Shane Stewart Paces Knoxville Raceway Opener!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, April 27, 2013 – Shane Stewart scored a convincing win in the 2013 opener at Knoxville Raceway's Pella Motors Race for Your School night Saturday. The Bixby, Oklahoma native was running the Indy Race Parts #71x for Bernie Steubgen. Clint Garner scored his 16th career win in the 360 class, while Larry Ball Jr. won the opener for the 305 class.

Pole-sitter Don Droud Jr. led the first circuit in the 20-lapper, while Stewart worked his way by front row starter, Terry McCarl. He then made the move for the lead sliding in front of Droud to complete lap two.

While Stewart pulled away and got into traffic, McCarl pressured Droud for second, taking the spot on lap eight. Dusty Zomer was able to move into third a lap later. With nine laps in the books, Austin McCarl, who had moved up to 13th, went up in smoke. The restart saw Stewart leading, McCarl, Zomer, Droud and Ian Madsen.

A frontstretch tangle involving Jody Rosenboom and Mike Moore slowed the pace on lap 12. It would be the final slowdown. Brian Brown, who suffered mechanical difficulties in his heat and made the feature by winning the B, was on the move from his 19th starting spot. By lap 13, he was into 6th and pressuring Droud for a top five spot.

Madsen worked by Zomer on lap 14 to move into third. Up front, Stewart was unchallenged to the finish for his fifth career 410 win here, with McCarl and Madsen in tow. Zomer held off Brown for fourth. Droud, Mark Dobmeier, Davey Heskin, Bronson Maeschen and Lynton Jeffrey rounded out the top ten.

Madsen set quick time and won his heat. Dustin Selvage and Shane Stewart won heats and Brown took the B. Jarrod Schneiderman was a flip victim in the B. He was uninjured.

“I’ve been absolutely terrible here at the weekly shows,” said Stewart in Victory Lane. “I have to thank all the guys at Indy Race Parts. The car got kind of evil for me. I’d have a couple laps with some good lines...and then, I don’t know if I had a steering issue, or maybe a tire getting big on me, but the cautions really saved me.”

Tyler Groenendyk paced the field in the 18-lap 360 main event early on. A caution for debris came out with a lap in the books. Clint Garner loomed in second, but stumbled coming out of turn four on the restart, allowing Nate Van Haaften to cruise by. It would take three laps for Garner to move back by him.

With six laps recorded, Lee Grosz took a nasty ride down the backstretch after contact with Jon Agan. He was uninjured. It was the second season opener in a row that Grosz suffered a hard crash here.

Groenendyk led Garner, Van Haaften, Russ Hall and Jamie Ball back to green flag racing. Groenendyk set a good pace and maintained his lead. Garner would make his winning move on lap 12 in heavy lapped traffic. He would pull away after a restart with five laps to go for a stopped TJ Muths, and score the win. Groenendyk held onto second, ahead of Van Haaften, Russ Hall and Agan. Joe Beaver, Matt Moro, Ball, Randy Martin and Lou Kennedy Jr. completed the top ten.

Ball claimed quick time honors, while Martin, Thomas Kennedy and Tony Shilling took heat race wins. Muths won the B.

“I timed the restart wrong, and I don’t know if (Van Haaften) hit me or what,” said Garner of the early restart that saw him shuffled back. “I was crossed up, spun out and about ready to hit the cone...at least go on the wrong side of the cone. I did my best to fix it and nobody hit me. We were able to chase Tyler down and he did a great job. I can’t wait to race with him the rest of the season.”

J Kinder held the early advantage in the 12-lap 305 feature. Rookie Jake Strayer and Mike Mayberry were in tow early on before a lap two caution for Denny Dollison. Larry Ball Jr. restarted fifth, and on lap seven, he took the runner-up position from Strayer.

Ball used the low side of the track to reel in the leader, and he made his winning move coming for the white flag. It was his third career 305 win here. Kinder, Strayer, Matthew Stelzer and Matt Stephenson followed him. Mayberry, Alan Ambers, hard-charger, Stacey Alexander, Bob Hildreth and Mark Widmar completed the top ten.

Stephenson set a new track record in qualifying at 16.846 seconds. Stelzer and Ball Jr. won heat races.

“That’s what I love about Knoxville...the lapped traffic,” said Ball in Victory Lane. “I never would have caught him without that. Everyone is here to have fun in this class. It was a good time, I loved it.”

Sunday, April 28 marks the 2nd Annual IMCA Shootout at Knoxville, featuring Modifieds, Sport Mods, Stock Cars and Hobby Stocks. Hot laps get underway at 4:30 p.m. For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Dylan Smith Cops Modified Shootout for Second Year in a Row!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, April 28, 2013 – Dylan Smith of Osceola, Nebraska won the 2nd Annual Knoxville Shootout for Modifieds for the second year in a row. Other feature winners included Austin Kaplan in the Sport Mods, Lance Borgman in the Stock Cars and Mike Hughes in the Hobby Stocks.

Jacob Murray paced the Modified field early in their 25-lap feature. Dylan Smith worked his way forward from outside row four and worked by Jordan Grabouski for second on lap eight. A restart on lap ten allowed him to dive under Murray for a lead he would never relinquish.

“I knew I was better on the bottom,” said Smith of his winning move on the restart. “The track had some holes in turn two, but I was getting off of it pretty well. The restart helped a ton.”

Austin Kaplan of Des Moines took the lead from Mitch Van Engen on a lap two restart, and never looked back to claim the Sport Mod feature. Glenn Gladson Jr. came from row four to second, and Carter VanDenBerg was third.

“I’ve gotten second way too many times here,” said Kaplan in Victory Lane. “Now I have a win. We kept getting cautions, and I thought, ‘Here we go again.’ We finally got it. I’m happy!”

The 20-lap Stock Car feature went non-stop and the action up front was intense. Joe Zadina led the first half of the race before David Brandies scraped by him literally, on the backstretch. Meanwhile, Lance Borgman from Osceola, Nebraska stuck his nose into the fray and made his winning pass with three circuits remaining.

“We took advantage of cars getting squirrely and stuff and moved our way up,” said Borgman. “It was a heck of a race. I was thinking I was going to get second, but they opened the door just a little bit. We got lucky there.”

Four lead changes highlighted the 15-lap Hobby Stock A main won by Mike Hughes of Oskaloosa. Hughes took the lead on lap two from Corey Madden, only to be overtaken in a duel with Bill Bonnett. With three laps to go, the two made contact, and Bonnett’s left front tire started deflating. Hughes led the last four laps.

“(Bonnett) was really tough on the bottom,” said Hughes. “I was trying to roll the top. He got a little loose on the bottom, and I was able to capitalize on the backstretch. Anytime you win here, it’s a good win.”

Slideways Karting Center/Pella Printing Night is coming up this Saturday, May 4. All three sprint car divisions will be in action. For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Donny Schatz Strikes for Number Sixteen at Knoxville!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, May 11, 2013 – Donny Schatz remained dominant claiming victory for the fourth time in the last five spring World of Outlaws shows at Knoxville Raceway. The Fargo, North Dakota native claimed his sixteenth career feature here at the “Sprint Car Capital of the World” in the Mediacom Shootout Saturday night. Craig Dollansky was second, ahead of Brian Brown.

Brown shot into the lead early in a quest for a sweep after winning his heat and the Dash from the second row. Dollansky moved past Tim Kaeding into third on the third circuit and Cody Darrah followed him into the show position on lap five before Brad Sweet brought about a caution with a flat right rear.

Schatz used the restart to his advantage, cruising from outside row three in the double-file alignment to third. On lap nine, Brown stumbled a bit on the cushion, allowing Dollansky by him. Schatz moved into second on lap thirteen, and Kaeding moved into third two laps later. Schatz then made his move to the lead on lap eighteen, before Rager Phillips flipped trying to avoid Kaeding. He was uninjured.

Brown tried to redeem himself shooting into second behind Schatz on the double-file restart, but it was negated with a frontstretch melee involving Lucas Wolfe and Davey Heskin, who got upside down, and Mark Dobmeier and Sammy Swindell. No one was injured.

Schatz led the single-file restart back to green and sailed the last seven laps to the win in the Tony Stewart Racing #15. Brown shot back into third behind Dollansky, while Kaeding exited with a flat left rear while running fourth. Kerry Madsen advanced to fourth ahead of Paul McMahan. Darrah, Daryn Pittman, hard-charger Kyle Larson, who passed a total of 29 cars in the B and A mains, Dusty Zomer and Joey Saldana rounded out the top ten.

Swindell set quick time over the field at 14.699 seconds. Sweet, Chad Kemenah, Brown, Wolfe and Schatz were heat winners, while Brown took the Dash, and Pittman won the B.

“I wish this place was a little closer to my house,” said Schatz in Victory Lane. “The car was awesome. This whole race team... Tony (Stewart) has done a great job assembling this team. It was a tricky track tonight. You had to work for it.”

“Donny has this place wired,” said Dollansky. “We had a good racecar early in the race, and we were able to get through lapped traffic very good. It was a hard fought battle. We’ll just keep working hard at it. We lost to one of the best teams here at Knoxville Raceway.”

Brown was also complimentary of Schatz. “We just weren’t as good as we needed to be in the middle portion of the race. What can you say about Donny? He owns this place. The Nationals goes through him. We’ll work to get better for August. Everyone on our team did a great job.”

Tony Shilling led wire to wire in the 360 class to claim his second career victory in the 360 class. Before a lap could be completed in the 18-lap main event, Jon Agan got upside down, collecting Stacey Alexander. Both were uninjured, but done for the night. Once underway, Shilling led Cole Wood and Clint Garner back to green.

With six laps in the books, Alan Ambers became the second flip victim of the event in turn two. He was unhurt. The restart saw Shilling ahead of Wood, Garner, Matt Moro and Jamie Ball. Shilling remained strong on the cushion and pulled away from Wood. Garner would claim second with six laps to go, while Wood would hand onto third ahead of Moro and a late charging Joe Beaver. Ball, hard-charger Russ Hall, RJ Johnson, Nate Van Haaften and Mike Houseman Jr. completed the top ten.

Ball set quick time on the night, while Houseman, Agan and RJ Johnson claimed the heats.

“I didn’t know what to do. (Wood) showed me the bottom and I thought it was faster. I moved down there, and it kind of went away...so I went back to the cushion and it paid off. I knew (Garner) was a big threat. I just raced my race and prayed for the white flag.”

Saturday, May 18 is McKay/Allied Insurance Night as Knoxville Championship Cup Series action returns. All three sprint car divisions will be in action. For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Heskin Holds Off Brown in Thriller!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, May 18, 2013 – Davey Heskin won his fourth career feature at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday night in exciting fashion, holding off Brian Brown, who had already won in the 360 class earlier in the evening. The St. Michael, Minnesota driver's win was worth $3,000 on McKay/Allied Insurance Night. J Kinder was victorious in the 305 class.

The start of the 20-lap 410 feature saw Heskin leading Terry McCarl, Dusty Zomer, Bronson Maeschen and Brooke Tatnell. With McCarl and Zomer going back and forth for second, Heskin built his lead.

Things ground to a halt with six laps run when Mike Moore took a hard ride in turn one. The restart saw Heskin leading McCarl, Zomer, Maeschen and Lucas Wolfe back to green. Zomer and Maeschen shot by McCarl for second and third in the next few laps, while Brian Brown made his presence felt, moving into fourth on lap 14.

Maeschen shot around Zomer with two laps to go, and it looked like smooth sailing for Heskin. His easy ride was interrupted on the white flag lap, when Ryan Bunton got into the turn two wall, bringing caution. That's when things got even more interesting.

The green, white, checker restart saw Heskin ahead of Maeschen, Zomer, Brown and McCarl. Brown shot into second by the time the white flag was shown. He was all over Heskin through one and two. Heskin hit the middle of turn three and slid in front of Brown, who was riding the cushion, maintaining the win in the Deluxe Crates #56.

"I'm speechless," said Heskin in Victory Lane. "The last couple weeks, we were struggling. We've got it figured out a little bit. I can't thank my guys enough...my grandpa and everyone."

Brown was second, ahead of Maeschen, Zomer and McCarl. Ian Madsen, Jason Johnson, hard-charger Mark Dobmeier, Wolfe and Dustin Selvage rounded out the top ten. Madsen posted quick time on the night. Wayne Johnson, Bunton and Heskin won heats, while Lynton Jeffrey took the B main.

The 360 feature was no less exciting. Before a lap could be completed, Cole Wood got into the backstretch wall, flattening his right rear and breaking his Jacob's ladder. He would re-enter the race a lap down later on.

Jason Johnson led the first lap from the pole before another caution came out. Jamie Ball, spun into the infield in turn two while running second. Nate Van Haaften shot by Johnson for the lead on the restart. Clint Garner got by Joe Beaver for third on lap four, but Brian Brown worked his way by Garner five laps later for the same spot.

With five laps to go, Van Haaften led Johnson, Brown, Garner and Jeff Swindell. With the lead pack in heavy traffic, things got interesting. With three laps to go, Johnson retook the lead, and Brown followed him by Van Haaften into second. Brown used the low side in heavy lapped traffic to take the lead a lap later. He would hold onto his advantage and take his twelfth career 360 feature here (seventh all-time). Garner moved by Van Haaften and then Johnson on the white flag lap to claim second. Johnson was third, ahead of Swindell and Van Haaften. Jon Agan, Tony Bruce Jr., Beaver, Tyler Groenendyk and hard-charger Russ Hall rounded out the top ten.

"It was pretty tough there," said Brown in Victory Lane standing beside his Casey's General Stores/FVP #21. "Nate and Jason were setting a really good pace. "I want to thank Don Long from Searsboro Telephone Company. He provides our 360 engines. We're here because of him. It's a great Jaymie Moyle engine from right here in Knoxville. Chad Morgan, my crew chief, made the right changes before we went out."

Groenendyk posted quick time for the 360's. Agan, Dustin Morgan, Kaley Gharst and Mike Houseman Jr. were heat winners. Russ Hall won the B. Chad Heimbaugh rode out a hard ride in heat one. He was uninjured.

Bob Hildreth led the first lap of the 12-lap 305 main event. Sarena Paul spun, getting into the wall with that lap in the books. J Kinder was all over Hildreth on the restart as the two tangled for the lead. Kinder took command on lap three.

At the halfway point, Kinder led Matthew Stelzer, Larry Ball Jr., Hildreth and Matt Stephenson. A lap later, it appeared Stephenson broke a rear axle and tumbled into the turn two wall. He was uninjured, but done.

Kinder led the last five laps to win his second career feature convincingly over Stelzer, Ball Jr., Hildreth and rookie, Jake Strayer.

"We went back to last year's notes when we won," said Kinder. "Obviously, it wasn't too bad. I have to thank my Mom and Dad and my wife for helping to get this stuff going."

Saturday, May 25 is Titan Machinery Night as Knoxville Championship Cup Series action returns. All three sprint car divisions will be in action. For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Brian Brown Grabs Win #22 at Knoxville!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, June 1, 2013 – Brian Brown passed two-time Knoxville Nationals champion, Eddie Leavitt, on the all-time Knoxville win list Saturday night by recording his 22nd victory in the 410 class. The win moved Brown into sole possession of tenth place on the list, and came aboard the Casey's General Stores/FVP #21. Jon Agan recorded his eighth career win in the 360 class, and Larry Ball Jr. recorded his fourth career win in the 305 class on a night with plenty of intrigue.

Ian Madsen jumped to the early lead from the pole in the 20-lap 410 main event. By lap three, Brown had moved by Dustin Selvage into second. A good race for the lead was developing in lapped traffic at the halfway point, when Rager Phillips blew a left rear tire slowing things.

Madsen led Brown, Selvage, Dusty Zomer and Terry McCarl back to green flag racing. On the restart, Brown shot into the lead. A lap later, Austin Johnson and another car made contact, sending Johnson into a wicked series of flips down the front straight. Fortunately, he walked back to his pit.

After the lengthy red, Zomer shot into third, and Dobmeier was toying with the top five after starting 15th. On lap fourteen, McCarl was dicing with Bronson Maeschen when he lost a stop in the front end and his handling went away. On the 15th lap, he came to a stop. The restart saw Brown ahead of Madsen, Zomer, Selvage, Maeschen and Dobmeier.

Selvage shot by Zomer on the restart to take third, while Brown held his lead out front with a collapsed nose wing. McCarl's ill-handling car spun in turn four on the white flag lap, setting up a green, white, checker finish. Brown maintained his lead to earn the $3,000 top prize, ahead of Madsen, hard-charger Dobmeier, Maeschen and Selvage. Lucas Wolfe, Brooke Tatnell, Jason Johnson, Don Droud Jr. and Ryan Bunton rounded out the top ten. Zomer blew a left rear while running third on the white flag lap.

"That's pretty awesome," said Brown of passing Leavitt on the all-time win list. "That's something as a kid I never thought of. I never thought I'd win one race, let alone twenty-two. That's a pretty cool accomplishment. I don't think I'll ever catch Danny (Lasoski) but we're sure going to give it our best. I'd like to thank Pella Corp. for putting on a great night."

Brown also set quick time on the night, while Rager Phillips, Dobmeier, Rob Kubli and Skyler Prochaska won heats. Garrett Dollansky claimed the B main. Danny Lasoski suffered motor issues in hot laps and scratched for the evening.

A wacky 360 main event started with Ricky Montgomery getting into the frontstretch wall and retiring. The next try at green resulted in Russ Hall getting contacted in turn four and flipping. Laney Feight, Alan Ambers and Casey Friedrichsen were also involved.

When the green finally flew, Randy Martin led lap one. He appeared to slow entering turn three, and was contacted and spun by the second place car of Agan. Agan led Tyler Groenendyk, Nate Van Haaften, Joe Beaver and Larry Ball Jr. back to green flag racing. Van Haaften quickly took third, but the race was stopped for another red flag with three laps in the books when Feight climbed the left rear of Matt Moro in turn three, sending the two upside down. Like Hall, neither was injured.

While Agan continued to lead, Beaver went from fourth to third, and Jack Dover climbed from seventh to fourth on the restart. Another left rear expired on lap nine. This one belonged to Jay Russell and was the last slowdown of the event. Agan led Van Haaften, Beaver, Dover and Groenendyk back to the green.

Beaver worked by Van Haaften for second, but had nothing for Agan, who picked up his first win of the year at Knoxville. Beaver and Van Haaften were followed by Dover and Clint Garner, who drove from tenth to fifth after the last restart. Jeff Swindell, Gregg Bakker, Groenendyk, Cole Wood and Jamie Ball rounded out the top ten.

"None of us want what happened on the second lap," said Agan in Victory Lane. "I was up above Randy on the backstretch and hit my brakes. I ran out of room. Randy is a great racer and I wouldn't do anything purposely there at all. It took us a few more weeks than we wanted to get here. We've been racing pretty well."

Swindell recorded quick time on the night, while Bakker, Hall and Ambers won heat races. Jeff Mitrisin and RJ Johnson both suffered motor problems in hot laps and retired for the night.

Before a lap could be completed in the 12-lap 305 A main, Mitchell Alexander tumbled in turn three. He was uninjured. Matt Stephenson took an early lead ahead of fellow front row starter, Michael Philben. Chris Walraven, making his first start in several years, moved into third before a second lap caution for J Kinder, who stopped.

By lap four, Larry Ball Jr. had moved from fourth to third, and then took second on the next go-around. He made his winning move by Stephenson to complete lap seven. Stephenson trailed him to the checkers ahead of Philben, Walraven and Stacey Alexander. Matthew Stelzer, Steve Breazeale, Mike Mayberry, Cody Ambers and Bob Hildreth rounded out the top ten.

“(Stephenson) left the bottom open, and I worried I didn’t have the car tight enough,” said Ball in Victory Lane. “Running the fuel off really helped. This class is tough. You have to leave your setup pretty neutral. You have to get up on the wheel and drive, and try not to hesitate in traffic.”

Ball set quick time, while Stephenson and Philben won the heats. Just twelve cars finished the main event, including Sawyer Phillips, who became the first fifteen year old to officially compete in a sprint car event at Knoxville.

Saturday, June 8 is Pizza Hut Night as Knoxville Championship Cup Series action returns. All three sprint car divisions will be in action. For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Terry McCarl Wins Electrifying Feature at Knoxville!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, June 8, 2013 – Terry McCarl held off Dusty Zomer in a gripping feature event at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday night. It was the 54th career victory for the Altoona, Iowa driver, and came aboard the TMAC Motorsports #24 A.R.T. powered by Rider Engines. Joe Beaver won record time in the 360 class, while J Kinder won his second straight 305 start.

Sam Hafertepe Jr. shot out to an early lead in the 20-lap 410 main event, trailed by McCarl and Lucas Wolfe. By lap three, Ian Madsen had moved into the third spot, when pole-sitter, Lynton Jeffrey, blew a right rear tire and came to a stop.

McCarl sized up Hafertepe and shot under him to take the lead on lap four. A lap later, Madsen followed suit into second. Meanwhile, Zomer was moving up to fourth from his seventh starting spot.

Bronson Maeschen found some speed in the middle of the race, taking fourth from Zomer on lap nine, and third from Hafertepe on the next go-around. Madsen closed a bit on McCarl in traffic, before Jeffrey lost a left rear tire on lap 13, bringing caution for the final time.

McCarl led Madsen, Maeschen, Zomer and Hafertepe back to green. Madsen attempted a slider for the lead, but McCarl fit between the challenger and the wall to carry his momentum down the back straight. Zomer shot to third on the restart, and cruised under Madsen into second with five to go.

McCarl held off Zomer to record his 54th career win (fourth all-time). “Sometimes it’s hard to know what to do when you're leading," he said in Victory Lane. "Sometimes it's better to be second. I was lucky that yellow came out, and I moved back down to the bottom in three and four. He showed me more than his nose (Madsen), I could see his whole car. For some reason, I didn't take off very well. I have to thank Colin Bulmer for letting us use this A.R.T. and all our sponsors."

Zomer settled for second, ahead of Davey Heskin, who passed Madsen on the last lap. Maeschen, Mark Dobmeier, Dustin Selvage, Don Droud Jr., Wolfe and hard-charger, Tasker Phillips rounded out the top ten. Heskin posted quick time of the night with a lap of 14.666 seconds, while also winning a heat race. Droud and Brooke Tatnell also won heats.

Randy Martin jetted out to an early advantage in the 18-lap 360 feature with Joe Beaver and Clint Garner in tow. Beaver pressured the leader early on, and went by him for the lead to complete lap three.

A good battle waged for fourth, with Jon Agan, Jamie Ball and Nate Van Haaften all vying for the spot early on. Beaver continued to lead Martin and Garner when quick-timer, Tyler Groenendyk exited on lap eight. Garner pressured Martin until gaining the runner-up spot on lap 11. He would not challenge Beaver, who covered the 18-lap event in a record time of 5:09.0 in winning his third career feature.

"I knew once we got by Randy, we were in a good spot," said Beaver. "Lapped traffic came to us good, and it just seemed like it came easy tonight. I race Randy the way he races me, which is clean. It's just fun racing with him and they pit by us. They're good people. This one goes out to the Westphal (Wesmar Racing Engines) family. Bob is in a battle down in Oklahoma and we're thinking of him."

Garner was second, ahead of Martin, Agan and Ball. Van Haaften, Matt Moro, Russ Hall, hard-charger Ricky Montgomery and Alan Ambers rounded out the top ten. Hall and Garner won heats.

The 305 feature proved to be a good one as well. Mike Mayberry led the 12-lapper early on, while J Kinder quickly moved into second ahead of Steve Breazeale. Point leader entering the night, Larry Ball Jr., exited on lap four, before young Sawyer Phillips slowed to bring the only caution with five laps in the books.

Mayberry led Kinder, Breazeale, Bob Hildreth and Matthew Stelzer back to green flag racing. Mayberry ran a smooth line until bobbling slightly on the turn one cushion on lap nine. It was all Kinder needed to shoot under him and take the lead. Stelzer made a similar move on Breazeale on the tenth lap to take third.

The win was Kinder's second in a row, and the third of his career here. He didn't know if he'd even be racing. "We weren't supposed to be here," he said. "If it wasn't for Kelly Westphal of Wesmar Racing Engines, we wouldn't be here tonight. I have to thank him. The wind was killing me a bit down the frontstretch. The caution definitely helped me out, and the cards fell our way tonight."

Kinder led Mayberry, Stelzer, Breazeale and Stacey Alexander to the checkers. Matt Stephenson, hard-charger Chris Walraven, Bob Hildreth, Mitchell Alexander and Cody Ambers rounded out the top ten. Stelzer posted quick time, while Alexander and Kinder won heat races.

Saturday, June 15 the World of Outlaws are back for the Mediacom Shootout! The 360 class will also be on the card! For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Donny Schatz Does It Again at Knoxville!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, June 15, 2013 – Donny Schatz served notice that he's still in charge at the Knoxville Raceway. The Fargo, North Dakota native secured his 17th career feature win in the World of Outlaws last appearance before August's 53rd Annual FVP Knoxville Nationals in August. Clint Garner also scored his 17th career win in the 360 class on Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway.

Schatz led lap one, trading the spot with Brian Brown. Brown took command on lap two ahead of Schatz and quick-timer, Bronson Maeschen. By lap nine, Brown had opened up a two second lead on the field, when Mark Dobmeier blew his right rear tire and flipped down the backstretch. He was uninjured.

The double-file restart saw Brown choose the high side ahead of Schatz, Maeschen and Davey Heskin. The fight for second through fourth had been hectic in lapped traffic. Before another lap could be completed, Kerry Madsen blew his right rear on the frontstretch while running in the top ten, necessitating a single-file restart. In the melee, Lynton Jeffrey was collected by Jason Solwold and was forced to retire.

Brown continued to lead, while Ian Madsen worked by Paul McMahan into the top five. It was smooth sailing for Brown until Kraig Kinser slowed dramatically in front of him in turn one. Brown's front nerf bar caught the tail of Kinser's car. He veered towards the wall and was able to save it, but Schatz roared by into the lead.

Ian Madsen had things working, as he worked his way into fourth, and by Maeschen for third on lap 16. Maeschen brought his mount back into third and he, Ian Madsen and Heskin battled in the top five. Unfortunately for Heskin, he would blow a left rear tire with nineteen laps in the books. He would restart at the tail.

The caution erased a 2.5 second lead for Schatz over Brown, but he pulled away for the win. Brown settled for second, while McMahan got by Maeschen, who was running out of fuel for third. Ian Madsen and Daryn Pittman were fourth and fifth. Danny Lasoski (from 18th), David Gravel, hard-charger Tim Kaeding, Craig Dollansky and Sammy Swindell rounded out the top ten.

"This is a tribute to a great race team," said Schatz in Victory Lane. "These guys are awesome and are great to be around. I'm just a lucky guy. I wasn't really racing (Brown), I was racing myself. As hard as those guys were running up there, it got a little bit choppy up there in one and two. There was a tough spot coming off of four. When you're playing a game you can't win, you know you better be careful. I tried to avoid the holes in the middle of the corner. Our car was pretty decent through the middle there for a while. I'm glad to get a win. It never gets old, I can tell you that."

"I think Ray Charles could see who our target is right now," said Brown of Schatz. "It was one of those deals where we got caught up in a lapped car and got balled up. We had a good car all night long. Donny's just outdriving me, and we'll go back to work."

"It was a good run," said McMahan. "I had my hands full with my racecar. We were really tight and I about drove in the pits several times. I'd like to thank all the fans for coming out."

McMahan, Steve Kinser, Brown and Jason Sides were heat race winners. Brown won the Dash and Danny Lasoski took the B. Forty-three cars were on hand.

Ryan Roberts led Clint Garner and Jon Agan early in the 18-lap 360 feature. The lead pair separated themselves from the pack, while Jamie Ball took over in third. With ten laps to go, the lead trio raced ahead of Agan, Nate Van Haaften, Matt Moro and Russ Hall.

With thirteen laps in the books, Roberts bobbed on the cushion and Garner reeled him in to take the lead sliding through turn three. Roberts made a late bid to return the favor on a Garner bobble with two laps to go, but slowed behind the lapped car of Tom Lenz. Ball was third, ahead of Van Haaften and Agan. Russ Hall, Matt Moro, Joe Beaver, Ricky Montgomery and Matt Juhl rounded out the top ten.

Beaver posted quick-time, while Agan and Van Haaften won the heat races.

"The cushion was there, it was just way up along the fence," said Garner in Victory Lane. "Turn four was scarier than heck, but if you did it right, there was all kinds of bite there. It was a lot of fun, and that's the kind of racetrack I love. It was home track advantage. If (Roberts) had been here more this year, he may have won that race."

Saturday, June 22, all three sprint car divisions will be back in action for Farm Bureau Mid-Season Championships Night! It's also Knoxville Hall of Fame Night. Friday night, June 21, will be "Nostalgia at Knoxville" as well, with $5 admission for adults. For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Mid-season Championships at Knoxville Shows Three Winners!

by Bob Wilson

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, June 22, 2013 – Number ten was so sweet for Mark Dobmeier on Farm Bureau Night Saturday at Knoxville Raceway.

In the 25-lap Mid-season championship, Dobmeier trailed race-long leader Danny Lasoski until lap 23 when he closed in on the “Dude” in heavy lap traffic and grabbed the top spot as they headed into turn three. Lasoski was not done by any means as he battled Dobmeier the rest of the way and came within two car lengths of winning. Dobmeier’s tenth 410 win came at the expense of Lasoski’s 99th career victory at this historic Iowa fairgrounds.

Dobmeier started right beside Lasoski on the front row grid, as each time a yellow slowed the race, the “Dude” was able to pull away. In the early portion of the event, both drivers chose to run the cushion which was no more than six feet from the Knoxville tall fences. At this time, the top five began to sort out and all were running the same line.

As the front runners headed into heavy lap traffic on lap nine, both second running Dobmeier and third running McCarl had closed in on the lead and it was simple to see that some battles would be at hand. Just as this was developing, the yellow came out for Dakota Hendrickson who had spun in turn two.

On the restart Lasoski again secured the lead, but a newcomer Bronson Maeschen had joined the charge. At this point Lasoski had pulled away to a twenty car-length advantage and looked to be in control of the race. Heavy lap traffic once again slowed the leaders and made the race vastly exciting to the fans. That was also when the nose wing on Rager Phillip’s car came loose and he stopped on the track unable to make it to the pit area. There were ten laps to go.

The final restart saw Lasoski lead Dobmeier, McCarl, Maeschen and Ian Madsen back to green. This time the “Dude” was unable to shake Dobmeier. Davey Heskin also got a great start and shot to the fifth spot while being the only one racing the bottom.

As the top running cars once again came upon the back markers, Dobmeier was set to make his move. With the leaders again being impeded by these cars it was Dobmeier who took his sprinter into turn three hard and came out of turn four with the lead on lap twenty three. Lasoski stayed very close to the Dobmeier machine but was unable to make a pass in the waning laps of the race. He finished just two car lengths behind the driver from Grand Forks, North Dakota. Trailing behind those two was a close Terry McCarl. Rounding out the top five were Maeschen and Ian Madsen.

The 20-lap 360 feature was a “Doozey” too. Local driver Wayne Johnson led that event past the half-way point as Clint Garner trailed ever so closely. When they headed into lap traffic on the eleventh circuit, both drivers manipulated the slower cars with ease. Just as Johnson flew past the flag stand completing lap 13, his left-rear tire popped and exploded sending him into a near miss of the turn one fence.

Garner led the field back to green and immediately began to pull away from them. There was no one to challenge the Sioux Falls driver and he coasted to his 18th career win here, tying him for third on the all-time 360 list with Randy Martin and Dean Chadd. Jamie Ball, Jamie Veal, John Agan and Nate Van Haaften trailed to the finish line.

Larry Ball Jr. captured his fifth career win in the 305 sprint division. Mathew Stelzer led the event from the get-go with Ball chasing him on this big half-mile oval. Stelzer had the race in hand and was in fact pulling away when Cody Ambers spun his car in turn three on the 9th go-around. Stelzer, who was focusing on the lap traffic tried to dodge the Ambers’ machine but slid into him none the less. It was not a hard hit but Stelzer was pushed to his pit stall unable to continue.

The restart saw Ball Jr. take control of the closing laps and finish ahead of Jay Kinder, Josh Higday, Chris Walraven and Jake Strayer.

Five new members were inducted into the Knoxville Raceway Hall of Fame: Owner Jack Anderson, Race Director Ralph Capitani, Owner Stan Shoff, Driver Norm Wiemers and Owner Marlin Wineland.

Saturday, June 29, will be Marion County Cattlemen, Corn and Soybean Growers Night! It’s also Knoxville Hall of Fame Night. Racing will feature the 410’s and Twin Features for the 360’s! For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Dobmeier Wins at Knoxville, Van Haaften and Selvage win Twin 360 Features!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, June 29, 2013 – For the second week in a row, Mark Dobmeier stood atop the podium at the Knoxville Raceway after winning the 410 feature. It was the Grand Forks, North Dakota native's 11th career win here. It was also Twin Features Night for the 360's and Nate Van Haaften and Dustin Selvage claimed those 18-lap events.

The start of the 20-lap 410 feature was chaotic. Jason Johnson spun in front of the field, and Rager Phillips and Garrett Dollansky were caught up in the fray and retired. Cole Wood and Glen Saville also headed to the work area. Pole-sitter, Rico Abreu, was the only one to make direct contact with Johnson, and he restarted at the tail after repairs to the front of his car.

Dobmeier assumed the pole and took off ahead of Bronson Maeschen and Dusty Zomer. More problems for Phillips and RJ Johnson slowed things with three laps in the books. By that time, B main winner, Davey Heskin, had moved from 19th to 8th.

Zomer surged to second on the restart, but Maeschen repaid the favor on lap seven, with Terry McCarl fourth and Wayne Johnson running fifth. At the halfway mark, Heskin was up to fifth.

Maeschen made advances on Dobmeier, but slipped up within a couple of car lengths with five to go. He tried to reel in the leader, but Dobmeier maintained his advantage. Zomer finished third ahead of McCarl and Heskin. Ian Madsen, Wayne Johnson, Jason Johnson, Josh Schneiderman and Lynton Jeffrey completed the top ten.

McCarl set quick time on the night, while Dollansky, Tasker Phillips and Dobmeier won heats.

“I couldn’t be prouder of this team right now,” said Dobmeier in Victory Lane. “We’ve all been working our tails off, and we’re finally getting where we need to be. I’ve spent most of my life in the back because I can’t qualify, so I didn’t mind seeing those lapped cars. I don’t mind those a bit.”

In the first 360 feature, Dylan Peterson tipped over in turn one before a lap could be completed. He was uninjured and returned for the second main event. Nate Van Haaften shot out to an early lead ahead of Jamie Ball and Joe Beaver. He maintained his advantage, while Beaver shot around Ball for second on lap eight.

The best racing was for the fifth spot, as Jon Agan and Clint Garner traded the spot several times at the midway point. Robby Wolfgang, making his first Knoxville appearance of the season, used the low side to move by Ball into third with four laps to go.

The only caution of the race came out for a spinning Agan. The caution negated a pass for the lead that Beaver had made. Van Haaften learned from the incident and went on to win his fourth career feature here. Beaver was second ahead of Wolfgang, Garner and Ball. Matt Moro, Johnny Herrera, Jason Johnson, Russ Hall and Don Droud Jr. completed the top ten.

“I thought it was over,” said Van Haaften of getting passed by Beaver before the caution came out. “Normally, I hate those things (yellows), but it worked out for me. It gave me a chance to think about things, and I got the car tightened up a bit. I was able to hit my marks and not mess up again.”

Twenty cars finished on the lead lap, so the invert put the winner of the first feature in row ten for the second. Agan led Randy Martin and Dustin Selvage early on. Meanwhile, Russ Hall found himself moving up to fourth by lap six. Selvage closed on the lead pair, and in one lap passed Martin and then Agan for the lead on lap eight.

When Josh Higday came to a stop on lap ten, Selvage led Agan, Martin, Hall and Droud back to green. Martin shot to second on the restart, and Droud followed him into third. With twelve laps in, Jake Martens flipped hard in turn three, bringing out the red. He was uninjured. Peterson and Jason Johnson visited the work area at the time.

Selvage appeared to be coasting to the win on the white flag lap, when Matt Covington lost his right front wheel. That bunched things up, and Martin shot around Selvage for the lead on the green, white, checker finish. Unfortunately, for Martin, another caution came out on the white flag lap when Peterson and Tom Lenz tangled.

Under caution, Martin’s right rear tire went flat, handing the lead back to Selvage. He would go on to victory ahead of Droud, Garner, Agan and Beaver. Herrera, Hall, Wolfgang, Van Haaften and Ricky Montgomery rounded out the top ten. Van Haaften also posted quick time on the night, while Herrera, Covington and Selvage were heat winners. Martin won the B main.

“I thought I was driving as hard as I could to stick the bottom,” said Selvage in Victory Lane. “I was just driving a little deeper in the corner and it worked for us. It’s too bad for Randy Martin. He got me on that restart, and it was probably his race to win, but I’m not going to complain. We’ll take them any way we can get them.”

Justin Henderson and Mark Dobmeier Head Twin Features Night at Knoxville!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, July 6, 2013 – Three races featured three faces in Victory Lane Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway on Town Crier Twin Features Night at Knoxville. Justin Henderson and Mark Dobmeier won the main events in the 410 class, while Clint Garner won for the 19th time in his career in the 360 class.

Brian Brown shot out from the pole to lead the first 410 feature of the night. With a lap in the books, contact from Dobmeier sent Austin McCarl into a spin that collected Tasker Phillips. Both ended up upside down and done for the night. Rager Phillips and Glen Saville were both also caught in the fray but restarted.

Brown led Henderson, Rico Abreu, Terry McCarl and Ian Madsen back to green flag racing. While Abreu captured second, Kyle Larson moved into the top five from row six. Henderson battled back for the runner-up spot, while McCarl moved into third with Larson trailing him.

RJ Johnson got into the wall with nine laps in the books setting up another restart. Bronson Maeschen shot from sixth to fourth. On lap twelve, Henderson got off the bottom of the raceway to shoot by Brown, who rode the cushion. Henderson was making his first start in the BDS Motorsports #1 entry.

A lap later, Rob Kubli flipped hard in turn three. He was taken to the hospital for a check-up. The restart saw Henderson leading Brown, Larson, Maeschen and McCarl. On lap fourteen, Brown shot around Henderson to lead again. A sixth running Madsen had fuel pump issues and stopped on lap 15, bringing out the final caution and setting up a five-lap Dash.

Henderson sized Brown up for a lap, before taking the lead for good. Brown trailed him, followed by Larson, Terry McCarl and hard-charger, Davey Heskin. Dusty Zomer, Maeschen, Abreu, Lynton Jeffrey and Dobmeier rounded out the top ten.

“Brian Brown is never asleep at the wheel,” said Henderson in Victory Lane. “He’s phenomenal here. To be honest, I haven’t been here in a long time, and Bryan (Sundby) gave me a fantastic racecar. I couldn’t screw it up. I’m happy to be home. I was fortunate to drive out in Ohio for Rick Ferkel and he taught me a lot. We raced all over the place. It’s nice to be around my family here.”

The second feature started with an invert of seventeen from the first. AJ Moeller led lap one, before Dobmeier took command. By lap five, Heskin had moved from row seven to fifth and the first twelve laps went non-stop before Zomer spun into the infield.

Dobmeier led Heskin, Larson (from 15th), Josh Schneiderman and Maeschen back to green. Larson quickly shot to second before Madsen’s rough night continued when he stopped with thirteen laps down.

Heskin and Larson waged a good battle for the runner-up spot trading it a couple of times before Larson took it with five to go. A lap later, he tried for the lead, but had something break, sending him upside down. He was uninjured.

Dobmeier led Maeschen, Heskin, Abreu and Jeffrey back to green. While Maeschen took a late stab at Dobmeier, Abreu shot into the top three on the restart with Brown behind him. The two traded the spot behind Dobmeier and Maeschen, before Abreu took it on the last lap. Brown and Heskin followed him. Terry McCarl, Henderson, Jeffrey, Jason Solwold and Zomer completed the top ten.

The win was Dobmeier’s third here in three weeks, and the eleventh in his career here. “I knew the bottom was there,” he said in Victory Lane of Maeschen’s late bid for the lead. “It was better in three and four. I just couldn’t give up the top. I saw Maeschen on the last lap. I tried to take his line away in three and seal the deal. I couldn’t be prouder of this Lunstra Motorsports team.”

Garrett Dollansky set quick time for the night, while Larson, Brown and Schneiderman won the heats. Jeffrey claimed the B main.

The 360 race was one of attrition. A first lap incident set the tone, when Jamie Ball spun from the pole in front of the field, collecting Zach Blurton and Nate Van Haaften, who flipped hard. He was uninjured.

Jon Agan shot out to the lead after inheriting the pole in the 18-lapper ahead of Clint Garner. Garner utilized the cushion to pass Agan for the lead on lap three. Six cautions and a fuel stop plagued the event.

Joe Beaver was second by the midway point, but came to a stop after packing his right rear with mud on lap 15. Matt Moro made steady progress and ended up finishing second behind Garner. Josh Higday was the hard-charger, and made a pass for third on the final lap. Agan was fourth ahead of Ryan Roberts. Beaver came back from the tail to finish sixth, ahead of Jamie Veal, Jarrod Schneiderman, Chris Martin and Tom Lenz.

“It was a good race,” said Garner in Victory Lane. “It lasted a lot longer than I wanted it to. Once you get in the lead, you want it to be over...then with three to go I was bummed out we came in for a fuel stop. The track was great like I thought. It was awesome.”

Van Haaften set quick time, while Martin, Roberts and Garner took heat races.

Next week, all three sprint car classes will be back in action on Hy-Vee Night during the Marion County Fair on Saturday, June 13! For more information on events happening during the Marion County Fair, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Bronson Maeschen Rolls On Marion County Fair Night at Knoxville!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, July 13, 2013 – Bronson Maeschen recorded career win number three Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway. The Pleasantville, Iowa driver earned $3,000 for his first win since the 2012 Capitani Classic here. Clint Garner won a thriller by passing Joe Beaver in the last corner to win the 360 feature, while Larry Ball Jr. became the all-time winningest 305 winner at Knoxville with his sixth career tally.

Before a lap could be completed in the 410 main event, Jamie Veal spun across and over the turn one infield berm. On the next try, young Paul Nienhiser hit the wall in turn one and helicoptered to bring out the red. He was unhurt.

Once underway, Dustin Selvage set a torrid pace to lead the event with Don Droud Jr. and Maeschen in tow. With a lap in the books, Dakota Hendrickson came to a stop. Meanwhile, Danny Lasoski, who was running eighth went to the work area. A mud clod had lodged under his throttle.

After the restart, Maeschen worked under Droud for the runner-up spot and began to reel in Selvage. A good battle ensued, with Selvage holding tight on the bottom. In lapped traffic on lap eight, Maeschen shot by for the lead and tagged the lapped car of Garrett Dollansky in the process. The race stayed green the rest of the way.

At the halfway mark, Maeschen led Selvage, Droud, Wayne Johnson and Davey Heskin. That's the way it would roll the rest of the way. Dusty Zomer was sixth, and Justin Henderson, Ian Madsen, hard-charger Terry McCarl and Tasker Phillips rounded out the top ten.

Henderson set quick time on the night, while Madsen, Tasker Phillips and Mark Dobmeier won the heats. Veal took the B main.

“(Selvage) was getting great starts and I was rolling around there pretty good,” said Maeschen in Victory Lane. “I was getting some momentum up and our car was really nice. There was a lapped car...I think it was Dollansky...I got a little nervous there. I didn't mean to hit him, I was just out there racing hard. We got through there.”

Joe Beaver shot into the lead in the 18-lap 360 feature before Alan Zoutte spun with a lap in the books. Beaver led Jamie Ball, Nate Van Haaften, Randy Martin and Clint Garner back to green flag racing. On the restart, Garner shot to third, while Jon Agan followed him to fourth (from eighth).

Intense racing for the lead ensued with Beaver on the low side, and Ball on the cushion. The pair battled side by side before Ball took the advantage on lap six. Alan Ambers would spin with seven laps down, bringing another caution. Beaver slid across turn two to take the lead back on the restart before Josh Higday stopped a lap later.

Beaver led Ball, Garner, Agan and Randy Martin back to green flag racing. The lead trio pulled away from the field at that point. Garner worked his way by Ball on lap 15 and set his sights on Beaver in traffic. When Beaver stumbled off the bottom behind a lapped marker, Garner pounced in dramatic fashion in turn four coming for the checkers. It was his 20th career win here. Beaver followed ahead of Ball, Randy Martin and Jonathan Cornell. Agan, Matt Moro, Jarrod Schneiderman, Zach Blurton and hard-charger Ricky Montgomery rounded out the top ten.

Ball set quick time, while Chris Martin, Higday and Cornell won the heat races.

“Something seemed to be happening with the tire at the end, where those guys got a little worse, and I definitely got better,” said Garner in Victory Lane. “The racetrack was awesome again tonight. Knoxville Raceway is the best. I would drive 1000 miles a week to race here if I could afford it. (Beaver) messed up a little on the bottom and didn’t have a nice transition and I was right on him. I thought we had hope. Then we hit some lapped traffic. It’s really fun to race with Jamie and Joe.”

The 12-lap 305 feature lost almost half of its field in turn one when the green flag fell. Sawyer Phillips and Stacey Alexander contacted, collecting five other cars. Stacey Alexander, along with Jake Strayer, Matt Stephenson, Mike Philben, Dylan Ryder and Mitchell Alexander sustained heavy damage and were done.

Steve Breazeale led from the pole with eight cars remaining ahead of Larry Ball Jr. and J Kinder. Chris Walraven moved into the show position on lap three. Ball Jr. worked on Breazeale until taking the lead on lap six.

Tanner Edwards stopped to bring out the yellow flag with five laps to go. Ball Jr. sailed away to the win, ahead of Breazeale, Walraven, Kinder and Phillips. Bob Hildreth and Lee Patterson followed. Kinder set quick time on the night, while Breazeale and Phillips won heat races.

“Steve is a good racer,” said Ball Jr. in Victory Lane. “We’ve both been doing it a long time. I was trying to do everything I could to get him pried off the bottom. He finally changed it up, when I went to the top side there. That helped me out and finally gave me the bottom. We raced Sawyer there pretty hard in the heat and blew the hood clear off. Everyone worked hard all night.”

Tuesday night, July 16, the “Full Blown Rodeo” will be here at Knoxville Raceway. On Thursday, July 18, the Harris Clash for Modifieds will be running. All three sprint car classes will be back in action, Saturday night, July 20 for 3M Night! For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Kyle Strickler Makes it Look Easy at Harris Clash!

By Bob Wilson

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, July 18, 2012 – Kyle Strickler was the class of the field at the 22nd Annual Harris Clash for IMCA Modifieds on Thursday night at the Knoxville Raceway. Strickler, from Mooresville, North Carolina, was able to defend his championship title of one year ago at this central Iowa racing facility.

“This car was perfect”, Strickler proclaimed at the trophy stand in post-race ceremonies. And, it was too as the young driver led every lap in the 25-lap feature and prior to the only yellow of the race on lap 19 he had the field covered.

From the get-go Strickler was on fire as he cruised to a full straight away lead on this big half-mile oval before even ten laps were in the books. He did not encounter lap traffic until the 12th circuit and that posed no problem for him.

Behind him for most of the race was Jesse Sobbing (Glenwood) while Todd Shute (Des Moines) held down the third spot behind him. Richie Gustin (Marshalltown), who started 17th moved quickly through the field and became a player by the half-way mark.

At final tally Strickler had again pulled away from his challengers after the late yellow to take the $1,000 top prize as Gustin drove a brilliant race to take second. Sobbing settled for third, Randy Havlik (Boone) took fourth and Shute was fifth. Mike Van Genderen of Newton finished sixth after starting twenty-second.

In the companion IMCA Sport Modified feature, Doug Smith of (Lake City) led the 20 lap distance to take that win. Three yellow flags slowed the event as the final caution led to several position changes when the race resumed. Chasing Smith to the finish was Paul Nagel (Nevada) and Jared Timmerman (Norwalk). Rounding out the top five were Austin Kaplan (Des Moines) and Matt Lettow (Roland).

Lasoski Hits Number 99 at Knoxville

By Bob Wilson

KNOXVILLE, IOWA – July 20, 2013 – Danny Lasoski is just one marker away from reaching the century mark at Knoxville Raceway. Saturday night he captured his 99th career feature event win at this historic race track during the 3M Night of racing. His nephew Brian Brown won the feature for 360s and Larry Ball Jr. was the victor in the 305 division.

The 410 feature went red right away as pole sitter Tasker Phillips went up and over the right rear tire of Brandon Wimmer at the start as the front running cars went into turn two. He was not hurt but his car rode the wrecker's hook to the pits.

On a complete restart Lasoski moved forward to fill the gap and claim the pole. He immediately shot to the front and uncharacteristically took to the cushion on the big half-mile oval. Wimmer chased him for three laps but dropped from the race after the third lap.

For the next four laps Don Droud Jr. took up the chase of the fleet Lasoski but was unable to keep pace with the front running car. Behind him Brian Brown was on the move and on lap eight he took the runner-up spot and began his pursuit to the "Dude from Dover".

With the race reaching the half-way point of this 10-mile sprint, lap traffic would surely impede the point position car and give Brown a chance for the win. However, that was not to happen as Lasoski handled the slower cars as deftly as Brown did behind him. In fact, at the end of lap sixteen, Brown was just exiting turn four as Lasoski flew by the flagstand.

The final four laps saw the leader finally becoming slowed with cars ahead of him. That is when it looked as if Brown stood a chance to make a race of it. On lap 19 Lasoski jumped the cushion in turn two enabling Brown to move in close. Just after the white flag was displayed to the two frontrunners it was Brown's turn to hit that same section of loose dirt above the cushion in turn two. However, he managed to free himself immediately from the “marbles” and shot down the back chute after the leader.

In the end Lasoski made no mistakes and took the all-time leading 99th career win here by no more than three car lengths over Brown. Davey Heskin was third as Droud Jr. impressed to finish fourth. Last week’s winner, Bronson Maeschen took fifth in a race that went the distance with no yellows or red.

The 360 feature saw the return of Nebraska’s Billy Alley who appeared to have not lost a bit of his driving finesse at this central Iowa racing facility. Alley took the lead at the outset and soon had Brian Brown nipping at his tail tank as the Missouri driver was pulling double duty on this night.

Lap four saw the red fly to bring the race to a halt when a 3-car accident occurred just into turn four. The cars of JD Johnson and Allen Ambers were involved initially and then Ricky Montgomery slid into the hapless Ambers machine. No one was hurt.

The restart saw Alley once again hold his lead position but Brown was on the move. Two laps later Brown slid Alley in turns three and four but Alley shot back and took the lap at the flag stand. As that duo headed into turn one Brown once again made the pass and this time it stuck.

At the half-way mark of this 18 lapper, Brown hit lap traffic but his skills in a sprint car saw him maneuver easily when a car was to be passed. Behind him was the current Knoxville track points leader Clint Garner. Though Garner roared around the top of the track he could not make a dent in the Brown lead.

In the end it was Brown taking the win as Garner finished second. Alley came across the stripe in third, Joe Beaver who fought Alley for that spot in the latter stages of the race settled for fourth and Russ Hall was fifth.

The 305 feature saw Larry Ball Jr. again on the victory stand in a 12-lap race that went flag to flag. He grabbed the lead at the outset and roared away from the field of challengers.

Quickly he hit lap traffic on the fifth circuit but the back markers did not slow him at all. At the end of the six-mile jaunt Ball had the field covered and came across the finish line as second place Jay Kinder was exiting turn four. Following that duo was Chris Walraven, rookie Sawyer Phillips and Bob Hildreth.

Brian Brown Tops Last Prep for Sprintweek! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, July 27, 2013 – Brian Brown emerged victorious in the 410 class Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway in the last action before Southern Iowa Sprintweek gets underway this Thursday night with the 23rd Annual Arnold Motor Supply 360 Nationals. Randy Martin earned his 19th career 360 win, and Travis Cram returned for the first time in two years to win the 305 feature.

San Jose, California's Tim Kaeding shot out from his pole position to lead the 20-lap 410 feature in the early stages. The event struggled to get started after Rico Abreu spun, collecting Tasker Phillips. Both drivers would retire.

Kaeding led Brian Brown, Terry McCarl, Wayne Johnson and a duel between Ian Madsen and Bronson Maeschen for the fifth position. With nine laps in the books, Glen Saville spun, collecting Dustin Selvage. Both drivers would change tires and continue.

Brown used the bottom of the raceway to slide in front of Kaeding as the two battled for the lead after the restart. Meanwhile, Maeschen moved by Johnson into fourth, and Mark Dobmeier moved into the top five from row seven.

Another yellow, this one for debris with twelve laps down, gave Kaeding an opportunity to ride the cushion back into the lead. Back and forth the lead went, and Brown seized it again on lap fifteen. On the next circuit, Kaeding's rear-end let go. Dusty Zomer brought out the last caution of the event with a flat left rear tire on lap 16.

Brown was able to hold off Maeschen for the win, ahead of McCarl, hard-charger Dobmeier and Danny Lasoski. Madsen, Justin Henderson, Brad Sweet, Johnson and Jon Agan rounded out the top ten. Madsen posted quick time, while Lasoski, Kaeding, Lynton Jeffrey and Dobmeier won heat races. Davey Heskin won the B.

"Anytime you can beat Tim Kaeding...he's a heck of a racer," said Brown in Victory Lane. "He's one of the best racecar drivers in the country right now. He passed me when I was running the bottom, which is uncharacteristic of me. I was able to get back by him on a restart and it worked out. If we can do this in a couple of weeks, it's going to be the best night of my life. I don't know if we can beat (Donny) Schatz, but we're sure going to try!"

The last prep for the 360 Nationals saw RJ Johnson lead from the pole in the 360 class's 18-lap feature. With just four laps in, Brandon Hanks slowed to bring the caution. The yellow flag negated Billy Alley's pass of Randy Martin for the second spot. Following the lead trio were Brian Brown, Clint Garner and Joe Beaver.

Brown shot into third on the restart, but suffered from a stuck throttle and shut it down. On the restart, something broke on the RJ Johnson machine, sending him careening into the turn three wall. He was uninjured.

With twelve laps to go, Martin led Alley, Garner, Beaver and Dustin Selvage. Crazy in turn three ensued again, as Garner flipped from the third spot, and Beaver lost his right rear wheel. Both were done.

Alley challenged Martin the rest of the way, but the veteran held him off for his 19th career win (third all-time). Selvage was third, ahead of Rager Phillips and Jarrod Schneiderman. Jamie Ball, hard-charger Russ Hall, Nate Van Haaften, Matt Moro and Jamie Veal rounded out the top ten. Ball set quick time, while Chris Martin, Phillips, Schneiderman and Brown won heat races. Moro won the B. Jon Agan suffered a tough night with a heat race flip in turn one. He was uninjured, but done in the 360 for the night.

"It was good to get another win up here," said California, Missouri's Martin. "I saw Brownie had his problems there, and the 40 and 53 crashed. Billy is tough, and I knew if I messed up one time, it's over. I did a lot of praying those last three laps. This was the first Chevy Roush-Yates ever built. I'm excited to get a win for them."

Chris Walraven shot out to the early lead in the 12-lap 305 feature. When Sawyer Phillips climbed the back end of Bob Hildreth's machine and left it crippled, the caution came out with just a lap in the books.

Travis Cram restarted second, ahead of Josh Higday, Larry Ball Jr. and Stacey Alexander. Ball quickly shot into third, while Cram exercised a move for the lead on lap four, acing his old 410 counterpart in the process.

Cram was able to survive one more caution to win in Bruce Clark's #66 in his first outing in two years. Ball moved into second ahead of Walraven with two laps to go. Higday and Steve Breazeale followed. Matt Stephenson, Mike Mayberry, Steve Palmer, hard-charger Tanner Edwards and Andrew Shelton rounded out the top ten.

Mayberry posted quick time, while Stephenson and Walraven took heat race wins.

"I was kind of wondering how these 305's would go around the top," said Cram in Victory Lane. "They are kind of low on power. It's pretty easy to sneak around the bottom. It worked out well. I spent quite a few years racing with those two (Walraven and Ball). I knew I was getting a better jump out of two than Walraven. He made it interesting going down the back chute."

Bill Wright / Bryan Hulbert- KNOXVILLE, Ia. (August 1, 2013) The all-time winning driver in the history of the Knoxville Raceway proved why that is in Thursday night's Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals opener as Danny Lasoski piloted the Parker Burch No. 1m to victory.

Edging out Kyle Larson by less than a half car length after trading the lead four times over the course of the final lap, Lasoski gave credit to Larson in victory lane, "There's a reason he got the nickname "Yung Money". The kid did a great job for not being here as much as he has to race me clean. He didn't give an inch, I didn't give an inch but I hope the fans all enjoyed that because that was one hell of a race."

Going the distance under non-stop green flag laps, slower traffic played into the fight for the lead, with the pair also trading the point on Lap 14. "When you're lapping cars, you just go where they're not and you don't know where the second place guy is" commented Lasoski.

"I couldn't thank Mark Burch and all these guys on this car. Phil Durst and Brian Durst, these guys help us on this car and we get to race very little in a 360 and it sure is a pleasure to race this car."

The Dover, Mo. veteran crossed a slim 0.126 second ahead of Kyle Larson with Wayne Johnson charging from eighth to complete the podium and position the two time Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville National winning No. 77x atop the night's point standing; ten markers off a perfect score at 490 points.

Brad Sweet crossed fourth with Lee Grosz completing the top five.

Jonathan Cornell earned sixth after a nearly half race battle with Davey Heskin and Jason Johnson with Heskin crossing seventh and Johnson eighth. Randy Hannagan grabbed night with Jon Agan advancing a pair of spots to complete the top ten.

The 23rd running of the Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals continues on Friday, August 2 with Hot Laps getting underway at 6:45 P.M. (CDT). For more news and information, log onto <http://www.knoxvillraceway.com>.

Justin Henderson Stampedes to Knoxville Victory

Bill Wight / Bryan Hulbert - KNOXVILLE, Ia. (August 2, 2013) Justin Henderson has visited Knoxville victory lane five times in 410cid competition, but had not picked up a win in 360cid competition until night two of the Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals when the Tea, S.D. driver led the distance in Friday's 20 lap feature event.

"We drew a bad number coming in," laughed Henderson as he commented on how his girlfriend drew next to last for the No. 21v to qualify. "She was afraid everyone was going to hate her, and I kept telling her everything was going to be alright," continued Henderson. "She gave me a good luck kiss there before I went out for the A-Main and that always seems to work!"

Elated with his finish, Henderson was nearly speechless at times as he thanked his team, "Brent Vonk from B.R. Speed gave me a one heck of a beautiful racecar and we've been working our butts off this past month since I got home. I tell you, talk about a storybook ending. Hopefully we can go the distance on Saturday."

Starting third, the Hard Core Speed Shop No. 21v jumped to the point, driving around Justyn Cox and Josh Higday in the first two turns, quickly running away to a comfortable advantage. Even in late race slower traffic, Henderson remained uncontested, crossing 2.727 seconds ahead of seventh starting Shane Stewart whose runner up finish put the Jeff Gordon's Kick-It Foundation No. 57 atop the accumulated points, edging out Wayne Johnson by a single marker to earn the pole in Saturday Arnold Motor Supply A-Feature.

Kevin Swindell worked to the runner up spot on Lap 4 but surrendered the show position with two laps remaining to finish third. Clint Garner crossed fourth with pole sitter Justyn Cox completing the top five.

Robby Wolfgang came from ninth to sixth followed Brian Brown who gained six positions to take seventh. Scott Winters, Don Droud, Jr., and Josh Higday made up the top ten.

The finale of the 23rd running of the Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals is set for Saturday, August 3 with Hot Laps beginning at 6:45 P.M. (CDT). The night will also include 305cid Sprint Cars for a regular point night in the Knoxville Championship Cup Series presented by Lucas Oil.

Stewart Gets One for the Thumb at Knoxville

Bill Wright / Bryan Hulbert - KNOXVILLE, Ia. (August 3, 2013) The 23rd annual Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals ended much like the year before with Shane Stewart crossing under the checkered flag to earn his fourth straight victory and fifth overall Nationals win.

Looking like the $10,000 check was within his grasp, the caution flew with three laps to run for the No. 21v of Justin Henderson, ending Stewart's 3.672 second lead over Brad Sweet. On the restart, Kevin Swindell advanced to the runner up spot only to see the red flag displayed for the No. 1B of Robby Wolfgang who flipped exiting turn four. Robby escaped unscathed.

To the green, Stewart's night became one of a fight with fluid dynamics as the power steering failed on the No. 57. Muscling the car around for the green, white, checkered finish Stewart held on to cross 0.546 second ahead of Kevin Swindell who nearly tangled with Kyle Larson coming to the white flag.

"I tell you what, I've got a major arm pump," chuckled Shane in victory lane. "These Sprint Cars, when they lose power steering, you can't really turn them at all. I just got lucky honestly. I don't think I could have held on much longer."

An emotional win for Stewart, who earned Wesmar Racing Engines a fourth straight 360 Nationals victory, Kelly Westphal, was on hand to tune the engine as the pair paid tribute to the late Bob Westphal.

Swindell's runner up finish is his second in as many years. Nearly getting tied up with Larson coming to the white flag, Swindell commented on the battle as the pair looked close to blows on the cool down lap, "We were fine. I was just frustrated. I had a run and I knew he was going to block me. I just hoped I could get far enough in there and just ran out of room."

Coming straight from the NASCAR Nationwide event at the Iowa Speedway to compete in the feature event of the Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals, Kyle Larson came from eighth to complete the podium; his second top five of the day.

Brian Brown charged from nineteenth to fourth with Brad Sweet completing the top five after battling several laps with Swindell for the runner up spot.

Danny Lasoski came from ninth to sixth after having to change an engine prior to the night feature. Jason Johnson crossed seventh followed by Wayne Johnson. Brad Loyet crossed ninth with Scott Winters charging from twenty-first to complete the top ten.

The three nights of racing saw a total of $101,890 paid out among 103 drivers. Danny Lasoski and Justin Henderson each took preliminary night wins worth $3,000.

305 Sprint Car Action

In the 305 feature, Matt Stephenson led early on in the 12-lapper. When Sarena Paul spun with two laps in the books, he led J Kinder, Larry Ball Jr., Stacey Alexander and Chris Walraven back to green.

For two laps, Stephenson and Kinder battled hard for the lead before Chris Horton flipped hard in turn four to bring out the red. Horton was uninjured in the incident. Ball moved into second on the restart and began his pursuit of the leader. After a fierce duel, Ball took the point for good on lap six.

Mike Mayberry flipped to bring out another red on lap six while running sixth. Ball was able to hold the lead on the restart, beating Kinder, Stacey Alexander, Matt Stephenson and Lorne Wofford to the line for his eighth career 305 win here. Kinder was later disqualified for an illegal tire.

"I don't think I was going to get them without the yellow," said Ball in Victory Lane. "(Stephenson and Kinder) were racing so hard, they weren't letting me play at all. The yellow allowed me to get a run on them through the middle. It gave me a chance to figure out what I needed to do to get by them."

Steve Breazeale posted quick time on the night, while Ball and Stephenson were heat winners.

Sunday night will mark the 2nd Annual "Capitani Classic" featuring 410 sprints at the Knoxville Raceway. For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Kevin Swindell Masters the Capitani Classic

Bryan Hulbert/Bill Wright - KNOXVILLE, Ia. (August 4, 2013) The 2nd annual Capitani Classic was the site of Kevin Swindell's fourth Knoxville Raceway triumph as the Germantown, Tenn. shoe dominated all 25 laps of the tribute to former Race Director of the Knoxville Raceway, Ralph Capitani.

"From like the first lap, I knew it was really good. I just kept having to tell myself to breath," commented Swindell of his dominating performance. "There was a real fine line to get off [turn] two that you had to hit, and you had to be pretty precise to get off. I just made sure I kept getting the wing back every time I slipped up because when you get to dirty air, just in that little bit of lapped traffic, these things suck to drive."

Challenged briefly on the initial start, Terry McCarl grabbed the lead with a low side pass only to see the caution fly for the spun No. 18 of Ian Madsen.

Leading by 2.568 seconds on Lap 5, the caution flew the following circuit for Jon Agan who spun in turn three.

Underway, the race was for third as Brian Brown worked past Justin Henderson with Henderson retaking the spot on Lap 7 with both drivers chasing Terry McCarl for the runner up spot. Closing in on the Rossie Feed and Grain No. 24, Henderson grabbed the runner-up spot on Lap 12 as the caution flew for Kyle Larson who wheel stood the Abreu Vineyard No. 1k before coming to a stop in the turn four entrance to the infield.

On the restart, Justin Henderson dove to the hub in turn one, but to no avail as Kevin Swindell again powered the Indy Race Parts No. 71s to the point.

Working the cushion from start to finish, Kevin Swindell crossed 2.861 seconds ahead of Justin Henderson.

"It's a cryin' shame when somebody is that good," chuckled Justin Henderson. "He was gone. He was really fast. I think my car was maybe good enough to catch him; I just hung around the middle a little bit too long and made some mistakes."

Brian Brown worked to third with Shane Stewart coming from eighth to fourth. Craig Dollansky completed the top five with Terry McCarl, Paul McMahan, Daryn Pittman, Brad Sweet, and Stevie Smith making up the top ten.

Knoxville Raceway comes back to life Wednesday, August 7 with the start of the 53rd FVP Knoxville Nationals. Hot Laps are scheduled to begin at 6:45 P.M. (CDT). Further information, including night-by-night breakdown of qualifying nights can be found at <http://www.knoxvillraceway.com>.

Gravel Coasts to Victory in Knoxville Opener

Bryan Hulbert / Bill Wright - KNOXVILLE, Ia. (August 7, 2013) The 53rd running of the FVP Knoxville Nationals kicked off with David Gravel picking up his first Knoxville Raceway triumph on Racingjunk.com qualifying night, crossing under the double checkered flags by 0.929 seconds as the fuel cell ran dry.

Starting his night timing eleventh quick, the FMR Racing No.6 coasted across the line for third in Heat one with an expired engine.

“I was nervous there. That was our best motor we blew up and this was our little motor,” commented Gravel.

“With the track slicking off like this, you know it was just perfect. It ran awesome but with about four to go, it started stumbling and man, I just got past the finish line. I had no fuel left at all, and I was scared to make weight; but we made weight. It was a stressful night; a very, very, stressful night.”

Working on early leader Greg Hodnett following a caution for Johnny Herrera, the Wright Process Systems No. 6 shot to the cushion to complete the pass on Lap three exiting turn four.

Restarting following a caution on lap seven, Gravel pulled a ten car length advantage on Hodnett with Josh Schneiderman going after the Eagle Steel No. 39, but ultimately surrendered third to Brad Sweet before the caution flew again on Lap nine for the No. 18 of Ian Madsen.

Taking the green with 16 laps to go, Sweet jumped to the runner up spot as Josh Schneiderman’s night came to a close, while running fourth, with a broken rear-end assembly.

Underway for the final time, Gravel went uncontested to the finish. Brad Sweet crossed second, with Tim Kaeding coming from twelfth to complete the podium. Greg Hodnett crossed fourth with Daryn Pittman earning the hard charger of the night, coming from twenty-fourth to complete the top five.

Shane Stewart settled for sixth with Justin Henderson seventh. Paul McMahan crossed eighth followed by B-Feature winner Jason Sides. Defending FVP Knoxville Nationals Champion, Donny Schatz, completed the top ten after finishing third in the B-Feature.

Shane Stewart and Justin Henderson are currently tied in the points after the opening night of the FVP Knoxville Nationals with 481. Brad Sweet (480), Paul McMahan (477), David Gravel (474) complete the top five.

The 53rd FVP Knoxville Nationals continues on Thursday, August 8 with Hot Laps scheduled for 7:15 P.M. (CDT). News and information can be found at <http://www.knoxvillraceway.com>.

Brian Brown Tops Casey's Qualifying Night at Knoxville

Bryan Hulbert / Bill Wright - KNOXVILLE, Ia. (August 8, 2013) It didn't take Brian Brown long to get to the front of the field in Friday's Casey's General Stores qualifying night feature, as the Casey's/FVP No. 21 shot to the point exiting low in turn two on Roger Crockett on a Lap 2 restart.

"Man I'm so happy," said an elated Brian Brown in Knoxville Victory Lane. "I was so nervous going into tonight. I didn't want to let all those people down that thought we were supposed to be up here down."

Pulling Kerry Madsen into the runner up spot, the duo began dicing for the lead as the caution displayed on Lap 3.

At speed, Madsen put the Keneric Racing No. 29 to the cushion with Brown able to throw the block. Battling back after falling back to fifth, second starting Scott Winters pulled to third on Lap 4 while Brown opened his advantage to 1.332 seconds.

Slowing again on Lap 8 for the stalled No. 4A of Jon Agan, the restart saw Brown work the hub with Madsen again railing the cushion. Producing a run down the back straight, Madsen dove for the lead through turns three and four; sliding across the nose of Brown's No. 21. Giving the Grain Valley, Mo. shoe just enough room to drive across the racing surface, Brown reclaimed the lead at the line.

Closing on slower traffic on Lap 15, the advantage stood at 0.742 seconds with traffic allowing Madsen to make up four-tenths by Lap 19 as the pair began pulling slide jobs on the back markers in a high speed game of cat and mouse.

Pulling as close as two-tenths on Brown, traffic would finally clear with two laps to run, giving Brian Brown enough room to pull to a 0.812 second advantage at the checkered flag, putting the FVP No. 21 outside the front row of Saturday's 50 lap feature event, next to Joey Saldana who place fifth in the night's feature event.

Kerry Madsen held onto second and earned the eighth starting spot in Saturday's feature event. "Obviously disappointed to not get the job done there, but the reality is, I should have good points for Saturday night, and it's a far cry from where we were at this point," commented Madsen on his runner up finish.

Kevin Swindell came from sixth to complete the podium; his fifth in as many starts in the Southern Iowa Speedweek. "I really thought I was going to steal one from them in traffic 'cause I was the only one down on the bottom that was kinda rolling good. Just slipped there once, but we've run five nights with five podiums, and a win, so I'm excited to be locked into this deal and go in with a little momentum."

Swindell will roll from the ninth starting spot in Saturday's FVP Knoxville Nationals championship feature.

Roger Crockett held on to fourth with the night's quick timer, Joey Saldana, advancing from eighth. Coming from the B-Feature, Cody Darrah clawed from twenty-second to sixth. After moving back into the top three early on, Scott Winters faded to seventh with Craig Dollansky, Terry McCarl, and Stevie Smith completing the top ten.

Friday's program will again provide drivers a chance to race into Saturday's feature event, giving the top four in Friday's A-Main a chance at rows nine and ten in Saturday's 50 lap feature event.

Hot Laps Friday, August 9 are scheduled to begin at 7:15 P.M. (CDT). For news, updates, and further information, log onto <http://www.knoxvillraceway.com>.

Kyle Larson Hustles into Knoxville Victory Lane

Bryan Hulbert / Bill Wright - KNOXVILLE, Ia. (August 9, 2013) Drama abounded at the Knoxville Raceway Friday night as Kyle Larson raced to victory on National Speed Sport News qualifying night aboard the Abreu Vineyards No. 1KL, earning the seventeenth starting spot in Saturday's $150,000 to win FVP Knoxville Nationals championship feature.

The 25 lap A-Feature began with a bang of sorts, as James McFadden spun across the track after tagging the back of Logan Schuchart entering turn one, collecting Austin McCarl, Robby Wolfgang, Tim Shaffer, and Rager Phillips. All drivers emerged unscathed.

Crossing 5.054 seconds ahead of Cap Henry, a caution with eight laps remaining allowed Larson to build his advantage as leaders were graced with a clear racetrack.

"I struggle in lapped traffic," admitted Larson after his second career Knoxville victory. "I was really good in clean air, but once I got into dirty air I was pretty tight, and worried. I didn't know how close second place was. Thankfully that yellow came out because I didn't think I was ever going to get by that No. 49 car. From there I had clean air, and that was the key to winning."

Cap Henry crossed second to earn his first career FVP Knoxville Nationals start as slower traffic racing with the leaders played to the advantage of the Champion Brands No. 54 on Lap 14, allowing Henry to work past Chad Kemenah.

“Me and A.J. are pretty good at making our cars really tight, and going where other people won’t and it showed tonight,” commented Henry on his finish. “I’m pretty excited. My goal was to run in the “B” so I guess we just skipped that and made the “A” Main.”

Kemenah ended up third with Jac Haudenschild taking the final spot into Saturday’s Feature event. Each of the top four finishers earned a $4,000 check for their finish.

Brandon Wimmer completed the top five with Jason Johnson sixth. Wayne Johnson, who transferred out of the first “B” Feature, clawed from twenty-first to seventh. Randy Hannagan, Jeff Swindell, and Davey Heskin completed the top ten.

Going back to the first B-Feature, Sammy Swindell crossed under the checkered flag with the car running out of fuel. Barely holding the transfer spot, the scales would deliver the final blow to Swindell’s night as the Platinum Edition No. 1 crossed light; putting Danny Dietrich in the show and placing Swindell in the “E” Feature on Saturday.

The second consolation feature saw R.J. Johnson lead until the final lap, only to cross fourth after contact with the wall cost the Tampa, Florida native dearly. Tim Shaffer, Austin McCarl, and Don Droud, Jr. moved on.

The National Speed Sport News World Challenge went to Australia’s Brooke Tatnell. Chasing down Jason Johnson from the start, slower traffic brought the opportunity Tatnell needed; getting the slide job on Johnson on the sixteenth circuit to earn the $10,000 bounty.

“I was asked at the Queen’s Pageant the other night what we thought our chances were and I said, we had a better chance of winning the Queen’s Pageant than winning the Nationals. Somehow we just got prettier overnight,” quipped the jubilant Brooke Tatnell.

Asked if he would take the “golden ticket” into Saturday’s feature event, Tatnell replied, “Can I have no seconds to think about it? I’m taking it baby. I’m taking it to the big dance.”

Tim Kaeding worked to second on Lap 21 followed quickly by Daryn Pittman. Jason Johnson settled for fourth with Donny Schatz rebounding to fifth after falling as far back as eighth.

The 53rd running of the FVP Knoxville Nationals concludes Saturday, August 10 with Hot Laps starting at 7:15 P.M. (CDT). The night will begin with the “E” Feature. Each consolation feature will take the top four drivers further up the ladder.

With Brooke Tatnell taking the #55 into Saturday’s 50 lap feature event, 25 drivers will now start the biggest Sprint Car race in the world for the first time ever.

Schatz is Incredible in Seventh Nationals Title in Eight Years

Bryan Hulbert / Bill Wright KNOXVILLE, Ia. (August 10, 2013) Cash on your birthday is always great, but even better is earning your seventh FVP Knoxville Nationals title and a $150,000 bounty as Donny Schatz raced from the twenty-first starting spot to make history as the deepest starting winner in Nationals history; a record that had stood since 1962 when Jerry Richert accomplished the feat. It was matched by Steve Kinser in 1995.

Talking about his mindset prior to the night's feature event, Schatz was questioned on whether or not he had any doubt he could win, "I didn't call it doubt, I called it motivation. This race team is unbelievable. I told these guys if we weren't in the top five on that stoppage, we were going to be in trouble. I did not expect the track to get abrasive and take rubber like that."

Taking the lead on Lap 41, the North Dakota native worked to 4.093 second advantage at the checkered flag.

"Man to get through there; I don't know what the hell else anyone wants me to do," said Schatz whose win defied the odds. "I guess I'm just going to keep doing what I do. That was a lot of fun to be able to start that far back and get up there. I know if it's that much fun for me, it's got to be that much fun for everyone here."

Jumping to the lead from the onset, Brian Brown immediately jumped to a 1.321 second advantage before the first caution on Lap 2 for the spun No. 4 of Cody Darrah.

After a caution on Lap 4, Brown again starting pulling to a huge advantage, pulling away for a 3.602 second lead by Lap 11. Having cracked the top 10 by Lap 5, Schatz continued to quietly march to the front, pulling to fifth on Lap 20.

The night's competition red flew on Lap 24 with Brown leading over Joey Saldana, Justin Henderson, Kevin Swindell, and Donny Schatz making up the top five.

Working to third on Lap 29 with the track starting to take rubber, the STP No. 15 grabbed second on Lap 32. From there, it was a matter of chasing down Brian Brown who ran amongst the back markers. Almost two seconds behind at Lap 33, Schatz closed to under a half second by Lap 40, taking the lead the following lap, and going uncontested to the finish.

Brian Brown settled for the runner up spot for the second year running. In victory lane, the Missouri shoe talked about what happened in the second session, "I just got out there a little too early on that second set. Just hats off to Donny. There's a reason he's a seven time champion. Congratulations to his team. "

Earning his best career finish in the FVP Knoxville Nationals, Justin Henderson completed the podium, only jumping in the American Fabrication No. 1D just over a month ago, "If it wasn't for Schatz I think, we were close to having something for Brian at the end, but we had a hole in the tire. I was working as hard as I could to keep it up, but if I wouldn't have pounded the wall trying pass Joey we may have had something, but, it is what it is. We'll come back next year and try again."

Paul McMahan crossed fourth with Chad Kemenah completing the top five from the nineteenth starting spot.

Kyle Larson charged from seventeenth to sixth with Joey Saldana seventh. Danny Lasoski moved from thirteenth to eighth with Steve Kinser and Cap Henry, who raced in via Friday night's feature event, completing the top ten from eighteenth.

The finale of the 53rd FVP Knoxville Nationals began in the "E" Feature with Sammy Swindell winning. Dale Blaney topped the night's "D" Feature with Sam Hafertepe, Jr. moving on via a "C" Feature. The "B" Feature was won by Donny Schatz with a last corner pass on Lynton Jeffrey.

Kevin Swindell, Roger Crockett, and Cap Henry made their first FVP Knoxville Nationals Championship "A" Feature start.

Kevin Swindell also earned the 2013 Jesse Hockett "Mr. Sprint Car" Award for his runs during Southern Iowa Sprint Week.

Danny Dietrich earned the Rookie of the Year honors for the 53rd running of the FVP Knoxville Nationals, advancing out of the "C" Feature and placing sixteenth in the "B" Feature.

Justin Henderson and the BDS Motorsports team earned the best appearing car of the year. The best appearing crew honor went to Cole Wood Racing. Crews for Joey Saldana and Jonathan Allard completed the top three best appearing crews.

The Knoxville Championship Cup Series will conclude 2013 with Season Championship Night on August 24. All three sprint car divisions will be in action. For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Lasoski Wins #100/Maeschen Wins Title!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, August 24, 2013 – It was a historic night in more ways than one Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway. Season Championship night came down to three drivers duking it out for a title in the 410 class, and Bronson Maeschen came out on top. In the feature, the man who has more track titles (nine) than any driver won for the 100th time at the historic oval. In the 360 class, Clint Garner became the first driver to win five championships in a row, while Jon Agan won the main event. All-time 305 feature winner, Larry Ball Jr., won the championship in that class, while defending champion, Matthew Stelzer took the non-stop feature.

Lasoski's win was hard-earned. Josh Schneiderman led early as he and Mark Dobmeier swapped the lead the first couple of laps. Dobmeier jumped to the point by lap five, and the first caution came out with ten laps in the books for a stopped RJ Johnson.

Dobmeier led Schneiderman, Davey Heskin, Bronson Maeschen and Danny Lasoski back to green flag racing. Heskin moved into second on the restart, and Lasoski followed him into third by the time a pair of cautions came out for Wayne Johnson and Mike Moore.

On lap 15, Lasoski worked under Heskin for second before fifth running Dusty Zomer suffered a flat left rear tire, bringing the yellow flag again. Lasoski made his winning move on lap 18, and survived an open red flag period on lap 23. Bob Weuve and Rager Phillips were upside down on the backstretch, while Garrett Dollansky was also involved. All drivers were o.k. Terry McCarl, who entered the feature second in points, was noticeably short on power the length of the feature, but his hopes faded when his fuel cap came off before the restart, and he had to restart at the tail.

Lasoski pulled away for his 100th 410 win at Knoxville, tops all-time, and worth $3,500. Heskin passed Dobmeier in the last corner for second, followed by Dobmeier, track champion Maeschen and Kevin Swindell. Hard-charger Brian Brown, who flipped in his heat, Ian Madsen, Don Droud Jr., Schneiderman and Lynton Jeffrey rounded out the top ten.

Justin Henderson, who set quick time, suffered a wild flip in his heat race and was done for the night. He would transport himself to the hospital later in the night. Wayne Johnson, Zomer and RJ Johnson won heats, while Brown won the B.

Lasoski was visibly emotional in Victory Lane. "I'm not a driver that gets choked up, but I'm telling you, this is pretty special to me. A hundred wins. Wow! Brian Brown was here for most of them, my father was here for most of them...I wish my wife was here. We're going to have a party here tonight, I can guarantee that! When you start eighth with this competition it's tough, but when you have Mark Burch working on the car and Kistler power, the odds are in my favor."

"The whole night was a roller coaster," said Maeschen on winning the Knoxville Championship Cup. "I don't feel like it's over. I feel like puking now more than I did earlier! There are a lot of people who have helped us, and it's great to have them here. We're going to wait until the sun come up here, and we might just go straight to church!"

Jon Agan led from the start in the 20-lap 360 feature. Champion, Clint Garner, got off to a rough start and came to a stop after a lap was completed. He restarted at the tail. Early on, Justyn Cox and Randy Martin tailed Agan, trading the runner-up spot twice.

At the halfway mark, it was Agan leading Martin, Cox, Joe Beaver and Scott Winters. Winters moved into fourth on lap 12, and into 3rd after a caution for Josh Higday with sixteen laps in the books. Higday came to a stop, and the leader narrowly avoided rear-ending him.

Agan pulled away for his ninth career 360 win ahead of Martin, Winters, Cox and Beaver. Jamie Ball, hard-charger Ryan Roberts, Matt Moro, Nate Van Haaften and Garner rounded out the top ten. Winters set quick time, while Roberts, Agan and Van Haaften won heats.

“We got a little tight in traffic,” said Agan in Victory Lane. “It’s the little things too. I put my steering wheel in the wrong spot, and I had a brace right in my way. If you are in clean air and you’re tight, it’s fine. You get rolled up behind traffic though. I got up behind Higday there, and I was just trying to turn, turn, turn the car.”

Garner talked about his championship. “We had a really great year, and that’s what I’d like to look back at tonight. The race I had tonight was definitely nothing to brag about. Honestly, I think we’re planning to build a 410 deal. We want Knoxville Raceway to be successful. We want the 360 class to be here forever. I’ll be here for sure. If our 410 deal doesn’t work out, I’ll come with a 360. The plan is to come in a 410 and keep up with Bronson!”

The 15-lap 305 feature went non-stop, and pole-sitter, Matthew Stelzer led every lap for his second career win. J Kinder tracked him throughout the event and closed in the late stages, but the Omaha driver was able to hold on for the $600 victory. Stelzer missed several weeks after blowing an engine.

Larry Ball Jr. was into the top five by lap ten, and moved up to fourth and then third the next two laps to round out the podium. He was followed by Tanner Edwards and Chris Walraven. Steve Breazeale, Matt Stephenson, RJ Johnson, Sawyer Phillips and Stacey Alexander rounded out the top ten. Steve Breazeale set quick time, while Stelzer and Kinder won the heats.

“I didn’t know if I was going to have the right setup for how tacky it was,” said Stelzer in Victory Lane. “This Maxim chassis was the one we won the championship with last year, and it’s a bullet. My biggest fear was not being in the car for two months and not having the stamina to drive.”

“The chase is on to get our 410 done,” said Ball Jr. about next year. “We’ve got a brand new Ostrich ordered. I heard Clint say he was thinking about going to the 410. I guess we’re looking forward to that. Clint and I have had a lot of good racing in the past, and I look forward to that. Maybe I can put a couple of good years in, and when Jamie’s fully ready to kick me out of the seat, I’ll be done.”

The season is far from over in Knoxville. Saturday night, September 7, Knoxville Raceway plays host to the Enduro! For more information on upcoming events, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Mike Goff Claims 28th Annual Fall Enduro at Knoxville by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Ia (September 7) – Mike Goff of Lacona took the annual Fall Enduro at Knoxville Raceway Saturday night. In a race that went the 200 laps, the win paid Goff $1,000 for his efforts. He was in the lead from the 125 lap mark.

Ten red flag periods were encountered along the way for various reasons such as debris on the track as well for removal of stalled cars which were in a dangerous position. Near the 75 lap segment, a red was thrown in order to stop the race for a re-watering of the track in order to slow the cars.

Finishing second was Ryan Lundy of Knoxville, who was just one lap behind the winning car. Darin Van Dee of Deep River finished third. Bowdy Miller of Des Moines was fourth, followed by Zack Vernon of Knoxville.

“Rocket Man” Richards Takes Off on First Night of Late Model Nationals!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, September 26, 2013 – Josh Richards emerged victorious on night #1 of the Lucas Oil Late Model Nationals at the Knoxville Raceway. The Shinnston, West Virginia native earned $7,000 for his win, his second overall at the famous half-mile. It was his first appearance here in three years.

Pole-sitter Brandon Sheppard led the 25-lapper in the early going. Richard moved by Jared Landers into second on lap two, and Darrell Lanigan took third on the fourth circuit. The first caution of the night came out on lap seven when Dennis Erb Jr. and Joel Callahan collided, collecting Jimmy Owens.

Richards shot under Sheppard on the restart to take the lead with Lanigan in tow. Jason Feger moved into third on lap ten before Scott Bloomquist came to a stop on the frontstretch with fourteen laps in. Dale McDowell and Feger traded third a couple of times in a good battle, but Richards stayed on the point through a last restart for a stopped Frank Heckenast Jr. who was running ninth on lap 17.

Richards recorded the win ahead of Lanigan, Feger, McDowell and Bub McCool. Billy Moyer, Chad Simpson, hard-charger John Blankenship, Sheppard and Earl Pearson Jr. completed the top ten. McDowell was high point man on the night.

Don O'Neal and McDowell recorded quick times in their respective groups, while Moyer, McCool, Callahan, Tony Jackson Jr., Morgan Bagley and Steve Francis claimed heat races. Ryan Gustin claimed the D main, Shannon Babb won the C and Eddie Carrier Jr. won the B.

"I love this racetrack," said Richards in Victory Lane. "Everyone here does a phenomenal job. We were a little tight early in the night. Brandon was doing a good job. We had good track position on the restart. I feel like we have a really good car for Saturday night, and we'll definitely take the win tonight."

Richards Dominates Again on Night #2 of the Knoxville Late Model Nationals!

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, September 27, 2013 – The “Rocket Man”, Josh Richards, dominated the feature event on night #2 of the Lucas Oil Late Model Nationals Friday night at the Knoxville Raceway. He has put himself in position for a sweep of the event, as he will start outside of row one beside Dale McDowell in Saturday night's $40,000 to win finale.

Jimmy Owens led at the outset of Friday night's 25-lap main event. When the third place car of McDowell retired on lap four with a flat tire, Owens led Earl Pearson Jr., AJ Diemel, Richards and Darrell Lanigan.

Owens had take-off problems on the restart and Diemel shot into the lead. A lap later, contact between Richards and Lanigan sent the latter sideways and brought out the caution. The restart following the yellow flag period was chaotic and saw Billy Moyer, Don O'Neal, Shannon Babb and Chad Simpson retire.

Once under green, Richards took command on the high side. He grabbed third from Owens on lap six, second from Pearson on lap seven, and took the lead from Diemel on lap nine. At the halfway point, he led Diemel, Owens, Pearson and Scott Bloomquist.

Owens shot by Diemel on lap eighteen for second, before Chris Simpson stopped to bring out the race's final caution on lap twenty. It didn't phase Richards, who pulled away to win for the second night in a row and the third time in his career here. Owens was second, ahead of Diemel, Pearson and hard-charger, Tim McCreadie. Steve Francis, Jimmy Mars, Jason Feger, Ryan Gustin and John Blankenship rounded out the top ten.

Gustin posted quick time on the night, while Brady Smith, Francis, Chris Simpson, Ryan Unzicker, Lanigan and Babb won the heats. Denny Eckrich won the D, while Jason Rauhen took the C and Gustin claimed the B.

"I slipped up off of two, and I lost a ton of ground," said Richards of the final restart with five laps to go. "I had to stay on the cushion to keep it rolling. I thought I could hear somebody, but I knew if I got back on top and kept it rolling, I'd be o.k."

Darrell Lanigan Emerges Victorious in Late Model Nationals! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE RACEWAY, Knoxville, IA, September 28, 2013 – Darrell Lanigan made up for some hard luck in years past to win his first Lucas Oil Late Model Nationals at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday night. The Union, Kentucky driver pocketed $40,000 for the win.

Josh Richards, who swept the first two nights of qualifying in the event, took the lead in the 100-lap event early on. Except for Dale McDowell edging ahead of him on lap seven, he held the point for the first nineteen laps. Lanigan advanced to third on lap eleven and he was second a pair of circuits later. He shot under Richards for the point on lap twenty.

At the 25-lap mark, Lanigan led Richards, McDowell, Jason Feger and AJ Diemel. The first caution of the event flew on lap 32 for Jared Landers, who blew a right rear tire. Another came seven laps later when Jimmy Owens came to a stop in turn four. At the time, Richards was challenging the leader and appeared to be ready to make a pass.

The next eight laps saw two more cautions, one for Brandon Sheppard, who got in the wall, and a second for Landers, who stopped on the backstretch. At the halfway point, Lanigan led Richards, McDowell, Fegers and a charging Billy Moyer.

The lead trio remained the same until lap 81, when Moyer shot by Feger for third. Richards was all over Lanigan, and took the lead back on lap 84. The lead pair worked hard in traffic in an epic battle, but with six laps to go, Eddie Carrier Jr. flipped in turn three, bringing the red flag. A six lap Dash to the checkers saw Richards leading Lanigan, Moyer, Feger and Don O'Neal.

It was not to be, however, as O'Neal got into Feger, who turned on his side in turn two. McDowell, Scott Bloomquist, and several other cars were involved in the incident. On the ensuing restart, Lanigan was able to get around Richards to complete lap 95 and went on to win ahead of the "Rocket Man". Tim McCreddie completed a late charge to finish third, ahead of hard-charger, Steve Francis and Moyer. John Blankenship, Brady Smith, Bloomquist, Owens and Chad Simpson completed the top ten.

Earlier in the evening, Steve Lance Jr. won the D main, Brian Birkhofer took the C main and Morgan Bagley took the 20-lap B main in a record 6:19.0.

"My tires were getting over the berm, I was running so hard," said Lanigan in Victory Lane. "Once I had the cautions, my car got good again. I needed that restart at the end, and this is unbelievable. Anytime you can win the Knoxville Nationals, it's at the top of the crown jewels. The car was phenomenal."
