles raged late in the going behind him. Reutzel passed Williamson in heavy lapped traffic with four to go, while McCarl did the same to move up to third a lap later. While Brown was gone, McCarl reeled in Reutzel and snared second on the low side of turn four coming for the white flag.

Following Brown, McCarl and Reutzel, were Williamson and Bogucki, in his first night in the Liebig #10. Tasker Phillips, Davey Heskin, Buddy Kofoid, hard-charger Chase Randall and Lynton Jeffrey rounded out the top ten. Lachlan McHugh set quick time over the 32-car field, while Ryan Timms, Chris Martin, Kofoid and Sawyer Phillips won heats. Henderson claimed the B main.

"We struggled all night long honestly," said Brown in Victory Lane. "This is a different car than we've had all year here. This was a car we won the Outlaw show with last year and then I crashed at the Capitani Classic. I feel like it really wasn't right at the Nationals. I chose to bring this one, and after the heat race (finishing sixth) I was thinking it wasn't a bad decision. Our team never quits though. If you give my team enough opportunities, it's going to be good."

Reutzel shot from row two to lead pole-sitter Jamie Ball by a narrow margin completing the first of eighteen laps in the 360 main event. Chase Randall was third, followed by Justin Henderson and Cam Martin. Gareth Williamson moved into the top five by lap three before the fourth running Henderson went up in smoke on lap five and retired.

Reutzel hit lapped traffic on the eighth circuit, but Scott Bogucki, who was running fifth, came to a stop with a flat right rear tire. The restart saw Reutzel leading Ball, Randall, Williamson and Martin. Randall quickly took second from Ball, while Reutzel advanced his lead the second half of the race.

Randall chased Reutzel to the line, ahead of Williamson, who nabbed third with four to go, Ball and Davey Heskin. Tasker Phillips, Ryan Timms, Cam Martin, Brooke Tatnell and hard-charger Ryan Giles completed the top ten. Fifty cars were separated into two groups, with Martin and Reutzel setting quick time in their flights. Clint Garner, Henderson, Timms and Calvin Landis won heats. Riley Goodno and Giles claimed the two B mains. Grae Anderson took a tumble in his heat race, but was uninjured.

"Our car has been really good with a 360," said Reutzel afterwards. "We're getting there with the 410, but for whatever reason, these cars really like the 360's. This motor is Don Long's (Moyle) motor that we won the 360 Nationals with last year. I don't know that it's been run since then. To come out two nights before the 360 Nationals and blow the dusty off her...it's just like I remember."

Mike Johnston led the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature early ahead of Kade Higday, Matt Allen, Mike Mayberry and Bandon Worthington. Jeff Wilke quickly moved into the top five. Johnston set a good pace, but Higday slowly reeled him in and used his characteristic high groove to make up ground on the leader.

On lap nine, Higday made his winning pass high in turn two. Matthew Stelzer started in row four, but was making up ground late. He advanced to fifth on lap seven, fourth with six to go, and finished third behind Higday and Johnston with a late passe of Groenendyk. Mayberry passed Groenendyk in the last corner for fourth. Allen was sixth, ahead of Worthington, Casey Friedrichsen, Ryan Navratil, AJ Johnson and Josh Jones. Matt Allen set quick time, while Stelzer and Wilke won heats.

“This has been a blast,” said Higday afterwards.

Rico Abreu Sails to $8,000 All Stars Score at Knoxville!
Garet Williamson Goes Flag to Flag to Win Last 360 Tune-up Before Nationals
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 29, 2023) – Rico Abreu drove to an impressive win Saturday at the Knoxville Raceway on Weiler Night featuring the All Star Circuit of Champions. The St. Helena, California native earned $8,000 for his sixth career win at the “Sprint Car Capital of the World.” Garet Williamson bested a 52-car 360 field in the last event before the Xstream Powered by Mediacom 360 Knoxville Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank commences August 3-5. The Columbia, Missouri driver pocketed $2,000 for his victory.

Michael “Buddy” Kofoid led from the pole early in the 25-lap All Star feature, ahead of Anthony Macri, Justin Sanders, Abreu and Justin Henderson. Henderson moved by Abreu on lap two for fourth, before Ian Madsen came to a stop in turn three.

Henderson continued his surge on the restart, garnering third from Sanders on the high side of turn two. Abreu used the same move two laps later to climb to fourth. On lap seven, he reeled in Henderson and passed him for the third spot. Meanwhile, Austin McCarl moved into the top five. Kofoid was in lapped traffic on the ninth circuit, while Abreu disposed of Macri for the runner-up spot behind him. Henderson followed into third on lap 11.

On lap 12, Abreu shot a slidejob on Kofoid in turn one to take the lead. He began to pull away from there. McCarl passed Macri for fourth on lap 14 before Scott Bogucki spun on the frontstretch, bringing the final caution.

Abreu pulled away from there, winning by nearly four seconds. Kofoid was second, ahead of Henderson, McCarl and a late surging Brian Brown. Macri, Sanders, Davey Heskin, Gareth Williamson and Sam Hafertepe Jr. rounded out the top ten. Lynton Jeffrey set quick time over the 51-car field. Sanders, Williamson, Hafertepe, McCarl and Brown won heats. Zeb Wise took the C main, Kofoid won the Dash, and Tasker Phillips claimed the B main. Riley Goodno tipped over in his heat, but was unhurt. He returned for the C.

Gareth Williamson led from the outset of the 18-lap 360 feature, but it was a rocky event. Two laps in, Jamie Ball spun. Sammy Swindell had nowhere to go and flipped. That collected Davie Franek. Franek was taken in for observation.

Tony Rost flipped in turn one on the restart. He was uninjured. Williamson led Reutzel on the restart. Chase Randall surged into third, ahead of Kelby Watt and Clint Garner. Sixth running Kade Higday flipped five laps in. He was o.k. as well.

The last 13 laps went unimpeded. Williamson set a blistering pace. Reutzel closed with five laps to go, but finished second. Randall was third, and Garner won a great battle with Watt for the fourth spot. Tyler Groenendyk, Sawyer Phillips, Cam Martin, Joe Beaver and hard-charger Dustin Selvage completed the top ten. Randall and Reutzel set quick time over their respective groups. Randall, Ball, Williamson and Scott Bogucki won heats. Cole Garner and Swindell won the B mains. Austin Miller was a flip victim in the second B main, but was uninjured.

Aaron Reutz Starts 360 Nationals Defense with Thursday Prelim Win! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 3, 2023) (Revised, August 4) – Aaron Reutz began where he ended last year's event Thursday on Night #1 of the Xstream Powered by Mediacom 360 Knoxville Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank. The Clute, Texas driver wrestled the lead away with five to go and went on to win his ninth career 360 feature here. The defending champion also topped the point standings after night one, followed by Kelby Watt, Ryan Timms, Kaleb Johnson and Tanner Holmes (full point results under results).

Colby Copeland led early over Reutz, Jamie Ball, Jason Martin and Watt. Sam Hafertepe Jr. entered the top five by lap four, and Scott Bogucki had traveled from 15th to sixth at the same time. Timothy spun, bringing out the caution.

Hafertepe surged from fifth to third on the restart, and Bogucki entered the top five before Tasker Phillips tipped over in turn four. Phillips restarted at the tail. The restart saw Copeland leading Reutzel, Hafertepe, Ball and Bogucki back to green.

Bogucki continued his charge by passing Ball for fourth on lap nine. Up front, Copeland was stuck to the bottom with Reutzel in tow. On lap 14, he approached lapped traffic and struggled to get by Smith. On lap 15, Reutzel took advantage and Hafertepe followed him, as both bested Copeland at the line. A lap later, Bogucki moved into third.

Reutzel stayed out front to claim the $3,000 prize and 200 valuable points in the RSR #8, ahead of Hafertepe, hard-charger Bogucki, Randall and Copeland. Ball, Jason Martin, Austin McCarl, Watt and Justin Peck rounded out the top ten. Kaleb Johnson set quick time over the 50-car field, while Brenham Crouch, Tasker Phillips, Jason Martin, McCarl and Bogucki won heat races. Liam Martin took the C main and Ryan Leavitt claimed the B. Liam Martin flipped hard in the B main, but was uninjured.

“I needed (no yellows) and some lapped traffic,” said Reutzel of his pursuit of Copeland. “The bottom was too easy to hit. My car was great, he was just running a good race. It seemed like every time I got there and made a mistake, he’d slide up in front of me where I had to move a little. We got some lapped traffic, and I was finally able to seal the deal there. I can’t thank this team enough.”

“We had a really good racecar,” said Hafertepe. “Aaron runs here all the time and he knows where put his car in those situations. He did exactly what he needed to do. We had the better racecar, but he drove a really good race putting himself in the right place at the right time. We made a little charge on him the last couple laps, but couldn’t get it done. We salvaged a night going out as late as we did (for qualifying).”

“We’ve started on the front row of this before and run fourth,” said Bogucki. “I buried us after qualifying. I guess I just got pissed off and got up on the wheel. We made whatever we needed to happen happen. We got this thing rolling.”

Following post-race inspection, Bogucki was disqualified, surrendering all points and purse earned.

Parker Price-Miller Holds Them All Off to Win Night #2 at the 360 Nationals!
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 4, 2023) – Kokomo, Indiana’s Parker Price-Miller held off Brian Brown to conquer Night #2 of the 33rd Annual Xstream Powered by Mediacom 360 Knoxville Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank. It was Parker’s first 360 win at Knoxville, and came aboard the family #9P. Brown ended up as the high point getter, and will start outside pole-sitter Aaron Reutzler for Saturday night’s 25-lap finale. Price-Miller, Garet Williamson, Zeb Wise and Terry McCarl completed the top five in Friday points (Saturday Lineups are below).

Price-Miller started outside row one in the 20-lap main event beside pole-sitter Wise. McCarl and Brown used good starts to move into second and third on the first lap. Brown squeaked between McCarl and the turn four wall to shoot into second to complete lap two before Alex Vande Voort spun to bring the first caution.

Brown used a slider in turn four to take a lead on lap three, but Price-Miller returned the favor in turn three on the following lap to retake the point. Wise worked his way by McCarl for third before Cam Martin flipped hard through turns three and four five laps in. He was uninjured. The next two tries at green were no better. Justin Sanders had trouble taking off on the first, with Harli White getting into the back of him.

Both went to the work area and had time to make repairs thanks to a red flag. Clint Garner flipped violently, collecting Kerry Madsen, Shane Golobic, who got upside down, and Carson McCarl. Both Madsen and McCarl made repairs and restarted at the tail, joining White. Sanders could not start. Price-Miller led Brown, Wise, Terry McCarl and Williamson back to green. Williamson moved into fourth on the restart, but McCarl would reclaim it.

Price-Miller kept a steady pace, with Brown closing in. On lap 17, Brown slid in front of the leader, but Price-Miller ducked back under and stormed to the win. Wise finished third, followed by Terry McCarl and Williamson. Hard-charger Davey Heskin, Ryan Giles, Anthony Macri, Daryn Pittman and Kasey Kahne rounded out the top ten. Sanders set quick time on the 54-car field, while Heskin, Brooke Tatnell, Price-Miller, Wise and Golobic won heats. Alex Hill won the C main and Sanders claimed the B.

“If anyone gets the award for restarts at Knoxville, it’s definitely the 21 car,” said Price-Miller in Victory Lane. “With him breathing down your throat, you can’t let up. I had the wing too far back at the beginning, and I started burying myself in the curb getting tight. I tried my best to get the wing back forward, which is hard to do under green. I can’t thank my guys enough.”

The companion Pro Sprints feature was rained out in staging. Matthew Stelzer set quick time, while Kade Higday and Toby Mosher won heats.

Brian Brown Shocks the House with .02 Second Win over Aaron Reutzel at 360 Nationals! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 5, 2023) – Brian Brown executed a pass coming for the checkers Saturday at the 33rd Annual Xstream Powered by Mediacom 360 Knoxville Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank and won by two-hundredths of a second over Aaron Reutzel, who had led the first 30 laps. Brown earned $20,000 plus $500 for leading the last lap. Ironically, Reutzel pocketed $25,000 for leading the first 30 laps and finishing second. The win earned Brown the big trophy as 360 Nationals champion for the second time as he also won this event in 2014. It was his 19th 360 win at the “Sprint Car Capital of the World.”

Reutzel shot out from his pole position in the 30-lap event ahead of Brown, Garet Williamson, Parker Price-Miller and Kaleb Johnson. Terry McCarl moved into the top five on lap four. Up front, Reutzel was eating up lap money to the tune of $500 a circuit, and entered lapped traffic on lap nine.

Zeb Wise moved by McCarl to enter the top five at that point. Reutzel extended his lead in traffic, while the action back in the pack intensified. Chase Randall had moved from 17th to the top ten by lap ten, and Rico Abreu was charging from the final starting spot. The leaders stayed status quo as the race wore on.

With just four laps to go, Justin Sanders slowed, and sixth running Tanner Holmes stopped inside turn one, ending a good run. The restart saw Reutzel ahead of Brown, Williamson, Price-Miller and Wise. Price-Miller slid by Williamson in turn two with two to go to gain third. Wise moved by him shortly after, and Johnson slid in front of him in turn one on the final lap.

Reutzel was roaring into turn three on the final lap when Williamson contacted the left rear tire of Johnson and flipped wildly in turn two. Johnson also got upside down ending his fifth place run. Both drivers were o.k.

The red flag added a lap to the contest. On the restart, Abreu shot from sixth to third. Up front, Reutzel protected, entering the bottom of one and sliding across the track, while Brown stuck to the cushion. He did the same on lap 31, and Brown gained significantly. In three and four, Reutzel slid across Brown’s nose in three. Brown tried to diamond the corner and drug inside Reutzel down the frontstretch. Reutzel tried to protect his position as the cars made contact. Brown won by a mere two hundredths of a second at the checkers.

Abreu followed the closest finish in 360 Nationals history, followed by Price-Miller and Ryan Timms. Wise, Randall, Sam Hafertepe Jr., McCarl and Kerry Madsen rounded out the top ten. Tyler Blank won the E main, Calvin Landis claimed the D main and Justin Henderson took the C main. Anthony Macri won the B main. Wise earned $500 from DGRD for best appearing car. Abreu's hard-charger effort was good for Rookie of the Year and $500 from JETCO.

"$&%@ I just wanted to win!" said Brown in Victory Lane in honor of Jason Johnson's quote at the 2016 Knoxville Nationals. Incidentally, Johnson topped Donny Schatz that year by the same two-hundredths of a second margin. "That's for you Jason Johnson! I'm thankful for that red. I saw Tyler Swank (Reutzel's crew chief) kind of telling him what to do. It helped my gameplan a little bit, because I didn't know what he was going to do. He's a great racecar driver. I knew he was going to slide himself (in one and two) and I knew I got a run. I knew my best chance was to take the bottom of three and four. I hit it pretty good, came off of turn four on the white and was going to slide him. He went to the middle, and I thought Christmas came early. I got such a good run down the backstretch and about got by him. He slid me across and I got it turned. I was either going to come back on the trailer or hold this trophy right here! He's a great competitor. All week long, that's who I wanted to race for the win. He's the best there is at Knoxville right now. He probably had the better car, we just got lucky at the end and got the win."

"If I went to the top to get a run, Brown slides me," Reutzel said of the final restart. "My only hope was to complete good corner and get off and basically block him for two laps. Brown behind you on those restarts, it's going to be tough. He's one of the best for a reason, and he's been kicking us all year. He kicked the Outlaws too when they were here. It stings, but it is what it is. It wasn't meant to be."

"(This charge) shows how good our guys are," said Abreu, who claimed the last transfer from the B. "We made some big swings from Thursday night. We got a little bit better and better every time. That B was key. We got our tires heated up and got some good steam through the middle. I made my marks in the feature there. 360 racing is such a different style of racing. You have to keep your momentum and RPM's up. It just took us some laps to get it. This is the best racetrack in the world and that's why you see the best racing in the world here."

12th Annual Capitani Classic Claimed by Mother Nature! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 6, 2023) – Persistent rains following the first heat race ceased the running of the 12th Annual Avanti Windows and Doors Capitani Classic Presented by Great Southern Bank. The event will not be made up. Rains throughout the day kept track workers busy on Sunday, and their efforts made possible the events that did run.

Join us Wednesday, August 9 through Saturday, August 12 for the 62nd NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey's! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Donny Schatz Begins Knoxville Nationals Defense with Victory on Night #1!
Schatz is Also the Point Leader for Wednesday
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 9, 2023) – Donny Schatz charged from the fourth row to earn victory on BRANDT Professional Agriculture Qualifying Night #1 of the 62nd NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey's Wednesday night. The Fargo, North Dakota driver is an eleven-time winner of the Knoxville Nationals, but those victories were never preceded by a preliminary win. He's hoping to change that on Saturday. His win Wednesday was worth $12,000 aboard the Tony Stewart Racing #15. Schatz also was the high point driver on a night that saw many of the fastest cars in qualifying fail to transfer through their heat. Hunter Schuerenberg, Kerry Madsen, Gio Scelzi and Corey Day rounded out the top five in points (full points below).

Blake Hahn shot from his pole position in the 25-lap feature to lead early over Dustin Selvage, Chase Randall, Madsen and Schuerenberg. Randall and Madsen both shot by Selvage on lap two for second and third, while Schuerenberg followed them into fourth on the next lap. Sheldon Haudenschild started outside row six, but was into the top five by lap four. Schatz had to repass Haudenschild on lap nine using the low side, and then claimed fourth from Schuerenberg on lap ten. Hahn entered lapped traffic at that point, while Haudenschild re-entered the top five on lap 13.

Justin Peck was on a roll and had a run at Haudenschild on lap 17 when he made contact with his right rear and took a wicked ride down the frontstretch with eight laps to go. Peck climbed out of the car.

Hahn led Randall, Madsen, Schatz and Haudenschild back to green. Randall dogged the leader and slid in front of him in turn four to lead lap 18. Schatz followed him by Hahn to claim second on lap 19. Schatz reeled in Randall slowly, passing him once, only to have Randall shoot back by him.

On lap 22, Schatz executed a slider in turn three and claimed the point for good. Randall followed him to the checkers, followed by Haudenschild, who grabbed third with two to go, Madsen and Hahn. Syc Lynch, Schuerenberg, Selvage, Brandon Wimmer and Gio Scelzi completed the top ten. David Gravel set quick time on the 52-car field, but suffered a setback in his heat. That sent him to the C. He won that, but was mired deep in the B main, which was won by Scelzi. Brady Bacon, Haudenschild, Justin Henderson, Lynch and Carson McCarl won heat races.

“We used to be really good in the prelims, and not as good on Saturday,” said Schatz in Victory Lane of his first prelim win in 20 years. “We kind of took the emphasis off that. I think being in the fifth heat was really key to getting through there. The more you run, the more the track widens out, and it was good all night. You just kind of go where they’re not. That’s kind of what I did on the restart. When the tires cycle through the heat a little bit, a little better car shines a little bit. I could make the bottom work, make the middle work, it’s tricky. You’ve got to be patient. I knew I was in a good spot. We came out of here with a decent point night and we’ll see how it goes.”

“It was just frustrating,” said Randall of his near miss. “We’ve been working so hard to stand up here every week. I feel like we’re getting close. We’re on the biggest stage of the year this week, and it just stinks. Being a rookie, I just want to succeed so well. I feel like we had one of the best cars here. I felt good really early on, and we got to him right before that red came out. That kind of messed me up, but I’m really happy about how we did. I wasn’t trying to make it easy on (Schatz). I was just trying to race my butt off. I want to be where they are. It just takes time. We’ll get better, and be there on Saturday.”

“(Kyle) Ripper had the car really good for the feature,” said Haudenschild of his crew chief. “I got a good start, and the first couple, three laps, passed quite a few cars there. I knew once I got by Donny, I needed to keep him back there. I got hung up on the 39 car, and Donny was able to get by and gap us. All in all, it was a good night. That was a really fun feature. It was the best I’ve felt in my car here in a long time.”

Carson Macedo Triumphs in Return on Night #2 of Knoxville Nationals!
Kyle Larson and Rico Abreu Are High Point Drivers and Will Start on Row One Saturday
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 10, 2023) – Carson Macedo left the Knoxville Raceway in June with burns in an ambulance. He returned Thursday night and won on Iowa Lottery Qualifying Night at the 62nd NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey's. The Lemoore, California native earned $12,000 for his win aboard the Jason Johnson Racing #41. Macedo earned himself a spot inside row three for Saturday night's main event. Kyle Larson and Rico Abreu emerged as high point drivers for the week, and it will be an all-California front row on Saturday night (point totals below).

Anthony Macri led at the outset of the main event ahead of Dusty Zomer, Garet Williamson, Macedo and Larson. Williamson wrestled second from Zomer on lap four, and Macedo followed him on the high side into third a lap later. Meanwhile, Spencer Bayston shot by Larson for fifth, and then passed Zomer for the fourth spot on lap seven.

Macri was into lapped traffic by the tenth circuit. Macedo chased down the second place car of Williamson and threw a slider on him in turn two. It came up short, but Williamson was able to keep going despite contact with the wall. With his momentum slowed, Bayston pounced for the third spot.

With ten laps to go, Daryn Pittman flipped in turn three. He was uninjured. On the restart, Macri got loose, and Macedo shot by into the lead. Meanwhile, Austin McCarl had been flying forward, getting by both Logan Schuchart and Larson to move into the top five. Ian Madsen came to a stop a lap later, bringing caution again. That gave Bayston an opportunity to pass Macri on the high side for second, and Larson to move back into the top five.

Another lap, another caution, this time for debris. On lap 19, both Larson and Schuchart moved by McCarl for fourth and fifth. Abreu was also making strides after winning the B, and had surged fourteen spots to seventh with four laps to go. At that point, Brad Sweet lost a tire and flipped in turn one. He was o.k.

The restart saw Macedo leading Bayston, Macri, Larson and Schuchart back to green. On lap 24, Abreu shot from seventh to fifth. Macedo was coming to the checkers when the red flag flew again, this time for a turned over Jamie Veal in turn two. He was uninjured.

Macedo maintained his advantage, as the race was extended to 26 laps. Larson made a last lap pass of Bayston for second. Macri was fourth and Abreu was fifth. McCarl, Schuchart, Zomer, Buddy Kofoid and Brock Zearfoss rounded out the top ten. Abreu set quick time over the 54-car field, while Zach Hampton, Kevin Thomas Jr., Kalib Henry, Larson and Ayrtton Gennetten won heats. Shane Golobic won the C main, and Abreu claimed the B.

“I thought the track was pretty racy there,” said Macedo in Victory Lane. “The track got fast, and I was able to capitalize a little bit. I hit the bottom nice there one time and I was able to slide (Williamson) for second. Macri just missed the bottom on the start, and I was able to fire across to get the lead. I knew at that point it was going to be tough to get by me as long as I started logging laps around the top. I knew Spencer was good, and I saw Kyle and (Abreu) has been fast. I knew if I just fired off the bottom and won the race to turn one, I’d be in good shape. It stunk a few weeks ago to have that wreck, and it was a tough road back. To come back here and win is pretty incredible.”

“Winning the Knoxville Nationals was cool, but I wanted to say I started on the pole of the Knoxville Nationals someday,” said Larson. “We were able to get a good prelim night in. We qualified o.k. going out late. Driving from the fourth row to win the heat was pretty awesome. We had a good car in the feature, I just made a lot of mistakes mostly that whole race. To still come away with a second after being that sloppy, I’m happy. We just need to clean a lot of things up. I think Rico’s on the front row with me, and he’s been tough this year, especially at Knoxville.”

“That start was everything,” said Bayston. “Starting tenth, with the guys I had in front of me, I knew I was going to have to make something happen on the start. I was behind Brad, and they got kind of jumbled up. I was able to time it perfectly, and get a row. Before I knew it, we were sitting in third. It just feels really good. I’ve never made a Knoxville Nationals A main, and I’ve been trying for so long. It just feels so good. This is the most special place, and the most special race of all of sprint car racing. Just making the A main feels so good.”

Aaron Reutzel Cruises to “Hard Knox Night” Win to Earn Berth in Saturday’s Championship! David Gravel, Scott Bogucki and Davey Heskin Also Punch Their Tickets to the Big Dance by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 11, 2023) – Four drivers locked themselves into Saturday night’s 62nd NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey’s finale by topping a 78-car field on “Hard Knox Night” at the Knoxville Raceway. Aaron Reutzel led flag to flag to earn his eighth career 410 feature. Reutzel, second place David Gravel, third place Scott Bogucki and fourth place Davey Heskin all earned $4,000, but will also see a minimum of $15,000 for starting Saturday’s finale in the 21st through 24th spots. Parker Price-Miller was fifth and earned $5,000, but will head to an eleventh place starting spot in Saturday’s B main.

Reutzel’s early lead came ahead of Bogucki, Jamie Ball, Ryan Timms and Brandon Wimmer. On lap two, Gravel shot from sixth to third to gain an all-important transfer position to Saturday’s feature, while Wimmer moved into fourth, getting by Ball on lap four. Balog slowed at that time while running sixth, but re-blended into the starting order. On lap seven, he would suffer a flat right rear, collecting Sye Lynch and Shane Golobic. Only Golobic would continue.

Gravel passed Bogucki for second on the restart. Price-Miller found some momentum at the halfway point, shooting on the low side from seventh to fifth on lap 13. A slider in turn four on Wimmer, garnered him the fourth spot with ten to go. Reutzel entered traffic on lap 19. Heskin found things to his liking on the bottom groove at about the same time, passing Wimmer for fifth.

Heskin reeled in Price-Miller and passed him on the low side of turn four for fourth with three to go. Up front, Gravel gained on Reutzel at the checkers, finishing just a tenth of a second behind him. Reutzel, Gravel, Bogucki and Heskin were followed by Price-Miller and Brent Marks. Wimmer, Timms, Justin Henderson and Cory Eliason rounded out the top ten. Reutzel and Bogucki set quick time over their respective groups. Gravel, Price-Miller, Eliason, Chris Windom, Tim Kaeding and Justin Sanders were heat race winners. Marks and Lynch won B mains. Skylar Prochaska claimed the C. Gage Pulkrabek and Sam Hafertepe Jr. were flip victims in hot laps. Both were done for the night, as was Bill Wagner, who was involved in another flip in practice involving Sanders. No one was injured.

“Friday’s not the way we want to get locked in,” said Reutzel in Victory Lane. “It was unfortunate what happened, but my guys fought hard. We put another car together and we’re locked back into the Nationals. That’s what it’s all about. It’s basically a $19,000 win (Saturday’s feature pays $15,000 to start). That’s what we’re here for.”

“When they till the top here, it gets so easy to run,” said Gravel. “You’re just running qualifying laps at that point. Once I found that lane halfway through, I picked up my pace a little bit. Three and four was starting to get some character. I think in a longer race, it will get a little more technical. Aaron set a torrid pace. I’m just happy to get in the show. We’ve been fast, and we had a fast enough car to win on our prelim night...that’s racing sometimes.”

“For me personally...I don’t have the words,” said Bogucki of transferring to Saturday’s feature for the first time. “I came over here ten years ago as a crew guy, and saw this as a dream. We missed it by one car two or three times...same thing Wednesday night. After last week, it’s nice to rebound back. About two laps in, we had a good racecar. We were pacing Aaron, and then he was getting away a little bit. We got free at the end.”

“Damn, it feels good to make that thing!” said an emotional Heskin, who will be making his fourth start, but first since 2012. “You try for so many years, and it’s such a mental game here trying to keep yourself up. We started rolling the middle there. It just feels so good. We blew our motor (Wednesday) and watched from the grandstand. Watching from the outside, kind of gives you perspective. To lock ourselves in is big!”

Kyle Larson On Top of Sprint Car World with Second Knoxville Nationals Title! Larson Second to Lead All 50 Laps by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 12, 2023) – Kyle Larson reigned supreme on Saturday night as he captured his second NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey's in three years. The Elk Grove, California native joined Donny Schatz (2015) as the only two drivers to lead wire to wire since the "Granddaddy of Them All" went to 50 laps in distance. Larson earned $185,000 for his win aboard the Paul Silva #57. It was his tenth career win at the "Sprint Car Capital of the World."

Larson, who earned the pole on his Thursday qualifying night, shot out to a big lead over Schatz, Rico Abreu, Carson Macedo and Kerry Madsen. Larson built a 3.7 second lead by the fifth lap, and was already in traffic on lap seven. Abreu moved by Schatz for second on lap 14, as Logan Schuchart entered the top five.

Chase Randall had a top ten run stopped with a flat right rear tire on lap 15. At the same time, Abreu's right rear was going flat, as he had to surrender the runner-up spot. Larson shot back out to a lead, as Madsen jumped from sixth to fourth on the restart, as he and Schuchart battled back and forth. Gio Scelzi and David Gravel waged their own duel for the sixth spot as Larson re-entered traffic on lap 22, before a mandatory red flag at the halfway point. Larson led Schatz, Macedo, Schuchart and Madsen to begin the second half.

Schuchart quickly moved into third, while Scelzi entered the top five. Schuchart put a slider on Schatz in turn four for second on lap 27. That's the point, Gravel continued his charge from row eleven, dueling and winning a battle with Macedo for the fourth spot. With ten laps to go, Schuchart's runner-up bid ended in a puff of smoke, bringing out the last caution.

The ten lap dash saw Larson ahead of Schatz, Gravel, Scelzi and Macedo. Gravel's slider in turn four on Schatz earned him second with eight to go, and Scelzi performed the same type of move on Schatz for third. Schatz rebounded late in a three-wide battle for third, and Scelzi finished fourth. Macedo was fifth, followed by Brad Sweet, Abreu, Buddy Kofoid, Madsen and Sheldon Haudenschild.

Justin Peck won the 22-lap B main, Lynton Jeffrey claimed the 15-lap C main, Lachlan McHugh won the D main and Brooke Tatnell took the E main. A series of scary crashes plagued the night. Cody Ihlen crashed hard down the frontstretch. He was taken in for observation. Matt Covington did the same in the D main and was also taken in to be examined. James McFadden led the B main when his left rear tire blew, sending him into the wall and upside down. He was uninjured, as was Tasker Phillips, who also had a left rear go down while running tenth and flipped.

Chase Randall was the JETCO Rookie of the Nationals ($1,000), and Anthony Macri was the Beaver Drill & Tool "Jesse Hockett Mr. Sprint Car," earning him $6,000.

In preliminary festivities, Sheldon Haudenschild and the Marshall-Stenhouse #17 team earned the DGRD Best Appearing Car of the Nationals ($1500). Brandon Wimmer and the DGRD #7TW Team was second ($750) and Cory Eliason was third ($400). Brandon Wimmer and the Dennis Gainey #7TW team won the Avanti Windows and Doors Best Dressed Crew Award ($500). The Jason Johnson Racing #41 team was second ($250), followed by the DGRD #6B team ($150). The Knapp Family Best Appearing Helmet went to Carson McCarl ($500). Anthony Macri was second ($300) and Sheldon Haudenschild third ($200). Kyle Larson received $2000 as the SprintCarUnlimited.com Pole Award Winner.

"To win another Knoxville Nationals feels amazing," said Larson in Victory Lane. "When you have guys like Donny, Rico and Gravel coming from the back breathing down your neck, it's definitely nerve-wracking. I feel like I ran about as good a race as I could. I kept my eyes open for crumbs in the middle. It started latching a little rubber there with 15 or 17 to go. It was helping me on entry. It all just worked out. This is my favorite week of the year. I look forward to this event all year long. It's all I think about all week. I'm glad we could get this black and blue car to victory lane for (Paul Silva). He's the greatest at what he does."

"I want to be a two-time winner of the Knoxville Nationals so bad," said Gravel. "Last year I gave one away, tonight I just needed a couple more laps. We just had a really good car. The track has been really consistent. They till the top, and it's really fast around the top. I was able to get going early, and then I had a couple of bad laps about ten laps in. I lost a couple spots, then I got to the top and knew that's where I needed to be the rest of the race. I finally got by Gio, and was able to slide Carson, then I got a run on Donny. If I could have cleared them earlier and got going, we would have been good."

"We were kind of hanging there before (the break)," said Schatz. "We could get to the bottom pretty good, and I thought we'd have a chance on one of the restarts on the top and kept pace with him. I was running it for all it was worth, but it wasn't enough. The racetrack was definitely different than the other night. We just didn't have enough changes with it. All we did was change tires on the red, and try to make a few adjustments to get better. We just got worse. I couldn't hold the left rear up the rest of the race. I was kind of hanging on. We raced as hard as we could."

Join us Saturday, August 26 for McKay Insurance Season Championship Night! The 410, 360 and Pro Classes are in action. The DTRA Dirt Trucks will also be on the card. For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Aaron Reutzel Dominates for $6,000 at Knoxville; Austin McCarl is the Champ!
Chase Randall, Kade Higday Win Feature and Titles in 360's and Pros
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 26, 2023) – On McKay Insurance Season Championship Night at Knoxville Raceway, three champions were crowned. Aaron Reutzel was dominant in his win in the 410 class netting $5,000 and a $1,000 bonus for his win. Austin McCarl finished third but clinched his second season title in the 410 class at Knoxville. Chase Randall (fourth career 360 win) and Kade Higday (eighth career win) won their respective features in the 360 and Pro Sprints classes, cementing their first track championships in their respective divisions. Randall's win was worth $5,750 thanks to the purse provided by Jeff Tucker in honor of the late Austin Nyheim. Mason Mitchell was a first-time Knoxville winner with the Dirt Truck Racing Association.

The 25-lap 410 feature had a couple of ugly starts. Tasker Phillips spun on the first try, collecting his brother Sawyer in the process. The second try saw a nasty flip by Kade Higday. He was uninjured. The third try was not a charm either. Lynton Jeffrey flipped violently in turn three, collecting both Riley Goodno and Ben Brown. Jeffrey and Brown walked away, but Goodno was taken to the hospital for observation.

Once underway, Zach Hampton took the early lead ahead of Dusty Zomer and Lachlan McHugh. Reutzel was a big mover, starting tenth, and moving into the top five on the second lap. After McHugh took second from Zomer, both Reutzel and Brian Brown moved into the top four in getting by Zomer on lap four.

Reutzel rode the cushion around McHugh for second on lap eight, and on the following circuit, slid by Hampton in the same spot to take the point for good. He was in traffic by lap 11, and had built a 4.2 second lead with ten laps to go. Austin McCarl was surging as well, getting by Brown for fourth at that stage.

McHugh passed Hampton for the second spot on lap 18 before Tasker Phillips spun in turn two. Phillips had come from the rear to seventh. On the restart, McCarl and Brown passed Hampton for third and fourth. Up front, Reutzel was cruising.

Reutzel's ninth career 410 win here came ahead of McHugh, who had a career best finish, McCarl, and Chase Randall who got by Brown late. Hampton, Ayrton Gennetten, Brandon Wimmer, Garet Williamson and Davey Heskin rounded out the top ten. Brown set quick time over the 35-car field, while Tasker Phillips, Dustin Selvage, Zomer and Randall won heats. Williamson won the B.

“(Winning at Knoxville) means more to me now than anything in my career,” said Reutzel in Victory Lane. “This is what I like to do now is race around home. Being with my family and not being on the road. We like to race here and go pick and choose other races. The car was phenomenal in the A main. I couldn't believe how good we were sliding in the middle...we had grip the whole time. I could run the top hard. You don't usually drive from tenth to the lead like we did. It's just fun when it's that way.”

Cam Martin led early in the 20-lap 360 main event over Chase Randall, Ryan Giles, Jamie Ball and Tyler Groenendyk. Alex Vande Voort spun two laps in. That set up a restart, and Randall stuck the bottom of turn four to take the point, while Ball moved into third, and Sammy Swindell fifth.

Martin's second place run ended when he blew a left rear tire on lap six. The restart saw Ball, who inherited second, take a shot at Randall, who squeezed between the sprinter and the wall in turn two. Shortly after, Dustin Clark got into the turn four wall to bring another caution.

Randall maintained his lead over Ball and Giles. Garet Williamson took over fourth from Swindell on lap eight. Carson McCarl was on the move, going from the 18th starting spot to sixth, and passing Swindell for fifth on the last lap. Swindell, Davey Heskin, Terry McCarl, Groenendyk and Ryan Leavitt completed the top ten. Groenendyk set quick time over the 35-car field, while Williamson, Dustin Selvage, Timothy Smith and Swindell won heats, and Tony Rost won the B main.

“We’ve been working so hard for this all year long,” said Randall of his 360 title. “We came here with one goal and that was the championship. Every day, every week that we put in at the shop was for this moment. To be standing up here is unbelievable. I have an incredible crew behind me. Everything we did last year that we brought into this year had a whole new meaning.”

Brandon Worthington led the 18-lap Pro Sprints feature over Matthew Stelzer, Ryan Navratil, Kade Higday and Chase Young early in the going. Navratil used the high side to pass Stelzer for second on lap two, and Higday and Casey Friedrichsen followed him by the following circuit.

Worthington spun out of the lead, bringing a caution three laps in. Navratil inherited the lead, but Higday put a slider on him immediately when the green flew and pulled away. Another caution came out when Toby Mosher stopped in turn two five laps in. At the same time, Stelzer came to a stop on the frontstretch.

Higday led Navratil, Friedrichsen, Young and Mike Mayberry back to green. AJ Johnson was the charger. He entered the top five after starting 13th, then took fourth from Young on lap nine, and third from Friedrichsen on lap ten. Higday entered lapped traffic on lap 12 before Stelzer broke a front end and crashed into the infield wall on the frontstretch with five laps to go. He was uninjured.

Higday pulled away on the restart, while Johnson cruised into second, followed by a late closing J Kinder, Navratil and Friedrichsen. Mayberry, Josh Jones, Worthington, Young and Matt Allen rounded out the top ten. Scotty Johnson made his first start of the year and set quick time. Young and Kinder won the heats.

“This year has been pretty spectacular to me,” said Higday of his championship. “It seems like we’ve had a bad five or six years here. It feels good to get a win on championship night here. We had it locked up before that feature, but I told my guys we were not losing that race. It’s been the busiest racing season we’ve had.”

Mason Mitchell led the 15-lap DTRA truck feature early over Brandon Cox, Jeff Johnson, Shonn Mapes and Jared Myers. Cox took the lead for himself on lap two before Del Enos and Shaun Clinger spun on the backstretch to bring the only caution.

Mitchell rode Cox’s bumper the majority of the way, looking for an opening. On the final lap, he got between the leader and the infield berm in turn four to edge ahead and take his first win here. Following Mitchell and Cox were hard-charger, Brandon Toftee, Johnson, Myers, Shawn Cooney, Rick Clark, Mapes, Clinger, Enos and Terry May.

“I don’t know what to say right now,” said Mitchell of his win. “I appreciate the fans. I’ve been thinking about this for a long time. This is the pinnacle of dirt track racing. I’m very fortunate and blessed to be doing what I love.”

Ricky Thornton Jr. Caps Incredible Night #1 of Racing at Late Model Nationals with Last Lap Pass Win! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 14, 2023) – Ricky Thornton Jr. emerged victorious with a last lap slide job, edging Brandon Overton on Night #1 of the 19th Lucas Oil Knoxville Late Model Nationals Presented by Your Life Iowa. The whole night saw exciting racing from beginning to end. The Chandler, Arizona driver nailed down the $7,000 prize, and emerged as the high point driver for the night (Point totals below). It was Thornton's first late model victory here, but he did win the prestigious Modified Harris Clash here in 2018.

Daulton Wilson led the 25-lap main event early, with Earl Pearson Jr. and Devin Moran in tow. Defending Late Model Nationals champion, Jonathan Davenport, entered the top three on lap two, and passed Pearson for second on lap three. Brian Shirley was running sixth on lap five when he slowed and pulled off.

Moran re-entered the top three, getting by Pearson on lap seven, while Mike Marlar entered the top five on lap seven. Marlar's charge continued into fourth before Wilson entered lapped traffic on lap 11. Marlar passed Moran for third using the low side on lap 13.

Up front, Davenport was reeling in Wilson. When Wilson bicycled across turn two on lap 17, Pearson shot under to the point. However, his lead was short-lived when he tagged the frontstretch wall and again in turn one, ending his night and bringing caution. Brandon Overton passed Marlar for second on the same lap.

Wilson retook the lead ahead of Overton, Marlar, Moran and Thornton. Thornton and Marlar battled for third with Thornton taking the spot after an exchange with five to go. Overton ran down Wilson and took the lead on lap 21, bringing Thornton with him into second.

A final caution flew with three to go, when a sixth running Hudson O'Neal spun in turn one. Overton led Thornton, Wilson, Marlar and Moran back to green. Wilson took second from Thornton, but when the white flag flew, Thornton was back by.

Thornton sized up Overton and slid by in turns one and two on the final lap, winning at the checkers by a half second. Wilson also made a last lap pass of Overton for second. Moran was fourth and Marlar fifth. Chris Ferguson, Tyler Erb, Ryan Gustin, Brandon Sheppard and Pearson rounded out the top ten. Marlar and Thornton set quick time in their respective groups. Max Blair, Ferguson, Davenport and Chad Simpson were heat winners. Chris Simpson and Tim McCreadie claimed the B mains.

"This is pretty awesome," said Thornton of his last lap pass. "I didn't know if we'd get the job done or not. I felt like we had a really good car, I just had to bide my time there as long as I could and not knock the right front off getting under guys. It ended up working out. I wasn't sure how close I'd be to Brad there in turn one, but I decided I'd try a slider there in turn one, and it worked out for us. I love this place. I always love coming here."

Ricky Thornton Jr. Goes Wire to Wire to Win Two in a Row at Late Model Nationals! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 15, 2023) – Ricky Thornton Jr. left no doubt that he's the man to beat by winning for the second night in a row at the 19th Lucas Oil Late Model Nationals Presented by Your Life Iowa at the Knoxville Raceway in Friday's second night of action. The Chandler, Arizona driver has put himself on the pole for Saturday night's $50,000 to win 75-lap finale. The win was Thornton's second career win in a late model at Knoxville, and he already holds a series record for the Lucas Oil Late Models with nineteen wins on the year. Mount Vernon, Iowa's Chad Simpson will join Thornton on the front row Saturday night (Lineups Below).

Thornton started from the pole and led from the outset ahead of Simpson, Daulton Wilson, Spencer Hughes and Brandon Overton. Overton moved into fourth on lap three and began a battle with Hughes for the spot that lasted eight laps and saw five changes in position. By lap 11, Overton passed both Wilson and Hughes to move into third behind Thornton and Simpson. Wilson then battled back by for the show position on lap 13.

Thornton hit lappers by the fourteenth circuit. Overton was back in third before the fifth running Mike Marljar slowed and stopped with nine to go, bringing the only caution of the event. Thornton led Overton, who had just taken second, Chad Simpson, Wilson and Kyle Bronson back to green.

Great racing ensued behind the leader, as Simpson retook second, Bronson went from fifth to third, and Devin Moran shot from sixth to fourth. Thornton was cruising up front with Simpson in tow. Moran grabbed third with five to go, and finished there ahead of Overton and Bronson. Wilson, Hughes, Brandon Sheppard, Hudson O'Neal and Ryan Gustin rounded out the top ten. Brian Shirley and Overton set quick time over their perspective groups, while Thornton, O'Neal, Sheppard and Earl Pearson Jr. won heat races. Shirley and Davenport claimed the B mains. Tim Simpson got upside down in turn two in his heat race, but was uninjured.

"My car is really good," said Thornton in Victory Lane. "I love coming here, this is one of the best facilities we come to as far as racing goes. It's pretty awesome to win two in a row, and who knows? It'd be pretty awesome to make it three. I bust my butt in the car, and my crew busts their butt and it kind of shows. I feel like we've had the best car all year."

Join us tomorrow night for the $50,000 to win finale of the 19th Lucas Oil Knoxville Late Model Nationals Presented by Your Life Iowa! The Malvern Bank Late Model Series will also be in action. Ricky Thornton Jr. Makes it a Clean Sweep with $50,000 Late Model Nationals Crown!
Justin Zeitner Wins $4,000 Bob Maschmann Memorial with SLMR
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 16, 2023) – Ricky Thornton Jr. completed a dream weekend at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday night by completing a clean sweep of the three-night Lucas Oil Knoxville Late Model Nationals Presented by Your Life Iowa. Ricky’s win was worth $50,000 and brought his weekend total to $64,000. It was the second time a driver has swept the three nights of the Late Model Nationals. Native Iowan Billy Moyer accomplished the feat back in 2010. Justin Zeitner won the companion Bob Maschmann Memorial. His win was worth $4,000 with the Malvern Bank SLMR Series.

Thornton jumped out early in the 75-lap feature ahead of Chad Simpson and Mike Marlar. Marlar worked under Simpson to take the runner-up spot on lap five and began his pursuit of the leader. Thornton entered lapped traffic on the low side of the track on lap 11. Marlar chose a higher line and took the point completing that circuit. Two laps later, Thornton repeated the move using the high side to regain the lead using the high side.

Marlar would not go away and used the cushion in lapped traffic to take the lead from Thornton again on lap 18. Thornton came back on the low side of turn four to lead lap 23. The first caution of the event came on lap 27 with a smoking Spencer Hughes. Thornton led Marlar, Simpson, Brandon Overton and Devin Moran back to green. Marlar struggled on the restart, and Simpson jumped up to second, Moran to third and Overton to fourth.

Marlar climbed back to the second spot by lap 32, while Kyle Bronson worked his way into the top three by lap 33. On lap 35, he used the cushion to pass Marlar for second, while Thornton was re-entering traffic. Daulton Wilson slowed on lap 40, bringing another yellow flag. That restart saw a four car tangle involving Tyler Bruening, Chris Ferguson, Wilson and Cory Hedgecock. No one was injured, but only Wilson would continue.

Hudson O’Neal entered the top five at that point, and then took fourth from Overton on lap 46. Thornton was back in lappers on lap 50, and increased his lead on Bronson when he split a pair of them. Bronson was running the cushion hard when he jumped it in turn three and flipped hard on lap 59. He walked away.

From there, Thornton had no serious challenges for the lead, despite one more caution for Ryan Gustin, who suffered a flat on lap 67. Marlar would nail down second, ahead of O’Neal, a late charging Jonathan Davenport and Overton. Chase Junghans, Brian Shirley, hard-charger Tim McCreadie, Moran and Brandon Sheppard rounded out the top ten. Justin Zeitner won the 15-lap B main.

“That was wild,” said Thornton in Victory Lane. “I didn’t know if I was going to get it done or not. We had a great car. I saw Bronson on top and didn’t know if I had the balls to get up there like he was. I tried to play around on the bottom as long as I could to try and save my stuff. Then I knew I had to get up or get passed. I just drove my heart out after that, and it worked out. I love this place. It’s probably the nicest facility we get to come to. I felt like I was going to do whatever it took to get the job done, and I think that showed. I was hoping we’d have a good enough car to lead them all, but Mike had a good car too. He was probably a little better on the bottom than I was. It was stressful. You just had to drive as hard as you could and hope the car turned. If you tried to play it safe that was no good.”

“I had a really good car there,” said Marlar. “The fastest car won the race at the end of the night. I got by him twice and he got back by me and drove away. I had every chance in the world to win that race on the restarts. He was just faster. Congratulations to Ricky and their team. They really have something special this year and its fun racing with him. If you mess around and get out of that second row on a restart, it’s a game changer. He was fighting hard for it and I was. It was two dogs wrestling on a bone for twenty laps. He got it from me, and when on to win the race.”

“I’m happy with this,” said O’Neal. “Obviously, we want to win, but we felt we made gains all weekend long. Maybe we built a bit of a notebook for next year. I just hate that we had two ‘just o.k.’ prelims and didn’t start a little closer to the front and maybe race with them a little longer. Even when this place slows down, it still gets it on. I felt like the racetrack was awesome. We raced all over it. I think the restarts made it interesting. I thought the racetrack was awesome.”

In the companion Malvern Bank SLMR Series 22-lap Bob Maschmann Memorial, Justin Zeitner led early from the pole, ahead of Andy Eckrich, Tad Pospisil, Jeff Tharp and Corey Zeitner. Tharp and Chad Holladay were quickly in the mix, getting by Pospisil for third and fourth on lap two. Holladay continued his charge by passing Tharp for the third spot on lap three. Tharp slowed shortly after and exited the event. Derrick Stewart had entered the top five by lap five.

Zeitner entered lapped traffic on lap 11 before Curtis Glover stopped in turn one to bring a caution. Zeitner led Eckrich, Holladay, Pospisil and Stewart back to green. Eckrich pulled up inside Zeitner on lap 16 entering turn one. Zeitner quickly corrected across Eckrich’s nose entering the turn, keeping his position.

Holladay was a late player, getting by Eckrich at one point and vying briefly for the lead on the high side. The crowd rose to their feet, but it was Zeitner who prevailed for the first time on the famous half-mile. Eckrich made a last lap pass for second, ahead of Holladay, Pospisil and Luke Goedert. Stewart, Jeff Aikey, Kyle Berck, Corey Zeitner and JC Wyman completed the top ten. Justin Zeitner set quick time over the field while Andrew Kosiski, Wyman and Holladay claimed heat races.

“We were a little free here and you have to be,” said Zeitner in Victory Lane. “I knew if I didn’t give up that bottom, we’d probably be alright. I slid across the racetrack once and I knew I’d about been had. I made sure to hit my marks and not give that bottom up. I appreciate the Maschmann family and everything they do for this event. Without them, we wouldn’t have it. It’s a pleasure to be racing here at Knoxville. It’s really cool.”
